GIRLS SWIMMING:

A SEASON PREVIEW

Archbishop Wood

Coach: Charlie Stillwell (fourth year)

Last year: 5-2

Seniors lost: 4

Key returners: Sr. Kelly Dansbury (all strokes), Sr. Theresa Skonicki (all strokes), Sr. Lindsey Stillwell (all strokes), Jr. Meghan Bredin (freestyle), Jr. Kelly DiBiagio (all strokes), Jr. Valerie Macrone (free, butterfly), Jr. Marianne Reuter (free), Jr. Joelleen Seagraves (fly, free), Soph. Jill Brennecke (all strokes), Soph. Katelyn Crompton (breaststroke, free), Soph. Caitlyn Harrington (free, back), Soph. Michelle Racine (free, breast), Soph. Stephanie Schuh (diving, free), Soph. Caitlin Seckinger (all strokes).

Key newcomers: Fr. Jacqueline Morley (all strokes), Fr. Christine Adams (free), Fr. Portia Corsiko (free), Fr. Audrey Shaw (free).

The coach's view: "Last year was a very young team led by one of our most talented freshman groups," Stillwell said of the Vikings, who are hoping to improve on their third-place finish at the Philadelphia Catholic League championship meet.

Archbishop Wood

Coach: Charlie Stillwell

League: Philadelphia Catholic

2000-01 league record: 5-2

2000-01 overall record: 5-2

Returnees: Kelly Dansbury (Sr., distance freestyle, backstroke, individual medley); Theresa Skonicki (Sr., sprint freestyle, individual medley, butterfly); Lindsey Stillwell (Sr., sprint freestyle, individual medley); Meghan Bredin (Jr., distance freestyle); Kelly DiBiagio (Jr., sprint freestyle, backstroke, breaststroke); Sarah Letherland (Jr., freestyle); Valerie Macrone (Jr., freestyle, butterfly); Marianne Reuter (Jr., distance freestyle); Danielle Thomas (Jr., freestyle); Pamela Villagra (Jr., freestyle); Joelleen Seagraves (Jr., butterfly, freestyle); Jill Brennecke (So., butterfly, butterfly, backstroke, freestyle); Blythe Colsher (So., backstroke, freestyle); Katelyn Crompton (So., breaststroke, freestyle); Yvette Garner (So., breaststroke, freestyle); Caitlyn Harrington (So., distance freestyle, backstroke); Michelle Racine (So., sprint freestyle, breaststroke); Stephanie Schuh (So., diver, sprint freestyle); Caitlin Seckinger (So., breaststroke, distance freestyle, individual medley); Lisa Whitlock (So., butterfly, freestyle, backstroke).

Newcomers: Kristal Narkiewicz (Jr., freestyle); Jacqueline Morley (Fr., breaststroke, individual medley, freestyle); Christine Adams (Fr., freestyle); Portia Corsiko (Fr., freestyle); Audrey Shaw (Fr., freestyle); Danielle Magnant (Jr., freestyle).

Outlook: The team has a lot of experience that is complemented by a strong freshman class. This should be another good year for the Vikings.

5 Can Archbishop Wood's young swimmers lead the Vikings into Philadelphia Catholic League contention? One of the big strengths of Wood's team last winter was an extremely large freshman contingent, which included Caitlin Seckinger. If those swimmers can step up as sophomores, Wood could have the best team depth it has ever had.

Questions to be answered

It's never easy to win in the Suburban One League National Conference, with Council Rock, CB East, North Penn, Bensalem, Pennsbury and CB West on the schedule. The Panthers will need some of their younger swimmers to support senior Julie Palumbo and junior Christina Friel's typically solid efforts.

Will William Tennent build enough depth to post a winning record?

It's never easy to win in the Sub-

Will perennial district qualifiers Amanda Hartzell of Pennridge and Miranda Maikner of Quakertown step up and threaten to reach the state meet?

Hartzell placed 22nd in the 200 individual medley and 26th in the 100 butterfly last season at districts. Maikner was 25th in the 100 backstroke and 29th in the 200 IM. They enter the season as, unquestionably, the leaders of their respective teams.

Can Lansdale Catholic's Carolyn Dwyer break all of her own school records this year?

The senior repeatedly rewrote the school's record books last year and qualified for districts in the 100 and 200 freestyles. She'll try to improve on her 15th- and 14th-place finishes in those events at this year's district meet.

Who will be this year's standout freshmen? Girls swimming is one of the few high school sports in which ninth-graders can have a huge, immediate impact. Council Rock's Sharon Leary and Hatboro-Horsham's Kelsey Morrissey each won two District One individual titles last year. Maybe some of this year's top overall performers will prove to be freshmen who are not so well known — yet.

BOYS SWIMMING:

A SEASON PREVIEW

Archbishop Wood

Coach: Charlie Stillwell (sixth year)

Last Year: 2-5

Starters lost: 0

Key newcomers: Fr. Billy Langlois (butterfly, breaststroke); Soph. Michael Schwed (breaststroke, freestyle); Fr. David Zerumski (breaststroke, freestyle).

The coach's view: "With so many seniors on the team and most of them with us since their freshman year, we will come in with a big edge, knowing what it will take to win the big meets."

Archbishop Wood

Coach: Charlie Stillwell

League: Philadelphia Catholic

2000-01 league record: 2-5

2000-01 overall record: 2-5

Newcomers: Matthew Kurilla (So., freestyle); Patrick Socaciu (So., freestyle); David Zerumski (Fr., breaststroke, freestyle); William Langlois (Fr., breaststroke, butterfly, freestyle, individual medley); Brian O'Neill (Soph., freestyle); Michael Schwed (So., butterfly, breaststroke, freestyle); Joseph Fisher (Sr., freestyle).

Outlook: The team has a solid core of returning swimmers plus some nice newcomers who should help out. Wood lost no seniors to graduation last year which should help as the program continues to build up.

Nick Fanslau, North Penn

The Knights junior stole the show at last year's District One championship meet by winning titles in four events. And he's grown another inch and added about 10 pounds of muscle.

Chad Moyer, Souderton

Back for his senior year, Moyer has a versatility rivaled by few others in the area. He excels in the IM, backstroke and freestyle and is a key part of the Indians' relay groups.

Todd Bauer, Souderton

Bauer competed on all three Indians relay teams at states last year, including the 200-yard freestyle relay that won a national championship. He also made states in both the 200 and 500 free, placing sixth and earning a medal in the latter.

Impact Swimmers

Listed alphabetically

Pat Thompson, North Penn

The Knights' top returning senior, Thompson placed seventh at states last year in the 500-yard freestyle and helped NP's 400-yard freestyle relay team earn a second-place finish.

Matthew O'Connor, Wood

Last year, O'Connor set a school record in the 100-yard butterfly. The year before, he swam on a 200-yard freestyle relay team that did the same. This year, as a senior, he'll be counted on to lead an experienced Vikings squad.

O'Connor wins two events in Archbishop Wood setback

Archbishop Wood's Matthew O'Connor posted a pair of individual-event wins Thursday, but the Vikings dropped a 98-70 decision to Monsignor Bonner in a Philadelphia Catholic League boys swim meet at Ridley High School.

O'Connor's victories came in the 200-yard freestyle (1 minute, 53.87 seconds) and 500 free (5:23.90). The Vikings also got a win from Kevin Whelan in the 50 free (23.60). O'Connor and Whelan later joined forces with Chris Augustine and Billy Langlois to capture the 400 free relay (3:43.49).

Wood girls nip St. Hubert

In a Philadelphia Catholic League girls swim meet that came down to the final event Friday, Archbishop Wood captured the 400-yard freestyle relay and edged St. Hubert, 87-83, at Klinger Middle School.

Caitlyn Harrington, Kelly Dansbury, Kelly DiBiagio and Theresa Skonicki captured the 400 free relay in 3 minutes, 54.28 seconds.

Earlier in the meet, Harrington had captured the 200 free (2:08.76) and 500 free (5:38.15), and Dansbury won the 100 butterfly (1:05.26) and 100 backstroke (1:05.87). Skonicki, meanwhile, placed first in the 200 individual medley (2:28.01).

O'Connor makes mark for Wood

Matthew O'Connor had a hand in Archbishop Wood's two event wins in the Vikings' 95-73 loss to visiting Cardinal O'Hara in Philadelphia Catholic League boys swimming Friday.

O'Connor prevailed in the 100-yard backstroke (56.97 seconds), then joined forces with Kevin Whelan, Chris Augustine and Kyle Brennecke in winning the 400 free relay (3:46.79).

Even opponents like Wood Web site

Swim coach Charlie Stillwell created it and maintains it.

The transition from water to the Web is a natural one for Charlie Stillwell. Through laps in the pool and links on the computer, the Archbishop Wood boys' and girls' head swim coach keeps track of his swimmers.

Stillwell, who works in the computer industry as a network administrator, also is the creator and curator for www.woodswimming.com, one of the most sophisticated, informative and entertaining Web sites dedicated to area high school sports.

The site features dozens of links, and has complete results from the 1997-98 season through the 2001-02 campaign, which ended with the Catholic League championship meet on Sunday. Photos of Wood's swimmers flash before visitors' eyes on the right side of the page, and images and symbols of the school and team pass on the left.

Colorful links at the top allow for access to a particular season, and there's something for alumni, Catholic League members and general swimming enthusiasts. Results for the entire league are available, and the graphics give the site style in addition to substance.

Perhaps, most importantly, Stillwell keeps the site constantly updated.

"That's the best site going," said Cardinal O'Hara coach Kevin Speicher, a computer programmer himself who wrote a software program that Stillwell and other league coaches can use to keep track of times. "Our entire league uses it. From my standpoint, it provides the kids in our league an opportunity to say up on what's going on."

Said Wood senior Theresa Skonicki: "It's set up really well. It has all you need with the dates and times. It's really helpful and informative."

The Web site is devoted primarily to Wood and Catholic League swimming, but there even is a section for those who prefer the candy PEZ over pools. Under Stillwell's biography, there is a link to photos of his PEZ dispenser collection.

Stillwell has accumulated about 250 PEZ dispensers in the last four years. Some of them are: Charlie Brown, Flintstones, Muppets, Simpsons and Star Wars. He ventured into a convenience store one day, picked up a dispenser and the collection just kept growing.

"I thought it was interesting," said Stillwell, who updates the collection when new series of dispensers are introduced but hasn't sought out older models.

"The kids tease me about it all the time. They think it's funny I have a link on my site."

Wood's swimmers can relate to Stillwell, a 1976 Wood graduate who swam for the Vikings and continued his career at the University of Maryland.

He graduated with a degree in business studies and had a good job, he said, as the business transportation manager at a trucking company. Stillwell became interested in computers in 1985.

"The company I was working for got a new software package and I watched the guy install it and fix the bugs," Stillwell said.

Stillwell taught himself a few things and eventually attended computer school to learn programming. After working as a programmer, Stillwell became a network administrator.

On the side, he started his own company, Dynamic Data Systems, which writes business packages for small companies.

Stillwell lived in Florida for six years, but he returned to Bucks County in the mid-1990s. He just completed his sixth year coaching the Wood swim teams.

The girls' team placed second in the Catholic League in 1998, 1999 and 2000. One of Stillwell's three assistants is his daughter Jessica, and his second daughter, Lindsey, is a senior captain on the team. His son, Sean, is a junior at Wood.

This season, the girls finished 5-3 overall, 5-2 in the league and third at the league meet.

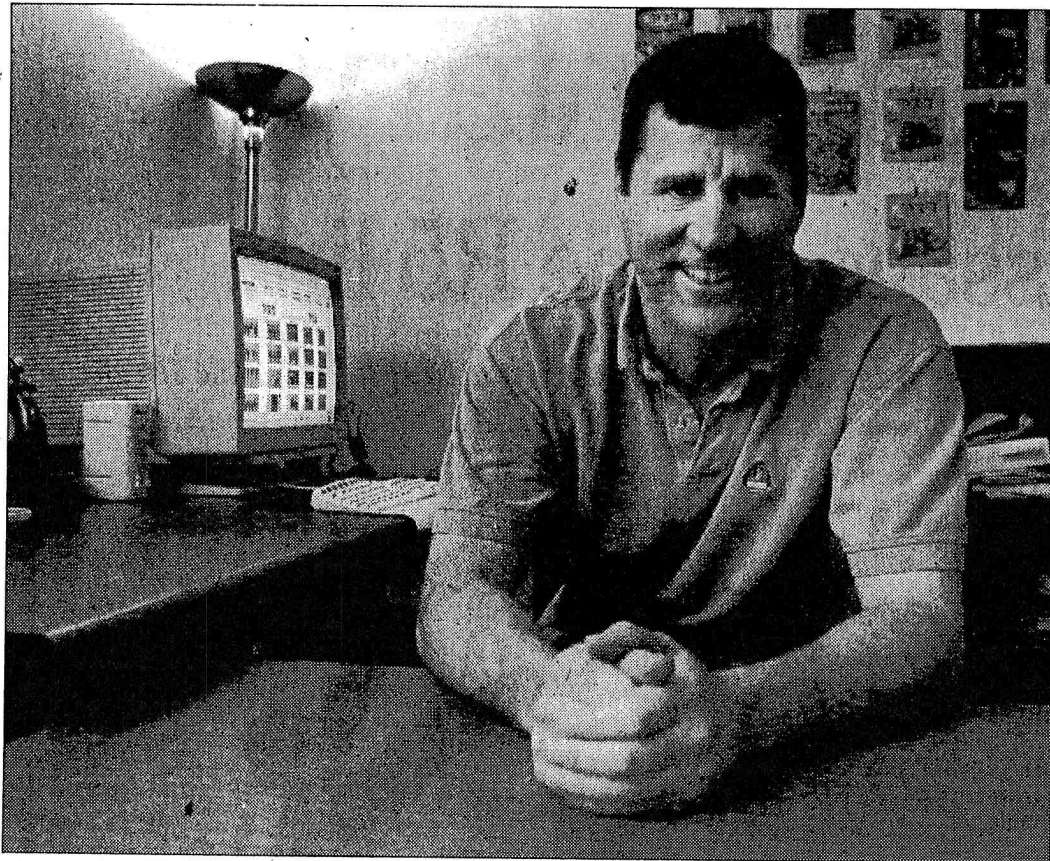

The boys were 2-6 overall, 2-5 in the league and sixth in the league meet.

Not surprisingly, the computer plays a role in the competition.

"It makes my job easier," Stillwell said. "I can use the computer to generate information to put lineups together."

Said Wood senior Joe Fisher: "You can see where you're at and what you should shoot for compared to everyone else in the league."

O'Hara yields favorite's mantle to Ryan

INQUIRER SUBURBAN STAFF

The Cardinal O'Hara girls' swimming team finds itself in an unusual position for the Catholic League championships, which will be conducted Saturday and Sunday at La Salle University.

The Lions, who have won 20 of the last 25 championships, may not be cast in the role of favorite this time around. That honor belongs to Archbishop Ryan, which beat O'Hara during the regular season.

"Ryan's freshman class is so good," said veteran O'Hara coach Kevin Speicher. "Our freestylers may be the class of the league, but they have all of the strokeers."

Archbishop Wood coach Charlie Stillwell agreed.

"Ryan has a lot of good swimmers," Stillwell said. "They had a good class come in last year and they had a number of freshmen come in this year who are the top of the league."

The girls' competition begins with trials at 1:30 p.m. Saturday. The boys' trials start at 9 a.m. Finals for both boys and girls start at 11 a.m. Sunday.

Ryan's Jamie Broadbent, Kathryn Hartman, Katie McDade, Kaitlin Slowey, Kori Kilfeather and Jessica Williams have some of the fastest times in the league in their events.

Broadbent has excelled in the 200-yard individual medley and 100 backstroke, Hartman in the 200 individual medley and 100 breaststroke, McDade in the 100 breaststroke, Slowey in the 50 freestyle and 100 butterfly, Kilfeather in the 100 butterfly, and Williams in the 200 individual medley.

The Lions are expected to challenge based on the strength of their freestylers, especially in the two freestyle relays. O'Hara is the top seed in both events. Courtney Clark, Lauren Conaboy, Melissa Birkenmeier and Susie Horstmann make up both the 200 and 400 freestyle relay teams.

Clark is among the top seeds in the 500 freestyle. She is expected to get stiff competition from Archbishop Wood's Caitlyn Harrington, and from Williams of Ryan.

Birkenmeier is among the top seeds in the 100 freestyle.

Stillwell expects Harrington, Theresa Skonicki and Kelly Dansbury to make noise.

"I think Caitlyn has a good shot in the 500," Stillwell said. "She's tapering for this meet."

Stillwell said that Skonicki, the top seed in the 200 freestyle, tapered for the Eastern Interscholastic Championships last weekend.

"If she holds the taper, I think she can go even faster in the league championships," Stillwell said. He expects Dansbury to be a medal winner in the 100 butterfly and 100 breaststroke.

Girls swimming notes

ARCHBISHOP WOOD: The Philadelphia Catholic League does not have diving, but sophomore Stephanie Schuh dives for the Vikings, nonetheless. "I chose Wood instead of William Tennent because I wanted a Catholic education, and there's more to high school than sports," she said. She participated in the Eastern Interscholastic championships last year, taking 13th. "Only the top 12 get to the finals and I just missed, so I want to get back there this year and try to do that." She competed in her first dual meet yesterday, taking second as Wood fell to Bensalem, 116-67, in a nonleague meet. She did not get a chance to warm up, since the team bus inadvertently went to Robert K. Schafer Middle School instead of the high school. "I didn't do as well as I could have, but that's the way it goes." She also swims, practicing every day with the team. The Vikings travel to Archbishop Ryan for a PCL meet next Thursday at 3:15 p.m. Wood is 1-0 in the PCL, having beaten John W. Hallahan, 93-34. Individual winners were Kelly DiBiagio (200-yard freestyle), Jill Brennecke (200 individual medley), Joelleen Seagraves (100 butterfly), Danielle Magnant (100 freestyle, 100 breaststroke), Marianne Reuter (500 freestyle) and Meghan Bredin (100 backstroke). Kelly Dansbury, Caitlin Seckinger, Lisa Whitlock and Brennecke won the 200 medley relay and Christine Adams, Portia Corsiko, Magnant and Kristal Narkiewicz won the 200 freestyle relay.

BENSALEM: Caitlin Hyde earned her 100th career win in dual meet races in yesterday's 116-67 nonleague victory over Archbishop Wood. She hit the mark when she won the 200 freestyle, although she also won the 100 freestyle. "I didn't even know about it until (coach) Ted Schueller told me last week," she said. "It isn't the kind of thing you keep track of, although it's really a nice achievement." A senior, Hyde is excited about her last swim season. "I really want to make the finals at states this year," she said. "I'm thinking about going for the 200 and 500 (freestyle) because that's been working for me." She hopes to study business and swim in college. Her list includes George Washington, Delaware and Lehigh. The Owls travel to Neshaminy for an SOL crossover meet today at 3:45 p.m.

Well-constructed Wood. Archbishop Wood, which placed third in the Catholic League last season, second in both 2000 and 1999, and third in 1998, is focusing on its own performance before measuring itself against the competition.

The competition includes four-time defending champion Cardinal O'Hara and last season's runner-up, Archbishop Ryan.

"It's going to be a real tough season," Wood coach Charlie Stillwell said. "There are going to be a lot of close meets. It's going to be a struggle to find our identity."

"We have such a young team. Basically, our identity will be who steps up from the middle of the pack. Our identity this year will be who we get to crank it up."

Senior Theresa Skonicki will help determine where the Vikings stand and how they swim. At the league championships last season, she placed second in the 100 freestyle and third in the 200 individual medley.

Wood opened its season Dec. 19 with a 93-34 win at John W. Hallahan at University City High. Skonicki was a member of the winning 200 freestyle relay team with Lindsey Stillwell, Kelly DiBagio and Caitlyn Harrington, and the winning 400 freestyle relay squad with Harrington, Kelly Dansbury and DiBagio.

"She can do almost anything," Stillwell said of Skonicki.

Wood girls take 3rd in PCL

PHILADELPHIA — Archbishop Wood High School's girls swimming team finished third at yesterday's Philadelphia Catholic League championships at La Salle University.

Archbishop Ryan scored 827 points to claim the title.

The Vikings began the day by placing second in the medley relay. The relay members were Caitlyn Harrington (backstroke), Katelyn Crompton (breaststroke), Kelly Dansbury (butterfly) and Theresa Skonicki (freestyle).

Skonicki won the 200-yard freestyle rather handily, and Harrington placed third in the same event.

Skonicki was seeded second in the 100 freestyle and nearly pulled off an upset, but O'Hara's Melissa Birkenmeier touched her out. Birkenmeier's winning time of 54.79 seconds was the slimmest of margins — two hundredths of a second — over Skonicki (54.81).

After finishing third in the 200 freestyle, Harrington placed second in the 500 freestyle and also nearly won that event.

In addition to Skonicki and Harrington, Wood got another second-place finish by Dansbury in the 100 butterfly. Dansbury also placed third in the 100 backstroke.

The Vikings finished the day with a third-place finish in the 400 freestyle relay with the team of Harrington, Dansbury, Kelly DiBagio and Skonicki.

In the boys event, the La Salle Explorers captured their 14th consecutive championship.

Locally, Archbishop Wood finished sixth.

Wood's best performer in the meet was Matthew O'Connor, who placed second in the 100 butterfly and fourth in the breaststroke.

a second — over Skonicki (54.81).

"I felt that I could go faster than I did (Saturday in the preliminaries)," said Skonicki, whose seeding time was 55.32. "I also knew that everybody would be going after Melissa.

"Both Melissa and (Archbishop Ryan's) Kaitlyn (Slowey) are better sprinters than I am, so I knew that I had to be with them at every turn. When I saw that I was with them at the second turn, I thought that I could do it."

She came up short, but Skonicki was not upset about finishing second. If you heard her reaction, you might have thought that she won.

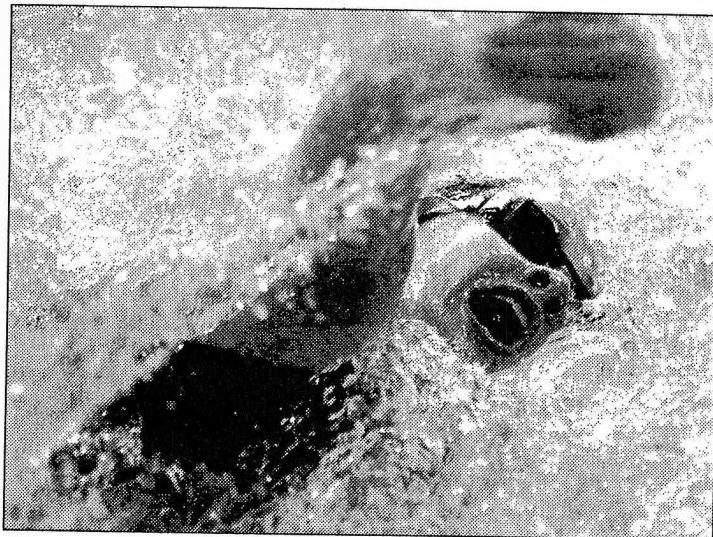

"To do a fifty-four was incredible," Skonicki said. "I couldn't believe it!"

After finishing third in the 200 freestyle, Harrington placed second in the 500 freestyle and also nearly won that event.

Ryan freshman Jessica Williams was the fourth seed, but she took the lead at the 200-yard mark and never trailed after that. She began to open up a small gap around the 400-yard mark and appeared to falter a bit as Harrington made a charge.

Top seed Clark took the lead at the outset but was in third place by the 200-yard turn. Harrington was between the two and didn't realize how close she might have been to winning the race.

"I didn't know how close I was (in the last lap) because I could see Courtney, but I couldn't see Jess," Harrington said. "I know that Jess does a sprint

Williams won in 5:16.38, and Harrington (5:17.64) and Clark (5:18.66) followed her in.

In addition to Skonicki and Harrington, Wood got another second-place finish by Dansbury in the 100 butterfly. Dansbury also placed third in the 100 backstroke.

The Vikings finished the day with a third-place finish in the 400 freestyle relay with the team of Harrington, Dansbury, Kelly DiBiagio and Skonicki.

La Salle dynasty continues

Explorers capture 14th straight PCL championship

PHILADELPHIA — It's long been sounding like a broken record, but La Salle is content to keep playing it over.

The Explorers captured their 14th consecutive Philadelphia Catholic League boys swimming championship with another magnificent performance at the league meet Sunday afternoon at La Salle University.

La Salle finished with 841 team points, nearly twice the amount collected by Monsignor Bonner, which placed second with 460 points. St. Joseph's Prep was third (430). Locally, Archbishop Wood finished in sixth place (247).

"Each year, we're getting more accomplishments," La Salle coach Frank Lichtner said. "We get more All-Americans, and we're breaking more records, and that's because of our dedication and hard work. Our kids learn how to win."

The Explorers captured all three relay races and five of the eight individual events. The parade to the victory stand began with Pat Healy, who won the 200- and 500-yard freestyles.

"I was really nervous going into that race because (O'Hara's Bill) Marcum was really fast in the first one hundred at Easterns," Healy said. "He doesn't normally swim the 200. I just wanted to keep up with him in the first half and take it out in the second hundred."

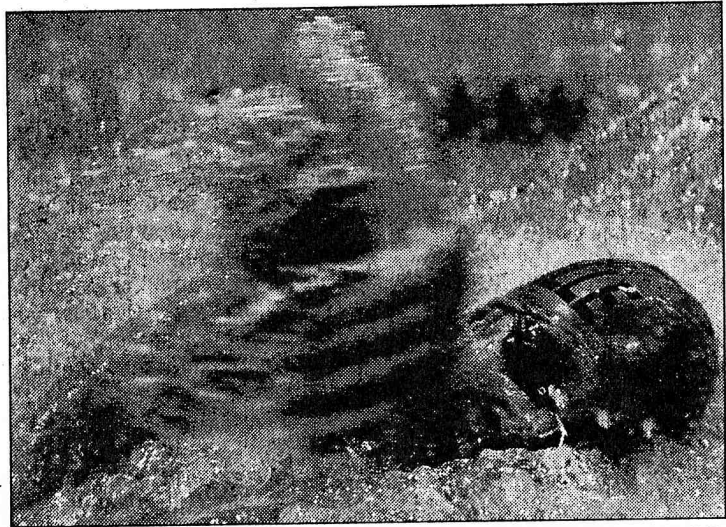

Gallagher placed second to Healy in both the 200 and 500 freestyles, but he had a similar strategy in the 200. He also knew that he had his best chance in that event.

"(Healy) is a tough swimmer, and he's real good in the second half of the race," Gallagher said. "I knew that he was going to beat me in the second hundred, so I knew that I had to take it out fast. I just couldn't hold (the lead)."

The Explorers had another double winner in Chris Jeffers, who won the 50 and 100 freestyles.

"After yesterday's qualifying (heats), I really wasn't worried about today," Jeffers said. "O'Hara has some good swimmers, so I thought that they could push us."

PHILADELPHIA — Cardinal O'Hara's four-year run as Philadelphia Catholic League girls swimming champions came to a halt on Sunday.

Archbishop Ryan scored 827 points to easily outdistance O'Hara (662) and claim the title in the season-ending league meet at La Salle University.

Archbishop Wood finished third with 397 points.

The Vikings began the day by placing second in the medley relay. And the relay members — Caitlyn Harrington (backstroke), Katelyn Crompton (breast-

PHILADELPHIA — It's long been sounding like a broken record, but La Salle is content to keep playing it over.

La Salle finished with 841 team points, nearly twice the amount collected by Monsignor Bonner, which placed second with 460 points. St. Joseph's Prep was third (430). Locally, Archbishop Wood finished in sixth place (247).

Even though the outcome was never in doubt, Explorers coach Frank Lichtner is never at a loss for words to praise the accomplishments of his squad.

"Each year, we're getting more accomplishments," Lichtner said. "We get more All-Americans, and we're breaking more records, and that's because of our dedication and hard work. Our kids learn how to win."

The Explorers captured all three relay races and five of the eight individual events. The parade to the victory stand began with Pat Healy, who won the 200- and 500-yard freestyles.

Healy faced some stiff competition in the 200 freestyle with teammate Pat Gallagher and Cardinal O'Hara's Bill Marcum. It was basically a three-man race until Healy pulled away in the home stretch. Gallagher and Marcum finished second and third, respectively.

Gallagher placed second to Healy in both the 200 and 500 freestyles, but he had a similar strategy in the 200. He also knew that he had his best chance in that event.

The 500 freestyle was a one-man race. Healy just took off and left everybody in his wake.

"I was trying to go for my record, but I was happy with the time," said Healy, who finished in 4:37.72.

He holds the league record for the event, 4:34.30, which was set in the preliminaries at Easterns.

Wood's best performer in the meet was Matthew O'Connor, who placed second to Marcum in the 100 butterfly. O'Connor also placed fourth in the breaststroke.

Most of the area's swim teams are getting back into competition in the next couple of days after taking a break for the holidays. One strange exception to the rule is the Archbishop Wood boys team.

The Vikings began their competitive season Nov. 30 at the Central Bucks' East Relay Carnival, but haven't swum in a meet since. Their first dual meet is their Philadelphia Catholic League opener, scheduled for Jan. 15 at La Salle.

Wood trio pans for gold at PCLs

Matthew O'Connor, Caitlyn Harrington and Theresa Skonicki each came close to winning an individual championship for Archbishop Wood at last year's Philadelphia Catholic League boys and girls swimming championships.

When they lead the Vikings into this weekend's PCL meet (Saturday and Sunday at La Salle University), they each have realistic dreams of capturing gold medals.

O'Connor, a senior, placed third in the 100-yard butterfly and sixth in the 100 backstroke last year. This season, he has posted the PCL's second best times in those events — 54.39 seconds in the fly and 55.73 seconds in the back.

La Salle's Adam DiMenna has the top time in the fly (53.52) and Monsignor Bonner's Matt Carmody is the top seed in the back (54.12).

"My times have been slower than I thought they'd be this year," said O'Connor, "but I'm feeling pretty good after (last weekend's Eastern Inter-scholastic Championships). I think that boosted my confidence.

"They're probably both going to be very close races. If I get out of there with a win, it would be great, but it's not really that important. If I win, I win. Whoever swims the best race is going to win."

Wood coach Charlie Stillwell said both races should present considerable challenges to O'Connor.

"It's going to be tough," Stillwell said. "I think Matt will definitely be in the top four in both of them, but his best shot to win is in the fly — I think he's a little better in that event. He still has to swim better."

Harrington, a sophomore, appears to be peaking at the right time. The PCL runner-up in the 500 freestyle last year, she is the top seed in that event this weekend, thanks to the solid 5:19.27 she swam at last weekend's Easterns.

Cardinal O'Hara's Courtney Clark (5:19.36) is the defending champion and No. 2 seed, and Archbishop Ryan's Jessica Williams (5:19.47) is seeded third.

"I think it's going to be a pretty close race," Harrington said. "I thought my times would be better this year than they were, but then I did better at (Easterns) than I thought I would.

"Last year (at PCLs), it was a really fun meet because the 500 was so close. I think winning it would mean a lot to me, because I've been focusing on trying to win it.

"Courtney Clark and Jess Williams are close friends of mine, so, whoever wins it, it's OK."

Stillwell said Harrington should be able to hold her own in what could shape up to be the meet's most exciting race.

"She swam the best for us at Easterns," said Stillwell, "and she's actually tapering for this meet."

Skonicki, a senior, has a shot at ending her Wood career in grand style. She's the No. 1 seed in the 200 freestyle (1:59.30) and the No. 2 seed in the 100 (55.66).

"If she holds her taper, she has a shot in both of them," Stillwell said.

Last year, Skonicki placed second in the 100 free and third in the 200 individual medley at the PCL meet, and can usually be counted upon to come up big in the most important meets.

"Actually, I'm really confident," Skonicki said. "I swam those (seed) times at Easterns last weekend, and I'm confident I can do even better this weekend.

"First of all, I'd like to win. Along with that, I think good times would come."

Skonicki hopes to be in the low 55s or 54s in the 100, and the low 1:59s or 1:58s in the 200. If she reaches those times, it could be enough to give her the first two PCL individual-event titles of her career.

"It would be great to finish out my senior year like that," she said. "Hopefully, that will happen. This is the closest I've ever been to having a chance of winning (at PCLs), I think."

In the PCL team competition, Archbishop Ryan and Cardinal O'Hara are expected to battle for the girls championship, but Wood ought to be able to hold on for third place. La Salle is an overwhelming favorite to win the boys championship, with Wood aiming for sixth place or better.

It was a familiar scene, Meghan Peart stepping onto the podium at the Eastern Interscholastic Swimming and Diving Championships. But on this night the scene was as poignant as it was joyous. Because the German-t o w n Academy senior was stepping onto the podium for the last time.

Peart capped her scholastic career by winning both sprint freestyles and swimming on two winning relay teams last weekend. Her four gold medals gave her a career total of 16, more than any other swimmer has won in the 102-year history of the meet. Under the rules of scholastic swimming, it is impossible to win any more in a four-year period.

Peart was also named the meet's Outstanding Female Swimmer for the fourth straight time. "I don't know what to say," she said. "I didn't even know what to expect coming into this meet. I was so excited to be here. I love the competition."

Peart started her weekend by taking her fourth straight Eastern title in the 50 freestyle in 23.54 and anchoring a 200 freestyle relay team that touched first in 1:37.52.

She came back on Saturday to leave more memories for the crowd at La Salle University's Kirk Pool by winning her fourth straight title in the 100 freestyle with a time of 51.75 before capping her career by anchoring the 400 freestyle relay team to a win in 3:29.85.

"I was just trying to get points for the team," Peart said. "I was so nervous going into (the relay). I knew it was my last race."

Peart didn't do it alone of course, teaming with Meredith Coco, Rachel Ahrenhold, and Suzanne Rossi in the 200 and Cocco, Kirsten Jones and Ahrenhold in the 400. Peart was the only senior in the quintet so it is likely that the Patriots will be a force in swimming circles for a little while longer at least.

"In the relays my little guys stepped up," said Germantown Academy coach Dick Shoulberg. "Kirsten Jones (a sophomore) going a 52 (Saturday night in the relay) and a 24.1 (last Friday night). I'm so proud of how they came together at this moment."

Locally, Archbishop Wood tied for 14th place with 53 points. Viking senior Theresa Skonicki placed 10th in the 200 freestyle after being clocked in 2:01.13 in the finals. She was 16th in the 100 freestyle in 56.37. Caitlyn Harrington was 12th in the 500 freestyle in 5:23.51. Diver Stephanie Schuh was 10th with 275.40 points.
