2005-06 GIRLS SWIMMING PREVIEW

Archbishop Wood

Coach: Charlie Stilwell (ninth year)

Last year's record: 5-2

Swimmers to watch: Jr. Jaclyn Smith (backstroke, 1M); Jr. Megan Donovan (breaststroke, dis-tances); Soph. Christina Rios (sprints, backstroke); Soph. Amy Finn (butterfly, 1M); Sr. Monica Cymerman (sprints).

The season: With only three girls lost to graduation and a good freshman class, led by Alyse Davis, the Vikings should be contenders in the Philadelphia Catholic League.

The junior also helped lead the 200 med-ley and 400 freestyle relay teams to wins. Teammate Christina Rios was Smith's equal, joining her on the two relay winners and winning both the 50 freestyle and 100 freestyle herself.

2005-06 BOYS SWIMMING PREVIEW

Archbishop Wood

Coach: Charlie Stillwell (ninth year)

Last year's record: 2-6

Swimmers to watch: Sr. Tom Whelan (breaststroke), Sr. Jim Hurley (breaststroke), Sr. Brendon McGhee (sprint free)

The season: There's quality in individual events but a lack of depth could hurt the Vikings in the Philadelphia Catholic League.

Veteran Archbishop Wood

coach Charlie Stillwell has seen swimmers like junior Tim Miller before, athletes who get a late start to scholastic competition yet immediately show their potential in different events.

"Tim started as basically a summer swimmer as a freshman," Stillwell said. "Last season as a sophomore he came out for the team towards the end of the year and had his time in the 100-yard breaststroke down around 1 minute, 10 seconds."

A virus left Miller competing at less than top shape for the team's first Philadelphia Catholic League meet of this season, but he has bounced back and is looking much stronger.

"This year we don't have any freshmen on the squad," the coach said. "Everyone must contribute so it's good to see Tim getting better each day. I watched Tim's stroke today and you can see how he's getting a lot stronger and more consistent with his time."

"I'm really going to be pushing these kids hard in practice for about the next two weeks so they'll all be ready to peak by the end of the season and the PCL championships. I think Tim should be down around 1:07 or 1:08 if not better by then."

Donovan leads Wood

By Marty Katz
Sportswriter

With five events remaining, and Archbishop Wood clinging to a four-point lead against visiting St. Hubert in a Philadelphia Catholic League girls' swimming meet last Wednesday, it was time for the Vikings' Megan Donovan to step to center stage.

Three Donovan victories later, the Vikings had their victory, by a 95-75 final tally.

It came as no surprise to Wood coach Charlie Stillwell.

"Megen is probably the best swimmer in the league," Stillwell said.

Donovan, a junior, came through with individual wins in the 500 freestyle and 100 breaststroke as well as an anchor leg victory in the 400 freestyle relay.

Then add the 200 individual medley and the 200 freestyle to the events in which the multitallented Donovan competes.

Last year, Donovan took home the gold medal in the PCL's 500 freestyle championship and has already dropped 10 seconds off her time in that event this season.

"Megen wants to go for the 500 freestyle record this year," Stillwell said. "She works extremely hard. She's a very motivated kid."

Donovan's times in the 500 freestyle and the breaststroke are the best in the PCL, while she ranks a very close second in the IM.

Stillwell believes that the junior phenom could possibly dip below the two minute mark in the 200 freestyle in the very near future; maybe even in the upcoming week.

Donovan's is a story of how great things can happen when talent meshes with motivation.

As a freshman, she barely missed earning All-PCL status in two events.

Not one to be deterred by any losses, Donovan came back stronger as a sophomore and in addition to her 500 freestyle victory, also placed second in the PCL breaststroke championship.

Along with Alyse Davis, Amy Finn and Christina Rios, Donovan makes up Wood's very tough 400 freestyle relay squad.

Donovan's favorite event is the 500 freestyle, a grueling event that tests the swimmer's stamina. To help with that, she has been training with a distance team over the past two years.

The 200 IM — which is truly for the all-around swimmer, as it combines backstroke, butterfly, breaststroke and freestyle — has captured the competitor in Donovan.

"I'm working hard on my butterfly," the junior said. "The breaststroke pulls me through. I'm shakiest in the backstroke. I need to work hard on technique."

Her coach is thrilled to have someone with Donovan's enthusiasm and work ethic for the sport.

"Megen wants to learn how to do things better," Stillwell said. "She's a nice kid, too."

To look at Donovan, one would not know that she is such a fierce competitor.

"She's skinny as a rail," Stillwell said. "She just kicks everybody's butt."

Wood had a tremendous meet against the Bambis last Wednesday night as Jaclyn Smith finished first in both the 100 and 200 freestyle races, while Davis took top-spot in the 200 IM and Rios captured the 50 freestyle as well as the 100 backstroke events.

The Vikings' 200 -relay quartet of Smith, Davis, Rios and Megan Gannon also took home the gold in their 20-point team-victory.

It was truly a red letter night for Archbishop Wood girls swimming.

Press poses no problem for Wood's tion on myself. I wouldn't write about myself."

That is not to say Donovan, a junior, hasn't created a lot of news the paper could report.

In the Stroudsburg Invitational last month, Donovan broke meet records in the 500 freestyle and the 100 breaststroke.

She has the fastest time in the 500 freestyle in the Philadelphia Catholic League this season by a margin of almost eight seconds faster than her nearest competitor, has the best time in the league in the breaststroke and is only .06 of a second behind Christine Swiker of Archbishop Ryan for fastest 200 IM.

"The coach said college coaches look at the junior year the most when recruiting so I'm glad I'm doing well," said Donovan. "I had a 5:25 last year when I won the PCL (in the 500 freestyle) and I'm already at 5:13. I'm pretty excited to see how the rest of the season goes."

Donovan was a good swimmer for the Maplewood Swim Club and Our Lady of Good Counsel's CYO team (where she was named the school's scholar-athlete), but she admits she really did not dedicate herself until the last few years.

As a freshman at Wood, she joined the Energy club team in Langhorne coached by Bill Trabosh. The intensity level was something she was not used to.

"At Energy they work you real hard, and when I was a freshman, I wasn't prepared," said Donovan. "But now I'm much more focused on swimming. It used to be just a fun thing when I was younger."

"Bill Trabosh has really worked me hard the last couple of years and I think that's why I've gotten better."

Energy conducts practices in the morning and afternoons six days a week and Donovan regularly attends them even when Wood has practice.

"(Wood coach Charlie Stilwell) is perfectly OK with me going to their practices; he knows they'll work me hard there," said Donovan. "When I go to the Wood practice, it is more like a social thing where I can be with my friends, although I have made some good friendships at Energy, too."

University and won the team competition with 350.5 points to 329 for Mountain Lakes (N.J.).

"Our whole team is swimming well," said Wood coach Charlie Stillwell.

Megen Donovan broke two meet records at East

Stroudsburg, in the 500 freestyle (5:16.50) and 100 breaststroke (1:09.32). Donovan also won the 200 individual medley and teamed with Christina Rios, Jaclyn Smith and Amy Finn to finish second in the 400 freestyle relay.

Smith, in addition, won the 200 freestyle.

Last season, Wood finished third in the PCL behind Archbishop Ryan and Cardinal O'Hara. The way things are looking, they might move up a spot.

Wood fell to Ryan, 100-68, in a dual meet last week, but Smith won the 200 freestyle once again and Donovan triumphed in the 200 IM and 500 freestyle. Smith, Rios, Finn and Donovan also won the 400 freestyle relay by more than 11 seconds.

SWIMMING NOTES

AW's depth key factor to success

By LEE CIENIAWA
COURIER TIMES

An influx of freshman talent combined with a strong returning sophomore class have given Archbishop Wood a much deeper roster than it had last season.

"The difference this year is the team's a lot deeper," Vikings coach Charlie Stillwell said.

"We have a lot of good freshmen, and the freshmen from last year are really stepping it up. We've got a lot of strong girls."

The Vikings are only 1-1 in dual meets this season, with a win against Gwynedd Mercy and a loss to the team directly ahead of them in the standings, Archbishop Ryan. But the youngsters on the team gave the Vikings a boost in the Winter Swim Classic at Stroudsburg High School on Jan. 7, where Wood finished first in the team competition over eight other schools. Last year, the Vikings finished third in the same tournament.

Sophomores Christina Rios and Amy Finn and freshman Alyse Davis all had strong efforts at Stroudsburg, and junior Jaclyn Smith won the 200 freestyle. Megen Donovan had the best individual showing for the Vikings, not only winning the 500 freestyle and 100 breaststroke, but setting meet records in the process.

"I was surprised that they swam that well [at Stroudsburg]," Stillwell said. "The reason we won is that we were pretty deep. We can give everybody a run for their money. I can't complain with anything they've given me this year."

Swimmer of the week

Archbishop Wood's Megen Donovan continued her stellar junior season in a 95-75 win over St. Hubert last Wednesday. She won the 500 freestyle by a remarkable 33-second margin, won the 100 breaststroke by nine seconds and was part of the winning 400-freestyle relay team.

Wood rallies past Father Judge

By Marty Katz
Sports writer

Right at the heart of Archbishop Wood's exciting Philadelphia Catholic League come-from-behind 88-82 boys' swimming victory over visiting Father Judge last Wednesday night were the performances of two seniors who have proven that hard work, patience and four years of steady improvement can lead to great individual and team success when nurtured properly.

Tom Whelan and Jim Hurley have both moved into the heart of their final seasons as Vikings' swimmers with great confidence regarding what they have already accomplished, as well as the potentially great things that the next two months may bring.

With the Vikings trailing Judge 72-68 and only two events remaining, Hurley captured first place in the 100 breaststroke in 1:06.87, with Whelan running second — just a shade over one second behind. The 10 points garnered by these two sent the Vikes into the lead, which they maintained with a victory in the meet's final event, the 400 freestyle relay.

Of course, Hurley and anchor man Whelan played a major role in the meet's decisive race, as they — along with Brendon McGhee and Sean Joyce — swam to victory in 3:37.43, 1.54 seconds better than Judge's four-some of Nick Montenaro, Brian Quigley, Shawn Mitkus and Matt Harner.

Whelan is strongest individually in the breaststroke and sprint freestyle events, finishing runner-up in last year's PCL 100 breaststroke championship.

Named to the All-Catholic team as both a sophomore and junior, Whelan — according to coach Charlie Stillwell — has tremendous ability.

"Far and away, Tom has the most talent on our team," Stillwell said.

Whelan has followed in the footsteps of his older brother, Kevin, who was a senior during Tom's freshman year.

Kevin Whelan holds the Wood breaststroke record that Tom is pushing hard to break.

"Tom works very hard in practice," Stillwell said. "That would be something if Tom broke his brother's record."

Whelan — whose favorite event is the breaststroke — keeps it simple, using Stillwell as his lone instructor.

Earlier in the meet with Judge, Whelan, also a Wood lacrosse standout, captured the 50 freestyle, in 24.34.

Amazingly, Whelan had a bout with mononucleosis around Christmastime and has only recently overcome the after-effects of the disease.

"I'm just getting over it," the senior said.

To improve in the pool, Whelan started weight training last year. "I've been working hard," said Whelan.

Jim Hurley is a highly versatile swimmer, participating along the way in the breaststroke, individual medley, butterfly and sprint relays.

Four years ago, it was unlikely that Hurley would become such a major force for the Vikings.

"When Jim was a freshman, he had never swum on a year-round basis," Stillwell said. "He didn't really know how to swim (as a championship-style swimmer)."

So much has changed for Hurley, who has improved tremendously every year.

In fact, this winter alone, Hurley's butterfly time has dropped three seconds since the start of the season.

"Jim is so strong in the water," Stillwell said. "He just goes really fast."

As a junior, Hurley wasn't expected to do much.

"Last year, he came out of nowhere," Stillwell said.

In fact, as a junior, Hurley dropped almost five full seconds off his breaststroke time and almost made All-Catholic at the PCL championships.

Hurley really enjoys what he is doing.

"The season's going by too fast," he said. "I've improved my stroke, my turns and my technique."

Hurley, whose favorite event is the 100 butterfly — in which he took home a victory against Judge — credits his improvement to the entire Wood coaching staff.

"The coaches help me out a lot," Hurley said.

Recently, the senior has been competing in the grueling 200 individual medley, which combines backstroke, butterfly, breaststroke and freestyle.

"That's really tough," Hurley said. "I'm still working on that one."

Other individual Wood victories last Wednesday night were achieved by Joyce, in the 500 freestyle and David Keller in the 100 backstroke.

Keller, Whelan, Hurley and Brendon McGhee won the 200 medley relay while John Wright, Ron McIntire, Timothy Miller and Keller captured the 200 freestyle relay in the victory over Judge.

Steady improvement got the job done for Wood.

La Salle, Wood shine at Easterns

By Marty Katz
Sports writer

The La Salle College High swimming team had a very successful two days last Friday and Saturday as the Explorers finished in fifth place overall in the 106th Eastern Independent School Swimming and Diving Championships at La Salle University.

As would be expected from such a solid team performance, a number of La Salle swimmers had very impressive individual showings over the two-day meet.

Garrett Gallagher finished fourth in the 50-freestyle, with his 22.10 time just .56 behind that turned in by the winner, Fork Union Military Academy's Will Trainor.

"Garrett is one of the premier sprinters in the area," La Salle coach Frank Lichtner said.

An unselfish sort, Gallagher gave up one of his individual events in order to compete for the Explorers in three relay races.

"He gave up one of his individual events very graciously and that helped us a lot in the relays," Lichtner said. "It's nice to coach people like that who care about the team."

In the 100 butterfly event, not one but two La Salle swimmers had fine finishes, with Ben Dearden taking fifth-place honors in a quick 52.53 while Brendan Wills swam eighth in 53.64.

Dearden, a senior, had a big day at Easterns, according to his coach.

"Ben broke the school record in the 100 butterfly," Lichtner said. "That's the only school record that's been broken in the last two years. Ben should make All-America, which was his goal since the beginning of the year."

Dearden's story is one of hard work.

"He did a lot of training last summer," Lichtner said. "He certainly deserves the honors because he put a lot of time in."

Wills is a junior for the Explorers.

"Brendan has really come on very strong," Lichtner said. "We're looking for a lot of leadership from him next year."

In the 100 breaststroke, Explorers' freshman Blasé Szyszko swam explosively toward a fifth place finish at Easterns.

"For a freshman to get fifth place in a meet like that is very remarkable," Lichtner said. "Here's Blasé, at 5-4 or 5-5, swimming in a lane next to a guy 6-6 and doing very well."

Coach Lichtner's 200 medley relay contingent of Gallagher, Dearden, Szyszko and leadoff man Todd Domanski nearly won their event, finishing just .11 behind Mercersburg Academy in a blistering 1:37.79.

The Explorers' 200 freestyle relay quintet of Gallagher, Wills, Dearden and anchorman Chris Driscoll took a solid third spot, just .72 behind winning Mercersburg and .49 off the pace of runnerup Malvern Prep.

La Salle goes for its 18th consecutive Philadelphia Catholic League Championship this Sunday at La Salle University.

It was also a fine weekend for the girls of Archbishop Wood, who finished in 11th place at Easterns.

Wood's Megan Donovan placed 13th in the girls' 500 freestyle while the Vikings' Emily Andrews was 14th in the 1 meter diving event.

Christina Rios of Wood finished 16th in the 100 backstroke while the Vikings' 400 freestyle relay group of Jaclyn Smith, Amy Finn, Donovan and Rios and their 200 medley relay foursome of Rios, Finn, Donovan and Megan Gannon both finished tenth in their respective events.

La Salle's Ted Walker was 13th in the 200 freestyle while Eric Prendergast of the Explorers was 10th in the 200 IM event, ahead of teammates Greg Woods, Ben De Franco and Michael McGee.

Brian Jeffers and Conor Doherty of La Salle were 13th and 17th, respectively, in the 500 freestyle.

Germantown Academy's girls' 200 medley relay squad of Katherine Riefenstahl, Teresa Crippen, Alicia Aemisegger and Sara Coenen finished first in their event to open the championships on Friday. Their winning time of 1:43.84 was 1.50 better than the runnerup time turned in by New Jersey's Peddie School.

G.A.'s 200-medley relay boys' team of Reece Chandler, Matt Cox, Ryan Peart and Ted Bonus swam home third behind only Mercersburg Academy and La Salle.

Chandler was runnerup in the 200 freestyle, just .99 behind the winner, Mercersburg's Jack Curran, while Cox placed fourth in the 200 IM.

The G.A. girls' finished an amazing 1-2-3-4 in the 200 freestyle, with Riefenstahl, Crippen, Lauren Sylvester and Abaigeal Reilly separated by only 6.48 seconds from Riefenstahl's first to Reilly's fourth.

The Patriots repeated their top-four feat in the 200 IM, with Alicia Aemisegger taking home the gold in 1:58.55. Claire Crippen was second, Katherine Magee third and Danielle Visco fourth as the Pats' dominance remained crystal clear.

Eliza McDevitt and Caitlin DeFusco finished sixth and eighth, respectively, for Germantown Academy in the 50 freestyle while the Pats' Jennifer Kopenitz, Sarah Ladley and Michele Palopoli finished third, fourth and seventh, respectively, in the 100 butterfly.

The girls' champions from Ft. Washington placed second in the 200 freestyle relay on the efforts of Coenen, Magee, Claire Crippen and Sylvester.

Germantown Academy's boys' one-meter diving team was sensational also, with Tom Henninger taking first-place honors while teammates Jeffrey Cragg, Zach Belmont and Josh Fried placed third, sixth and tenth, respectively.

La Salle's Tom Shiels was 21st in the boys' diving event, while Archbishop Wood's Emily Andrews placed 14th in girls' diving.

All part of an exciting two days at La Salle University.

La Salle boys, Ryan girls triumph

The Explorers and the Ragdolls easily swam to titles in the Catholic League championships.

By Michael Mudrick
FOR THE INQUIRER

In a tale of two powerhouses, La Salle captured its 18th consecutive Catholic League boys' swimming championship yesterday, while Archbishop Ryan's girls won their fifth straight title at La Salle University.

La Salle coach Frank Lichtner has won titles in all 16 of his years at the school. Ben Dearden led the way for the champions with wins in the 200 individual medley and 100 butterfly.

"Not only do we swim well, but we are very good sportsmen," Lichtner said. "We do all of our talking in the water, and I think that's something we have built, and I'd like to think that we are a very classy organization."

Ed Macko, coach of Ryan's girls, gave credit to his swimmers, especially the seniors.

"I think that each senior class kind of challenges the next group to come up and accept the challenge: Repeat or do better," Macko said. "Our seniors have been great leaders this year. They have really set a positive tone for the team. They just never quit and never say no. If they have a bad race, they pick up and just go on to the next one."

With outstanding contributions from seniors Christine Swiker and Stephanie Zielinski, the Ragdolls scorched Archbishop Wood by a score of 809-553.

La Salle coach Frank Lichtner hoists the boys' swimming trophy, the 16th time he has done so in his 16 years at the Explorers' helm.

The same can be said for the boys of La Salle, who coasted past second-place St. Joseph's Prep, winning by 961-550.5.

"I don't think it matters what sport you are playing," Lichtner said. "In the end, the best teams are mentally tough, and we certainly have worked at that. You have to beat us."

van's teammate, Amy Finn, was fourth in 5:39.56. Finn was also fourth in the 100 butterfly in 1:06.17.

Also winning individual events were Jaclyn Smith and Christina Rios. Smith won the 200 freestyle in 1:59.02 and was second in the 100 freestyle in 55.58. Rios won the 100 backstroke in 1:03.48 and was third in the 50 freestyle in 26.38.

Wood's relay teams were particularly strong, earning a first and two seconds.

The 200 freestyle relay team was victorious with Rios, Alyse Davis, Bridget Gannon, and Smith in 1:45.60.

The 200 medley relay team of Rios, Donovan, Finn, and Sharon Racine was second in 1:58.37 and the 400 freestyle relay team of Smith, Finn, Megan Gannon, and Donovan was second in 3:51.44.

Other notables for the Wood girls included a fourth place from Davis in 200 IM in 2:25.80 and a fifth place from Amanda Horlacher in the backstroke in 1:08.25.

Archbishop Wood received several strong performances from its girls swim team during the Philadelphia Catholic League Swimming Championships on Sunday, but it was not enough to land the Vikings in first place. As it was, Wood placed second during the day-long meet at La Salle University.

Archbishop Ryan won the girls meet with 809 points, followed by the Vikings with 553.

Wood's boys finished seventh among nine teams. La Salle's boys won the meet for the 16th straight season, collecting 961 points to easily outpace St. Joseph's Prep's total of 550½.

Notable finishes for Wood's boys included a third-place from Thomas Whelan in the 100-yard breaststroke in a time of 1:01.96 and a fourth place from the 200-yard medley relay team of David Keller, Whelan, James Hurley, and Brendon McGhee in a time of 1:46.37.

Wood's girls were sparked by Megan Donovan who won two individual events — the 500 freestyle in 5:13.63 and the 100 breaststroke in 1:09.82.

GIRLS SWIMMING COACH OF THE YEAR

Stillwell's Vikings make big splash in PCL

By LEE CIENIAWA
COURIER TIMES

He's had his share of top swimmers over the years, but Archbishop Wood girls swimming coach Charlie Stillwell can't ever recall having what he had in the just-completed 2005-06 season: A team with not only talented individuals, but talented team depth, where anybody he called upon was capable of performing successfully in any particular event.

"This year was more of a team effort than any other year. They all swam together," Stillwell said. "We had a lot more depth than we ever had in the past. For some reason, they were totally motivated this year and fed off each other. They didn't want to let anybody down. It was a great group of kids. This was definitely one of our better years."

That depth helped the Vikings to a 6-1 Philadelphia Catholic League record, including a big win over Cardinal O'Hara, which Wood hadn't beaten in five seasons. But it was in the PCL Championships that the deep Vikings' talent really came to the surface.

As a team, the Vikings finished second to only Archbishop Ryan, and the deep squad had four individual champions in Jaclyn Smith (200 freestyle), Megan Donovan (500 freestyle and 100 breaststroke) and Christina Rios (100 backstroke).

"All year I've been really happy," Stillwell said. "I've never had a team swim this well from the beginning of the year. And it's a young team. We're going to be in good shape for a few years."
