BOYS SWIMMING: A SEASON PREVIEW

The Teams

Archbishop Wood

Coach: Charlie Stillwell (seventh year)
Last year: 2-5
Seniors lost: 8
Key returners: Sr. Kevin Whelan (breaststroke, butterfly, sprint freestyle); Sr. John Dixon (distance freestyle, breaststroke); Jr. Jarrett Kealy (backstroke, breaststroke, distance freestyle); Jr. Kevin Finn (butterfly); Jr. Bryan Kesser (sprint freestyle); Jr. Matt Kunilla (freestyle, butterfly); Jr. Pat Socaci (breaststroke, freestyle); Jr. Mike Schwed (freestyle); Soph. Billy Langlois (butterfly, IM, breaststroke, freestyle); Soph. David Zerumski (breaststroke, freestyle); Soph. Jim Fitzgerald (freestyle)
Key newcomers: Fr. Brandon McGhee (freestyle); Fr. Sean Joyce (freestyle, breaststroke); Fr. Jim Hurley (freestyle); Fr. Tom Whelan (freestyle, breaststroke); Fr. Dominic Nicastro (freestyle, breaststroke)

The coach's view: "We lost a lot of really good seniors but we have a pretty good group of freshmen so it will be more of a total team effort this season. Our top three swimmers will be Kevin Whelan, Billy Langlois and Jarrett Kealy, but we'll need strong contributions from everybody in the lineup."

CB East

Coach: Ed Walsh (21st year)
Last year: 9-5
Seniors lost: 4
Key newcomers: Six freshmen
The coach's view: "We didn't lose nearly as much to graduation as we did the year before and I think if they work hard, then success will come along with it."

CB West

Coach: Lisa Baganski (third year)
Last year: 6-6-1
Seniors lost: 1
Key newcomers: Four freshmen
The coach's view: "We're looking forward to a strong season because we have a lot of key returners to provide leadership. We're a solid team this year with a lot of balance throughout the lineup."

Germantown Academy

Coach: Dick Shoulberg (34th year)
Last year: 8-2
Seniors lost: 7
Key returners: Jr. Devon Carr (200 and 500 freestyle); Sr. Sean McBride-Connor (100 butterfly, 200 freestyle); Soph. Alec Bond (backstroke, 500 freestyle); Jr. Brad Test (freestyle); Sr. Sam Hostbedt (100 freestyle)
Key newcomers: Fr. Andrew Waltz (backstroke); Soph. Phil Dowd (backstroke, 500 freestyle); Fr. Mike Carroll (breaststroke, IM)
The coach's view: "I definitely feel that Malvern is the best team in the Inter-Academic League. We're certainly going to have trouble with them, and Peddie (N.J.) School is always trouble. I'll be real happy if our record is 8-2 this year. We graduated seven swimmers last year and we just don't have those types of kids this year. But we're working hard and I enjoy working with them. By the end of the year, we'll be OK. We're not a championship-caliber team but they're fun to coach."

Andrew Miller will swim the butterfly, sprint freestyles and individual medley for CB East.

Hatboro-Horsham

Coach: Mary Beth Creveling (16th year)
Last year: 7-6
Seniors lost: 2
Key returners: Sr. Tim Nellett (freestyle); Sr. Dan Thome (breaststroke); Sr. Kyle McDonough (freestyle); Jr. Chris Ball (freestyle); Jr. Steven Foxall (backstroke); Jr. Keith Onimus (backstroke); Jr. Jon Ryan (IM, breaststroke); Soph. Phil Begley (utility)
Key newcomers: Sr. Austin Davis (butterfly); Jr. Kevin Clark (diving); Jr. Ken Floyd (diving); Fr. Bill Cook (breaststroke, freestyle); Fr. Bill Horner (utility); Fr. Nate Ryan (utility); Fr. Ryan Lichtner (utility); Fr. Ben Thome (utility); Fr. David Yoon (utility)

The coach's view: "We're young but we have a big freshman class to fill any holes we have in the lineup, so I think it will be interesting to see how they improve. We have a solid group of returning swimmers including four excellent captains, so we should have very strong experienced leadership."

North Penn

Coach: Brian Falkish (third year)
Last year: 13-0
Seniors lost: 3
Key returners: Sr. Nick Fanslau (state champion 100-yard breaststroke, IM); Sr. Brett Kraiz (sprint freestyle); Sr. Carter Hayes (distance freestyle); Sr. Jake Taylor (sprint freestyle); Sr. Brennan Lodge (backstroke); Sr. Jeff Chiang (breaststroke); Sr. Todd Gibson (diving); Jr. Matt Bauer (IM, breaststroke); Jr. Mike Kerr (backstroke); Jr. Brendan Detweiler (diving); Jr. Brad Ogilvie (distance freestyle, butterfly); Jr. Chris Salmons (distance freestyle)
Key newcomers: Soph. Adam Reynolds (freestyle, breaststroke); Fr. Tim McKeever (backstroke, freestyle); Fr. Brendan Fanslau (butterfly, freestyle); Fr. Kelsey Britton (breaststroke)

The coach's view: "We have a lot of experience and a lot of seniors who have been to districts and states. They will provide the leadership the younger swimmers need and we hope they'll be able to pass along the traditions and pride that is North Penn swimming."

Pennridge

Coach: Becky Musselman (fifth year)
Last year: 1-12
Seniors lost: 3
Key returners: Sr. Bob Buchter (diving); Soph. Chris Burns (IM); Soph. Brian Honert (backstroke, sprint freestyle); Sr. Brian Kippeny (backstroke, sprint freestyle)
Key newcomers: Fr. Matt Bernsman (breaststroke); Fr. Jason Bobben (IM, sprint freestyle); Fr. Tom Chlebba (sprint freestyle); Fr. Jon Liebenow (multiple events)
The coach's view: "We're really excited to have doubled our team in size from last year. Everyone has a lot of experience already. We're hoping to send some kids to district."

Quakertown

Head coach: Linda Grindle (fifth year)
Last year: 0-10
Seniors lost: 4
Key returners: Sr. Bill Haack (sprint freestyle); Soph. Jesse Galoway (sprint freestyle, butterfly); Jr. Patrick Wilshire (distance freestyle); Jr. Allen Funk (backstroke, breaststroke)
Key newcomers: Fr. Eric Peterson (butterfly, breaststroke, IM); Soph. Jaret Ziegler (freestyle, breaststroke); Fr. Kevin Bancroft (freestyle, breaststroke); Soph. Sady Wissa (sprint freestyle); Fr. Alex Davis (diving)
The coach's view: "I think we have a shot against a couple of the smaller teams. With only eight guys, it's tough to do a lot. But I see our times dropping through the year. We've already started that."

Souderton

Head coach: Rob Faccenda (eighth year)
Last year: 14-3
Seniors lost: 4
Key returners: Sr. Steve Miller (sprint freestyle); Sr. Clint Gill (distance freestyle); Sr. Justin Lislis (diving); Jr. Zach Swartz (sprint freestyle, backstroke); Jr. Chris Hammerle (IM, distance freestyle); Jr. Brad Bennett (sprint freestyle); Jr. Ben Radcliff (distance freestyle); Jr. Derek Coyle (distance freestyle)
Key newcomers: Fr. Reid Fox (sprint freestyle, backstroke); Fr. Tristan Rios (sprint freestyle); Fr. Ryan Corcoran (sprint freestyle, breaststroke); Fr. Matt Zrada (sprint freestyle, backstroke)
The coach's view: "This year is going to be a bit of a transition year for us because we lost some very key swimmers. However we have some talented freshmen coming up to pick up the slack so it should be an interesting year for us."

William Tennent

Coach: Lisa Forlani (ninth year)
Last year: 5-8
Key returners: Sr. Matt McCarney (diving); Sr. Ian Lawson (diving); Sr. Mike Callanan (distance freestyle); Sr. Brian McGlone (backstroke); Jr. Mike Fleming (freestyle, butterfly); Jr. Tim Paulsworth (sprint freestyle); Jr. Jon Grasman (breaststroke, freestyle); Soph. Sean Maguire (backstroke, freestyle); Soph. Dan Kienk (butterfly)
Key newcomers: Soph. Peter Schuster (backstroke); Soph. Chris Batchelor (freestyle); Fr. Matt Belcher (breaststroke, freestyle); Fr. John Cattell (breaststroke, freestyle); Fr. Shane Breen (diver, freestyle)
The coach's view: "Overall we're a little bit smaller in numbers than we've been in the past but we have a nice balance of veterans with new swimmers. So we're looking for as much individual improvement as we can to make the team better."

High 5s

5 Teams at the top

Listed in order of strength

Germantown Academy: The perennial power lost a lot to graduation but should reload. Dick Shoulberg's aquatic facility will operate again at its peak level.

North Penn: Someday they'll lose another dual meet — but don't look for it this year. The Knights are so deep it will take an all-star team to beat them.

Souderton: Finished fifth at states last season, their best finish ever, and they'll be strong once more. They're hungry and that makes them dangerous.

Central Bucks East: The Patriots have a lot of talent returning and should contend. Dani Compain, Andrew Miller and Greg Fournier will lead the way.

Hatboro-Horsham: A hunch on the Hatters. If Tim Nellett, Chris Ball, Steve Foxall and their teammates can all put up personal bests, watch out.

Souderton's Steve Miller can swim the butterfly, but he excels in the sprint freestyles.

Nick Fanslau, North Penn
 The senior is state champ in the 100-yard breaststroke and was part of a state champion 400 free relay. He also was part of a state runner-up 200 medley relay and was third at states in 200 IM.

Sean McBride-Connor, Germantown Academy
 A senior captain, he's a potential dynamo in the 200 free with times in the neighborhood of 1:41.

Scott McFtridge, Upper Moreland
 One of the Suburban One League's best divers. Last year

he had an excellent sophomore season and should be much stronger this year.

Steve Miller, Souderton
 After finishing sixth at states in the 50-yard free and being part of the state runner-up 200 free relay team, the senior has tasted success and now he wants more.

Tim Nellett, Hatboro-Horsham
 Steadily improved as a junior, he's ready to lead the Hatters' push for championship honors and should be the team's strongest individual performer.

Impact Swimmers

5 Reasons to watch

The Streak: It was 1987 and Ronald Reagan was president when Emmaus became the last team to beat North Penn in a dual meet. How much longer will it continue?

Fantastic finishes: Very few moments in sports are as exciting as two swimmers turning as one for the final 25 yards and matching each other, stroke for stroke, all the way to the wall.

Diving: How these individuals are able to twist, turn, and contort their bodies in such a short span of time and still manage to finish with a smooth entry into the pool remains a mystery.

The coaches: One would be hard-pressed to find a more talented corps of men and women anywhere in the state, or a group that has produced more top-level talent.

The importance of depth: That's depth as in the talent pool, not swimming pool. The competitors who finish third, fourth and fifth often decide the outcome of a meet.

5 Meets to go to

Pennridge vs. Quakertown
 Dec. 13 at Upper Bucks YMCA, 3:30 p.m.

Friday the 13th will be unlucky for one of these evenly matched teams, and a win just might propel the winner to greater heights.

CB West at CB East
 Jan. 7, 6 p.m.

Archivals meet in prime time and it should be a dandy. Since both use the same pool it's almost a "home" meet for both and the noise should be deafening.

Malvern Prep at Germantown Academy
 Jan. 28, 3:45 p.m.

This one will probably decide the title in the Inter-Academic League as it did last year when Malvern Prep finally ended the Patriots' 20-year-plus hold atop the league standings.

Hatboro-Horsham at Upper Moreland
 Jan. 31, 7 p.m.

The neighborhood rivals close out the regular season at night and the atmosphere should be electric enough to light the building. It's the last chance to tune up before the post-season.

North Penn at Emmaus
 Feb. 4, 4 p.m.

A fitting way to close out the 2002-2003 season as the Knights take to the road to face the last team to beat them in a dual meet.

NP's Nick Fanslau is cying another state title.

GIRLS SWIMMING: A SEASON PREVIEW

The Teams

Archbishop Wood

Coach: Charlie Stilwell (fifth year)
Last year: 5-3
Seniors lost: 4
Key returners: Sr. Kelly DiBiagio (sprint freestyle, backstroke, breaststroke), Sr. Danielle Magnant (freestyle), Jr. Katelyn Crompton (breaststroke, freestyle), Jr. Michelle Racine (sprint freestyle, breaststroke), Jr. Lisa Whitlock (butterfly, freestyle, backstroke)
Key newcomers: Fr. Jessica Rios (all strokes), Fr. Jenna Kurilla (freestyle), Fr. Megan Gannon (freestyle), Fr. Christine Morley (freestyle, breaststroke)
The coach's view: "This year will be very exciting for us with a lot of new faces. The loss of some big guns will make us develop and swim together to accomplish our goals. While our top swimmers may be gone, it will be a big challenge for our returning and new swimmers to step up and fill in."

CB East

Coach: Tom Kane (27th year)
Last year: 10-3, SOL Colonial champions
Seniors lost: 7
Key returners: Sr. Rachael Wnukowski (sprint freestyle), Sr. Carolyn Castagna (breaststroke), Sr. Liz Jenei (distance freestyle), Jr. Megan Maragakes (distance freestyle), Jr. Staci McGinty (backstroke, freestyle), Jr. Lauren Wood (sprint freestyle, backstroke), Soph. Whitney Colwell (breaststroke)
Key newcomer: Fr. Caitlin Kierstler (all strokes)
The coach's view: "They have the capability of having an outstanding season, but they're going to have to step up because we're moving over to the other division, the Suburban One League Patriot. We won 10 championships in a row in the Colonial Division, but now we're in a group of larger schools with Pennsbury and North Penn, who will be the teams to beat."

CB West

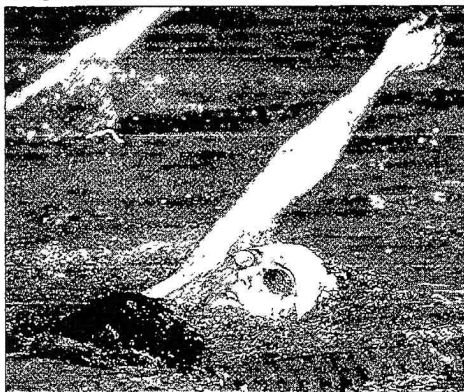

Coach: Vibeke Swanson (12th year)
Last year: 8-6
Seniors lost: 8
Key returners: Sr. Ashley Hunsberger (freestyle, backstroke), Jr. Mary Maguire (all strokes), Jr. Summer Giardino (freestyle), Jr. Colleen Davidson (backstroke, breaststroke, butterfly), Soph. Jenna Vaughan (backstroke, breaststroke, butterfly), Soph. Jenna Kravel (diving)
Key newcomers: N/A
The coach's view: "I think this is a year for some of the kids to step it up. A lot of people will have more opportunities to swim because we're not as strong as we've been in the past. Some young swimmers are coming along nicely."

Germantown Academy

Coach: Dick Shoulberg (34th year)
Last year: 10-1, Inter-Academic League Champions
Seniors lost: 6
Key returners: Jr. Kristen Jones (200 and 500 freestyle, butterfly), Sr. Annie Stein (100 butterfly, 200 and 500 freestyle, individual medley), Sr. Meredith Cocoa (200 freestyle), Sr. Rachel Arnehold (50 and 100 freestyle, 100 butterfly), Jr. Caitlin Reagan (breaststroke, backstroke, individual medley)
Key newcomers: Fr. Jen Nunn (200, 500 freestyle), Soph. Hanna Mein (100 breaststroke)
The coach's view: "I think we should go undefeated in the Inter-Ac. It will be a wonderful meet with Peddie School later in the year. I really think that either GA or Peddie will win the Easterns this year."

Gwynedd-Mercy Academy

Coach: Jolene Bray (second year)
Last year: 10-4
Seniors lost: 8

Staff photo by Laurence Kelly

CB West senior Ashley Hunsberger will swim the backstroke and freestyle for the Bucks.

Key returners: Sr. Diane Duncheski (sprint freestyle, breaststroke, butterfly), Sr. Courtney McMenamin (breaststroke, individual medley, freestyle), Sr. Sarah Jeffers (distance free, individual medley), Sr. Annie Bostwick (freestyle, breaststroke), Sr. Brittany Bray (diving), Jr. Tara O'Rourke (butterfly, distance freestyle), Soph. Caitlin McManus (breaststroke, freestyle)
Key newcomers: Fr. Meg Bostwick (freestyle, breaststroke), Fr. Maura Gillies (freestyle, backstroke), Fr. Mallory DiLemmo (freestyle)
The coach's view: "I'm looking for surprises from some of our (16) new girls. I hope they're able to take their place in the tradition of Gwynedd-Mercy swimming. We're going to face some challenging teams, so we're looking forward to the season."

Lansdale Catholic

Coach: Robert Birnbrauer (sixth year)
Last year: 3-8
Seniors lost: 8
Key returners: Sr. Elaine Kratz (backstroke, butterfly, freestyle), Sr. Meredith Kroener (freestyle), Sr. Christine Unger (diving)
Key newcomers: Fr. Ashley Gidzinski (freestyle, backstroke), Fr. Elizabeth Gorge (breaststroke, individual medley), Fr. Tiffany Dahm (freestyle), Fr. Carolina Kulik (freestyle, butterfly)
The coach's view: "I'm impressed with the incoming talent (10 freshmen are on the team). And the work ethic and enthusiasm is pretty strong."

North Penn

Coach: Tony Young (third year)
Last year: 12-2
Seniors lost: 7
Key returners: Sr. Carlee Myerles (butterfly, individual medley), Sr. Erin Currane (500 freestyle), Sr. Jackie DiSchell (multiple strokes), Sr. Cali Nelson (breaststroke), Jr. Shannon Rose (100 freestyle, backstroke)
Key newcomers: Soph. Emily Watts (backstroke), Soph. Sarah Schneider (breaststroke)
The coach's view: "Our look for this year is to improve on our times. That, in turn, will make us a better team. We're very versatile. I think that's our strength."

Pennridge

Coach: Becky Musselman (third year)
Last year: 2-9
Seniors lost: 5
Key returners: Sr. Cathy Fenoff (distance freestyle), Sr. Amanda Gure (freestyle), Jr. Jenna Stover (backstroke), Jr. Samantha Frick (all strokes), Soph. Kim Stover (sprint freestyle, butterfly), Soph. Vicky Geppert (breaststroke), Soph. Kylie Adams (backstroke, freestyle)
Key newcomers: Fr. Alyssa Dee (individual medley, breaststroke),

Fr. Rachael Koehler (sprint freestyle), Fr. Allison Ducey (breaststroke, butterfly)
The coach's view: "We have a little more depth coming in (with 14 newcomers). Hopefully they'll all stick with the team and grow stronger over the next couple of years. We like to win at least one league meet, send a couple of relays to districts and a couple of individuals."

Quakertown

Coach: Linda Grindle (fifth year)
Last year: 0-10
Seniors lost: 4
Key returners: Sr. Stephanie Falstick (breaststroke, IM), Soph. Sara Hippel (200 IM), Soph. Lindsay Welsh (backstroke, sprint freestyle), Sr. Kelly Hake (butterfly, sprint freestyle)
Key newcomers: Sr. Sara Hutchinson (breaststroke), Fr. Kelsey Snyder (individual medley), Fr. Lauren Ford (freestyle, backstroke, breaststroke), Jr. Laune Comfort (freestyle)
The coach's view: "I'm looking forward to a great year. We have a lot of new kids and we hope that the numbers help. We are small team with no pool, so we're in a difficult spot."

Souderton

Coach: Jim Schulte (12th year)
Last year: 13-3, SOL Liberty champions
Seniors lost: 4
Key returners: Jr. Katie Gifford (diving), senior Jennifer Nyce (diving), Sr. Heather Danielle (diving), Sr. Caitlin Collins (butterfly, freestyle, backstroke), Soph. Alex Tomlinson (distance freestyle, 100 butterfly)
Key newcomers: Fr. Val Pettine (multiple events)
The coach's view: "Basically, we're not as deep as we've been in the past. But we have most of our events covered. We should be a pretty good dual meet team. And we have individuals in districts and states."

William Tennent

Coach: Lisa Forlini (11th year)
Last year: 5-8
Seniors lost: 3
Key returners: Sr. Christina Friel (freestyle), Jr. Jaclyn Palumbo (breaststroke, individual medley), Soph. Amanda Burke (diving), Soph. Tina Schreiner (all strokes), Soph. Caitna Friel (diving), Soph. Kelly Pierson (freestyle, backstroke)
Key newcomers: Soph. Christie Dodd (freestyle, butterfly), Fr. Lindsay Bowler (backstroke), Fr. Sam Grisman (freestyle, breaststroke), Fr. Melanie Lucot (diving), Fr. Amanda McGrosky (all strokes), Fr. Tina Scholer (freestyle, breaststroke)
The coach's view: "This is a nice group to work with. They really support each other and have a positive attitude."

High 5s

5 Germantown Academy: When your team sends Olympians every four years and is featured in a Tai-Bo infomercial, you must be doing something right. The Patriots are a swimming academy, and should be considered the strong favorite to win the Inter-Ac again.
Gwynedd-Mercy Academy: Another one of the private school powers, the Monarchs finished third last year in the Class AA state tournament. Expect more of the same.
Teams at the top
 Listed in order of strength

Diane Duncheski, Gwynedd-Mercy Academy
 The second-place finisher in the 100-yard butterfly at states is the favorite to win the event this year. With state champion Kara Boland graduated, a lot of the attention will be focused on Duncheski as she looks to keep the Monarchs winning tradition going.

Katie Gifford, Souderton
 An eighth-place finisher in the diving competition at states, Gifford will anchor a strong three-person diving team (along with Jennifer Nyce and Heather Danielle). Another trip to states should be on the docket in March.

Kelsey Morrissy, Hatboro-Horsham
 The Class AAA state champion in the 50-yard freestyle last year, Morrissy has emerged out of the shadow of her sister Melissa and created her own sterling reputation.

5 There may not be a better overall program in the area than the Germantown Academy swimming juggernaut. From Olympians to Eastern states champions, the Patriots are one team that just keeps rolling through the years.

Pennridge went winless in Suburban One League National Conference action last year, but the Rams' fortunes could be taking an upswing in the near future. Coach Becky Musselman welcomed 14 newcomers to the team's workouts this year, and she said several of them could have an immediate impact in the program.

Peddie School at Germantown Academy
 Jan. 8, 3:45 p.m.
 The two top swimming powers on the East Coast gather in Fort Washington for the head-to-head dual meet of the year. GA lost to Peddie last year in a tight meet. This year, the Patriots have revenge on their minds.

Upper Moreland at Hatboro-Horsham
 Jan. 31, 3:45 p.m.
 Always a good battle to see is the clash of Montgomery County neighbors. A first-year coach leads Upper Moreland, while the Hatters figure to be among the top teams in the SOL's Liberty Division.

Eastern Invitational
 Feb. 21-22 at La Salle University
 The premier event in the private school swimming establishment: Germantown Academy and the Peddie School usually clean up at this meet.

2 Number of District 11 titles that Katie Weber has won in the 100-yard breaststroke. This year, the Palisades senior will look to earn the state medal that has eluded her.

3 Number of girls who Gwynedd-Mercy returns from the 200- and 400-yard freestyle relay teams which finished in the top five at states last year: Duncheski, Sarah Jeffers and Courtney McMenamin look to come home with a state title this year.

10 Number of Suburban One League titles that Central Bucks East has won in a row. However, with a switch to the Patriot Division with powers North

North Penn: The big monster in the Suburban One League figures to be at the top of the league's toughest division with Pennsbury. The Maidens are a threat to win every race, and probably the deepest public school team of the entire bunch.

Central Bucks East: Even though they are switching divisions from the SOL Colonial to the SOL Patriot, the Patriots still figure to be in line for a very good year because of seven returning performers from the 2002 season.

Souderton: Another team making a switch (from the SOL American to National Conference), the Indians have a lineup that will make them extremely tough to beat in dual meets. Strong in the freestyle races and at diving.

Annie Stein, Germantown Academy
 A standout in the 100 butterfly, the 200 and 500 freestyle, and the individual medley, Stein is a national team participant already. A senior, she's another in the long line of elite level swimmers from Dick Shoulberg's program.

Katie Weber, Palisades
 The ultimate definition of the one-girl team: Weber is a two-time District 11 champion in the 100 breaststroke for a program that doesn't even have a formal school team. This year, she will try and earn the Pirates' first state medal.

In recent years, Archbishop Wood has been a Philadelphia Catholic League contender because it has had several outstanding individuals. A title always eluded the Vikings, though, because of their lack of depth. This year, Wood has few individual standouts, but probably the most depth it's had during coach Charlie Stilwell's tenure.

Suburban One League divisional realignment created a big impact in the fall. That trend figures to continue in the winter, where Central Bucks East dominance of league championships figures to be strained because of the switch to the bigger Patriot Division. Souderton's switch to the National Conference could also make things interesting.

You can make the case that this area's strength in the individual sports is in swimming. There's usually one state champion that emerges through the ranks, plus GA's loaded with girls who could win states if they only competed in it.

5 Games to go to
District One Championships
 Feb. 28-March 1
at West Chester University
 The event that sends the best from this area forward to the state title. This is where dreams are usually won or lost for a lot, who either get to experience the ultimate thrill or the agony of defeat.

PIAA State Championships
 March 13-15 at Penn State
 The most important meet of the year takes place over three days in scenic State College. The PIAA championships usually feature record-breaking performances by competitors destined for college or Olympic success.

5 Penn and Pennsbury, the Patriots dominance could be in trouble.

25 Number of years that the Upper Moreland girls team has gone without a coaching change. But that streak has ended this year with Jessica Israel taking over for her father, Bob, who will coach the boys team this year.

100 Days until the state championships begin out at Penn State University. Between now and then, times will be trimmed greatly and the best will eventually separate themselves from the rest of the pack.

Girls swimming notes

ARCHBISHOP WOOD: Junior Michelle Racine has seen some changes in the program since her freshman year. "We had a lot more club swimmers than we do now," she said. "I don't think it's really hurt us that much, and there's not much we can do about it, anyway. We just keep working hard and hopefully, we'll be fine. Everyone is doing their best and I'm really looking forward to the rest of the season." Racine had personal best times in the 50 freestyle (27.60) and 100 freestyle (1:00.82) in Wood's 103-80 loss to Bensalem. Racine also plays lacrosse and soccer and ran cross country for Wood, though swimming remains her first sport. "I've been doing it for so long, and it's a sport I can continue for life."

Girls swimming notes

ARCHBISHOP WOOD: The Vikings are all set to swim at the Eastern Interscholastic meet. Jill Brennecke, Kelly DiBiagio, Danielle Magnant, Michelle Racine, Lisa Whitlock, Katelyn Crompton and Steph Schuh are all slated to compete in individual events. Wood has also qualified in all three relays. Jessica Rios and Megan Gannon are relay entrants.

Girls swimming notes

ARCHBISHOP WOOD: At the Catholic National Championships, held at Villanova, Jessica Rios, Katelyn Crompton, Lisa Whitlock and Kelly DiBiagio were 10th in the 200-yard medley relay with a time of 2:03.78. Michelle Racine, Rios, Jill Brennecke and Megan Gannon took 10th in the 400 freestyle relay (4:04.92) and Racine, Danielle Magnant, Brie Fitzgerald and DiBiagio were 11th in the 200 freestyle relay (1:50.68).

Girls swimming notes

ARCHBISHOP WOOD: The Vikings will compete at the Philadelphia Catholic League championships, to be held Saturday at Widener University and Sunday at La Salle University.

Boys swimming notes

ARCHBISHOP WOOD: Coach Charlie Stillwell is pleased with what he's seen so far. "The kids are swimming really well," he said. Wood beat Archbishop Carroll, 98-69, just before the holiday break. "A lot of the guys did times in that meet that are close to the times they did at championships last year, so that's very positive." Stillwell worked the swimmers harder in preseason this year than in past seasons, and it seems to be paying off. "I think we needed to step up, so I did less stroke work and more yardage and the kids responded. The boys see they're improving and closing the gap between the other teams and us and we're moving up. I think they see that they are a legitimate team. They like that and they're responding to it." Wood has one more league meet this year, as Roman Catholic added a swim team. The Vikings travel to St. Joe's Prep for a PCL meet today at 3:30 p.m. Wood is 1-1 to date, losing to La Salle in addition to the win over Carroll.

Boys swimming notes

ARCHBISHOP WOOD: The Vikings will be competing at the Eastern Interscholastic meet. Kevin Whelan, Jarrett Kealey and Billy Langlois have all qualified in individual events. Wood is also swimming in the 200 medley and 200 freestyle relays. Tom Whelan and Bryan Keiser are both swimming on the 200 freestyle relay, while Keyser is also a member of the medley relay.

Boys swimming notes

ARCHBISHOP WOOD: Senior Kevin Whelan finished 16th in the 100-yard breaststroke (1:04.32) and 17th in the 50 freestyle (22.89) at the Eastern Interscholastic meet. Wood is slated to compete in the Philadelphia Catholic League championships Saturday at Widener University and Sunday at La Salle University.

SPLASH OF THE WEEK:

The final installment for the 2002 season sees us go off the board, if you will, and the honor to Archbishop Wood swimmer Kevin Whelan.

Whelan took the 100 breaststroke in the Philadelphia Catholic League swimming championships at La Salle University on Sunday, defeating La Salle's Kent Jagers by almost a full second.

Whelan also finished sixth in the 50 freestyle.

Wood has high hopes for PCL season

For Charlie Stillwell, the real boys swimming season began Wednesday.

When his Archbishop Wood squad swam against rival Archbishop Ryan, dropping a tough 88-82 verdict, it signaled a stretch drive run toward the Philadelphia Catholic League championships.

"It's such a big meet that this is the one I always feel indicates that the season has begun," Stillwell said. "Everyone looks forward to seeing them. It sets the tone for the entire season."

Despite the loss Wednesday that dropped Wood to 1-3 in the PCL, the Vikings have been competitive in each meet. Stillwell said that's because of their middle people in the lineup.

"The success that we've had is because the kids in the middle are swimming a lot better," Stillwell said. "We've always had top-quality kids at the top of our lineup, but there would be a big drop off. But our middle kids have picked up the slack and been competitive and scored well. Because of that, I think we're a better team."

Stillwell still has his top-notch swimmer in senior breaststroke and sprint freestyle swimmer Kevin Whalen. Whalen, an All-Catholic selection in the breaststroke, already has a personal best in the 50 freestyle and is only a second off of his best time in the 100 breaststroke at the mid-season mark.

"I wouldn't be surprised if he did a 1:01 by the end of the year (in the breaststroke)," Stillwell said. "Last year, he finished with a 1:05. It's a great thing for us."

Because of that, I think we're a better team."

Stillwell still has his top-notch swimmer in senior breaststroke and sprint freestyle swimmer Kevin Whalen. Whalen, an All-Catholic selection in the breaststroke, already has a personal best in the 50 freestyle and is only a second off of his best time in the 100 breaststroke at the mid-season mark.

"I wouldn't be surprised if he did a 1:01 by the end of the year (in the breaststroke)," Stillwell said. "Last year, he finished with a 1:05. It's a great thing for us."

Depth has Wood looking forward

In previous years, Archbishop Wood has been lucky enough to have several very talented individuals score a lot of points in dual meets as well as tournaments.

The just completed season was a different story.

"We really didn't have a team like the ones we did in the past where we had a

Bill
Keen

Swimming

few girls at the top," said Vikings coach Charlie Stillwell after his team finished fourth in Sunday's Philadelphia Catholic League championships at La Salle University. "But we were still lucky because this year we had a team that had considerably greater depth and at the PCLs they all responded and basically everybody did their best times."

That was especially true in two relays where Wood finished third — the alpha and the omega as it were — the day's first event, the 200-yard medley relay, and the last, the 400-yard freestyle relay.

"We knew there was no way we were going to be able to stay with the first two teams (Archbishop Ryan and Cardinal O'Hara)," the coach said. "But we felt good about our chances of being able to beat St. Hubert for third."

Jessica Rios, Katelyn Crompton, Lisa Whitlock and Danielle Magnant took the bronze in the medley in two minutes, 0.44 seconds, while Michelle Racine, Jill Bennecke, Rios and Kelly DiBiagio bettered their seed time by five seconds, hitting the wall in 3:59.72 to again finish right behind the big two.

"The medley, I just loaded it based on what they did during the year," Stillwell said. "And while we were seeded fourth in the final race I had a strong feeling we had a real shot at third."

"The second leg was the key. Michelle swam first and gave us a lead (over Hubert), but Jill pretty much extended that lead and we held it from there."

But here's the best indication of how deep the Vikings are and why the team is already looking forward to next year: seven different girls swam on those two relays.

Only Jessica Rios swam on both.

Wood girls fourth at PCL meet

Whelan takes 100 breaststroke in boys championships

BY BILL MCFARLAND
Correspondent

PHILADELPHIA -- The perennial powerhouses provided little suspense during the Philadelphia Catholic League swimming championships at La Salle University Sunday afternoon, but that's not to say that there weren't a few surprises.

La Salle High won yet another boys title with 797 points. St. Joseph's Prep finished second with 527 points. Not much of a threat in recent years, the Prep had a strong showing and could be showing signs of moving up in the sport.

Rounding out the top five were Monsignor Bonner (448), Cardinal O'Hara (432) and Father Judge (309). Archbishop Wood placed sixth with 213 points.

The Vikings' Kevin Whelan qualified for the final heat in two events. He finished sixth in the 50 freestyle but made up for it by capturing the 100 breaststroke in one of the closest races of the day.

Swimming

Whelan and LaSalle's Kent Jagers were seeded 1 and 2, respectively, with close times — 1 minute, 1.57 seconds and 1:01.97. That's exactly how the race unfolded as Whelan won in 1:00.33, beating Jagers by 0.97 seconds.

"I knew that it was going to be a close race, so I just had to get a good start and go," Whelan said. "I thought I might have been ahead after the first 50 (yards), but then I saw him on my second turn and just gave it all I had."

In the girls competition, Archbishop Ryan cruised to the crown with 999 points, followed by Cardinal O'Hara's 642.

What was much closer was the battle for third place, where St. Hubert edged Wood, 381-357. Archbishop Prendergast (269 points) completed the top five.

The Vikings' attempt to overtake St. Hubert surfaced several times.

In the first event, the 200 medley relay, Wood was seeded fourth after Ryan, O'Hara and St. Hubert.

After the first leg, the places matched the seedings, but the Vikings overtook St. Hubert during the breaststroke and held on for third place.

The Ragdolls left the rest of the field behind and won the event in 1 minute, 50.90 seconds. The Lions finished a distant second at 1:56.26, but it was a tight battle for third.

In the end, the Wood team of Jessica Rios, Katelyn Crompton, Lisa Whitlock and Danielle Magnant held off Hubert to claim third place. Wood's time was 2:00.44; St. Hubert finished at 2:01.75.

"We had our hopes up," Whitlock said. "Our coach had encouraged us to try for third place to get All-Catholic (status)."

"Everybody dropped their split times (in the medley relay)," Rios said.

Wood gained most of its other points in the other relays. The Vikings were seeded fourth in both the 200 and 400 free relays, but were only able to move up in the latter.

In the 200, Wood started off fourth and finished at 1:49.14, more than four seconds behind third-place St. Hubert (1:44.94). O'Hara and Ryan took the top two slots, respectively.

Just the opposite happened in the 400 free relay. Ryan (3:39.94) and O'Hara (3:40.94) again left everyone else behind.

In the battle for third place, Wood did likewise to St. Hubert. The team of Michelle Racine, Jill Bennecke, Rios and Kelly DiBiagio jumped ahead of the Bambies and didn't look back.

St. Hubert finished a second slower than its seed time, but the Vikings shaved more than five seconds off of their seed time (4:04.92) to finish third in 3:59.72.

"We're really excited about that," Bennecke said.

Elsewhere, Wood had swimmers qualify for the final heat in four events, but the best finish was Whitlock, who placed fifth in the 100 butterfly.
