- Coach: Charlie Stillwell (11th year)
- Last year's record: 1-7
- Key returnees: Dave Keller, senior, freestyle/backstroke
- Others to watch: Gregory Oprendeck, sophomore, freestyle/breaststroke; Robert Cohen, freshman, backstroke/freestyle
- Strengths: Stillwell believes that most of his swimmers will improve their times this year, but will face a difficult task in competing with the rest of the Philadelphia Catholic League.
- Question marks: Wood fields a small team with only eight competitors, and it hopes that its young swimmers can build experience and confidence for the future.
- Outlook: Five of the team's eight swimmers are either freshmen or sophomores. The Vikings' three seniors, Keller, Joseph Greim and Eric Reuter will have to show their young teammates the ropes. "The new swimmers will be counted on to jump right in and get the needed experience through on-the-job training," Stillwell said.
- Coach says: "The team will remain small but could be a better overall team than last year."

Archbishop Wood

Coach: Charlie Stillwell (11th year)

2006-07 record: 6-1 (5-1 PCL)

Key performers: Grace Cochrane (Fr., butterfly, sprint freestyle, individual medley); Alyse Davis (Jr., individual medley, breaststroke); Amy Finn (Sr., butterfly, distance freestyle); Bridget Gannon (Sr., sprint freestyle, butterfly); Rachael Grias (Sr., distance freestyle); Taylor Kane (Fr., distance freestyle, breaststroke, individual medley); Christina Rios (Sr., backstroke, sprint freestyle); Emily Smith (So., breaststroke, freestyle).

Coach's quote: "With the loss of two of the best swimmers in the Catholic League, a fantastic freshman class will help the team keep going strong. While finishing second last year, our team had its goal set on rising to the challenge and swimming to a first place finish in the league this year. While the task will be difficult, a strong senior class will lead the way. If great things are to come to us this year it will definitely be a team effort. If we can improve enough in the freestyle events and get the effort from our middle swimmers, we will be in the race all the way to the end."

Coach: Charlie Stillwell (11th year)

Last year's overall record: 6-1

Swimmers to watch: Sr. Christina Rios (sprints, backstroke, freestyle), Sr. Amy Finn (butterfly, freestyle), Jr. Alyse Davis (IM, breaststroke), Soph. Emily Smith (breaststroke, freestyle).

The season: "With the loss of the top two swimmers in the Catholic League, a fantastic freshman class will keep us going," Stillwell said. "We finished second in the league last year, but our fine senior class is focused on winning it this year."

Coach: Charlie Stillwell (11th year)

Last year's record: 1-7

Swimmers to watch: Sr. Dave Keller (sprint free, backstroke), Soph. Greg Oprendeck (breaststroke), Fr. Robert Cohen (breaststroke, free)

The season: The Crusaders will be small in numbers but nobody will outwork them in practice nor deter them from their goal of peaking for the post season.

Hatboro-Horsham at Central Bucks East
Wednesday, Dec. 19,
3:30 p.m.

The Continental Conference foes go at it early in the season.

Germantown Academy at Peddie School
Wednesday, Jan. 9, 4 p.m.

Against the powerful Falcons, who defeated GA by 46 points at the Eastern Championships last season, expect the Patriots to have all of their top swimmers on hand and in their featured events.

Archbishop Wood at Archbishop Ryan
Tuesday, Jan. 15, 3:15 p.m.

The Vikings take another crack at the four-time defending Philadelphia Catholic League champions to whom they finished second last season.

Meets
to watch

Souderton at North Penn
Friday, Feb. 1, 3:45 p.m.

This ranks among the top rivalries in the area. The Indians and Maidens are familiar with each other because they compete in water polo during the summer and fall as well as go at each other during aquatics club season and the high school season. Expect some pool records to fall.

Emmaus at North Penn
Tuesday, Feb. 5,
3:45 p.m.

Four days after North Penn hosts Souderton, it flops down the welcome mat for the Green Hornets, the defending Class AAA state champions who handed the Maidens their only loss last season.

Highlight: Considering they only have six swimmers, the Vikings had a great meet, taking first in five individual events and the 200 medley relay. David Keller won the 50 and 100 free and was a member of the winning relay.

Archbishop Wood

Coach: Charlie Stillwell (11th year)

2006-07 record: 1-7 overall and PCL

Key performers: Robert Cohen (Fr., backstroke, sprint freestyle); Dave Keller (Sr., sprint freestyle, backstroke); Gregory Oprendeck (So., all strokes).

Coach's quote: "The team will remain small but could be a better overall team than last year. With the loss of our half our team to graduation we realistically have a brand new team. The new swimmers will be counted on to jump right in and get the needed experience through on the job training. Overall, I look for a better year than last year with our times, but around the same record as last year."

When a school has deep roster, it is tough for some extremely talented individuals to crack the lineup. Those athletes consider themselves lucky to get a chance to swim one event let along the four they're allowed.

That is not a problem at Archbishop Wood, where coach Charlie Stillwell has no trouble seeing that each swimmer competes in four races — because the Vikings roster includes just six boys.

There is senior Dave Keller, sophomores Andre DelValle and Greg Oprendeck, and freshmen Robert Cohen, Gary Bone and Andrew Gnias. That's the whole roster.

But ask Stillwell about this Dedicated Half Dozen, and his voice brightens.

"You know something," he asked rhetorically. "This probably is my best team simply because of their attitude."

Final lap for Wood in PCL

By KAREN SANGILLO
COURIER TIMES

This is Archbishop Wood's final season before the Philadelphia Catholic League enters the PIAA in the 2008-09 school year.

For the girls team, this is the last try to win the PCL title before switching over to a new postseason.

"It's really important that we go out strong," senior Bridget Gannon said. "As seniors we want to try to win it, and we also want to win the last Catholic League title before everything changes."

"There will still be a Catholic League and a championship, but I don't think it's ever going to be the same."

Some seniors rue missing the opportunity to swim in the PIAA.

"In a way I am sorry that I won't be here for the move because it'll be different and a new challenge," said senior Kellina Keown. "But we still have this season to swim, and hopefully we'll win the league."

The team lost some good swimmers to graduation.

"We're still going to do well, I think," senior Amy Finn said. "We feel that we're really strong. Who we lost is made up by the freshmen we got in. I think all of us are going to step up our game, and this could be our best year."

Last year the Vikings lost just one dual meet, to Archbishop Ryan.

"We did really well last year, and even though we lost to Ryan we didn't hand it to them," senior Rachael Gnias said. "We put up a great fight."

"That's been such a great rivalry for us. We're not specifically focused on beating Ryan this year, although, of course, we'd love to do that. We're focusing on every meet we have because it's important to swim well at all of them."

"This year even if we don't win it all, our goal is to make a lasting impression. If we can do that, it will have been a good season."

The Wood girls team opens the 2007-08 PCL season Wednesday, traveling to Archbishop Prendergast's home pool at Widener University's Schwartz Athletic Center. The boys will swim Monsignor Bonner at the same time to complete the double dual meet.

The teams swim a non-league double dual meet at Council Rock-North on Tuesday. It is the first meet of the year for the girls. The boys are 0-1 for the year, having lost to La Salle, 57-31, in their PCL opener.

La Salle, GA take second

Several local high schools tested their mettle against the top swimming programs on the East Coast last Friday and Saturday at the 108th Eastern Interscholastic Swimming and Diving Championships at La Salle University.

La Salle College High School and Germantown Academy each came away with successful weekends. La Salle finished second overall in the boys' team rankings, while the Germantown Academy girls' squad took the runner-up position in the girls' team standings.

The Patriots' team finish capped a terrific weekend for the Germantown Academy girls, amassing 276 team points, which fell just short of New Jersey power Peddie School with 290.

Senior Teresa Crippen set a school record in the 100-yard backstroke with her winning time of 54.16 seconds, and she tied school and Easterns records with her 54.60-second win in the 100 butterfly. Crippen's efforts earned her the Easterns' Outstanding Female Athlete award.

Fellow senior Katie Riefenstahl broke school and meet records as well when she won the 200 freestyle in 1:46.60.

Yet another school record was set in the 200 freestyle relay, with Crippen, Riefenstahl, Sarah Aemisseger, and Liza McDevitt completing the event in 1:34.41.

On the boys' side, the Patriots' small squad finished 14th with 59 points, but senior diver Jeff Cragg placed first overall with a score of 528.90 in the boys' diving competition.

For La Salle, the second-place result was a satisfying one for the Explorers, who were competing in the Easterns for the 19th and final time. As the Philadelphia Catholic League moves into the PIAA full-time next year, participation in District 12 and state meets will prevent the Explorers from competing in Easterns again.

La Salle also recorded times that met all-American standards in the 200 freestyle relay and 400 freestyle relay events. The Explorers' relay team consisted of Ted Walker, Todd Domanski, Andrew Sideras and James Mahoney.

Domanski fought off an illness to register a seventh-place finish in the 50 freestyle and 12th in the 100 freestyle.

Archbishop Wood, another school participating in its last Easterns meet, posted a respectable finish of 15th on the girls' side.

"I was very happy with the way they swam," Wood coach Charlie Stillwell said.

Vikings freshman Taylor Kane turned in a strong performance, finishing ninth in the 500 freestyle and 11th in the 200 freestyle.

In the preliminary 500 freestyle event, Kane posted a time of 5:13.53, besting her personal record by five seconds.

Meanwhile, Wood senior Christina Rios anchored a 15th-place group in the 200 medley relay; that group also featured Alyse Davis, Bridget Kerins and Bridget Gannon. Rios complemented that with finishes of 20th in the 100 freestyle and 22nd in the 100 backstroke. Freshman Grace Cochrane posted a time of 2:21.76 in the 200 individual medley, which was good for 18th, and followed that up with an 11th-place finish in the 100 butterfly.

"They weren't afraid to swim," Stillwell said. "The seniors generally rose to the occasion."

Pennsbury, Wood make big splash

By KAREN SANGILLO
COURIER TIMES

Two area girls swimming teams scored important league victories last week.

Archbishop Wood notched its first win against host Archbishop Ryan in eight years with a 107-63 Philadelphia Catholic League triumph Tuesday over the Ragdolls. The Pennsbury posted a 96-90 SOL National Conference win Wednesday over defending champ North Penn.

Wood's last win over Ryan was a 90-80 victory on Jan. 12, 2000. Ryan is the five-time defending PCL champion. Wood won its only crown in 1991.

"In my 11 years as head coach this was the best any of my teams have ever swum in a meet, and I've had some very good teams over the years," Wood coach Charlie Stillwell said.

"When I scoped out the meet ahead of time, I had it coming out a tie and, as you can see, we did a heck of a lot better than that.

"I told the girls before the meet started and during practices that this could be their year; this could be the year they beat Ryan. They were really disappointed last year [a 98-72 home loss] and they listened to me and everybody did the best they could possibly do.

They were very, very excited going in because they've been pointing for this meet all year.

Xceleration player Jen Whelan received the "Best Attacker" award in the 15-and-under age group at the Capitol Hill tournament.

PCL swim final is likely to be end of an era

La Salle is heavily favored to win its 20th consecutive Catholic League swim championship next weekend, continuing one of the longest league championship runs in Southeastern Pennsylvania.

But the league title likely will be the last in its present form. As a result of the league's move to District 12 next year, the two-day Catholic League championship format may not work.

"Because of deadlines for the District 12 championships, we may have to move some things back," in terms of the dual-meet season, said La Salle coach Frank Lichtner, president of the league's coaches' association. "We may not be able to find the facilities for a two-day meet."

"There are tons of fields for football playoffs, but we have to scramble to find a pool for two days," said Lichtner, whose Explorers have not lost a league dual meet in two decades.

As it is, the league is holding the championship meet at two different locations this year. The trials will be March 1 at Drexel University, with the boys swimming at 9 a.m. and the girls at 1 p.m. The finals will begin the next day at 11 a.m. at La Salle University.

The league has used Widener for its championship meet, but the Widener facility is unavailable.

"It will absolutely change things," Lichtner said, referring to the shift to District 12. "The big meet has been the Catholic League championships. Now it will be the district meet, with the hope of going on to the state championship."

La Salle and the other Catholic League schools that have competed in the National Catholic Championships at Villanova and the Eastern Interscholastic championships at La Salle are expected to bypass those meets next year. La Salle, which is competing in the Eastern meet today and tomorrow, finished third in the National Catholic meet this year.

Wood girls seek first title since 1991

BY KAREN SANGILLO
COURIER TIMES

WARMINSTER — The Archbishop Wood girls swim team is poised to win its first Philadelphia Catholic League title since 1991.

The Vikings finished the regular season at 6-1 overall, 6-0 in the PCL, including a 107-63 win over five-time defending PCL titlist Archbishop Ryan — the first time in eight years that they have defeated the Ragdolls in a dual meet. Wood's only loss was to Council Rock-North, 124-59, in a nonleague season opener.

The PCL championships are scheduled for this weekend, with trials on Saturday at Widener University, boys at 8 a.m. and girls at noon. The finals are on Sunday at La Salle University, beginning at 11 a.m.

"We definitely feel that there's pressure," team member Alyse Davis said. "We beat Ryan, and we're undefeated, but we know that everyone else is going to be fired up to swim well and we'll be the team everyone is looking to beat."

"We're trying not to think about it too much and to just be happy that we're in this position and to not be cocky and act like we already have it in the bag, because we don't. We like our chances, and we want to go out there and swim with confidence and not be intimidated, but we definitely know that we still have to do it in the pool."

Coach Charlie Stillwell also likes his team's chances.

"This team is different from any other team I've coached," he said. "They're so motivated. The only thing I do is train them; they do all the motivating themselves."

"They're a fantastic group of kids to work with. I'm really looking forward to championships. It's going to be really exciting."

The Vikings are hoping to parlay their success at the Eastern Interscholastic Swimming and Diving Championships last weekend at La Salle into a triumph in the PCL championships.

At the Eastern meet, Taylor Kane finished 10th in the 500 freestyle in 5:16.49 and 11th in the 200 freestyle (2:00.20). Grace Cochrane was 11th in the 100 butterfly (1:02.07) and 18th in the 200 individual medley (2:21.76).

The 400 freestyle relay of Christina Rios, Cochrane, Amy Finn and Kane finished 12th (3:51.77). The 200 medley relay of Rios, Davis, Bridget Kerins and Bridget Gannon was 15th (2:00.85), and the 200 freestyle relay of Gannon, Kane, Davis and Cochrane was 18th (1:47.98).

The Eastern meet is one of the oldest and most prestigious in the country and is the largest prep school aquatic event in the United States.

"It's really upsetting that this was our last Eastern meet," said Davis, a junior. "We love going there because it's such a fun meet, and I know I'm going to miss swimming there next year."

"We don't go into that meet with any big expectations. Mostly, we want to swim there because it's at La Salle and that's where the Catholic League finals are, so it gives us a chance to swim in the same pool before the PCL meet."

"I know things are changing and next year is going to be really different for us, but we'll have to just accept it and see how it goes."

Wood girls end title drought

By KAREN SANGILLO
COURIER TIMES

PHILADELPHIA — The Archbishop Wood girls swim team broke a 17-year drought, winning the Philadelphia Catholic League championship Sunday at La Salle University's Kirk Natatorium.

The Vikings won their only other PCL title in 1991.

"That's a long time," senior captain Bridget Gannon said. "It feels so great to win one, and to win it my senior year is just amazing. This was our last chance.

"Everyone swam so well, and we were really excited for the meet. We knew if we came in here and swam strong that we'd be the team to beat. We didn't really feel much pressure; we knew what we could do, so it was just a matter of us doing it."

Wood's win broke Archbishop Ryan's five-year winning streak.

"We beat Ryan in our dual meet, but we knew we couldn't take them lightly," senior captain Rachael Gniass said. "We had to come back and swim well here. We've seen Ryan's depth; we know what they can do.

"This was just a great way to finish the season. I think the seniors really appreciate what it means to finally beat Ryan."

Three swimmers took first place in individual events.

Taylor Kane won the 200-yard freestyle in 1:59.28 and the 500 freestyle (5:17.95), Grace Cochrane won the 200 butterfly (1:00.87), and Christina Rios won the 100 freestyle (56.16).

Wood also finished first in the 400 freestyle relay, with the team of Amy Finn, Cochrane, Kane and Rios clocking in at 3:49.89.

Also for the Vikings, Finn was second in the 200 freestyle (2:05.45) and third in the 500 freestyle (5:40.71), Emily Smith was second in the 100 freestyle (57.72) and third in the 200 freestyle (2:10.09), Rios was second in the 100 backstroke (1:01.59) and Cochrane was third in the 200 individual medley (2:18.90).

The team of Rios, Alyse Davis, Bridget Kerins and Gannon finished second in the 200 medley relay (1:57.68), and the 200 freestyle relay of Smith, Cochrane, Kane and Gannon took third (1:46.60).

"This is unbelievable," Wood coach Charlie Stillwell said. "It was all the girls. I was lucky enough to be the one to tell them what to swim, but they did it all themselves. I'm so proud of them."

Greg Oprendeck was the top individual finisher for the Wood boys team, taking 11th in both the 200 individual medley (2:13.27) and 100 breaststroke (1:09.16). Wood's 200 freestyle relay of David Keller, Oprendeck, Gary Bone and Andrew Gniass finished seventh (1:42.03).

The Wood boys finished ninth in team scoring (94). La Salle won the team title for boys with 965 points, extending its winning streak to 20 consecutive league titles.

PHILADELPHIA — The Archbishop Wood girls swim team broke a 17-year drought, winning the Philadelphia Catholic League championship Sunday at LaSalle University's Kirk Natatorium.

The Vikings won their only other PCL title in 1991.

"That's a long time," senior captain Bridget Gannon said. "It feels so great to win one, and to win it my senior year is just amazing. This was our last chance. Everyone swam so well and we were really excited for the meet. We knew if we came in here and swam strong that we'd be the team to beat.

We didn't really feel much pressure; we knew what we could do, so it was just a matter of us doing it."

Wood's win broke Archbishop Ryan's five-year win streak.

"We beat Ryan in our dual meet, but we knew we couldn't take them lightly," senior captain Rachael Gnias said. "We had to come back and swim well here. We've seen Ryan's depth; we know what they can do. This was just a great way to finish the season. I think the seniors really appreciate what it means to finally beat Ryan." Three swimmers took first place in individual events.

Taylor Kane won the 200-yard freestyle in 1 minute, 59.28 seconds and the 500 freestyle (5:17.95), Grace Cochran won the 200 butterfly (1:00.87) and Christina Rios won the 100 freestyle (56.16).

Wood also finished first in the 400 freestyle relay, with the team of Amy Finn, Cochran, Kane and Rios clocking in at 3:49.89.

Also for the Vikings, Finn was second in the 200 freestyle (2:05.45) and third in the 500 freestyle (5:40.71), Emily Smith was second in the 100 freestyle (57.72) and third in the 200 freestyle (2:10.09), Rios was second in the 100 backstroke (1:01.59) and Cochran was third in the 200 individual medley (2:18.90).

"This is unbelievable," Wood coach Charlie Stilwell said. "It was all the girls. I was lucky enough to be the one to tell them what to swim, but they did it all themselves. I'm so proud of them."

Greg Oprendeck was the top individual finisher for the Wood boys, taking 11th in both the 200 individual medley (2:13.27) and 100 breaststroke (1:09.16). Wood's 200 freestyle relay of David Keller, Oprendeck, Gary

La Salle makes it 20 in row; Wood captures girls' crown

The Explorers won 9 of the 11 events to win the title easily; The Vikings won four events, but team depth carried them.

La Salle High enters each swimming season expecting to compete for the Catholic League boys' title.

The Archbishop Wood girls' swimming team may not have the tradition of La Salle, but it began the season with high hopes, too.

Both teams fulfilled their dreams yesterday at La Salle University's Kirk Pool, winning Catholic League championships. It was the Explorers' 20th straight league crown. The Vikings claimed their second title in school history.

La Salle scored 965 points to easily defeat St. Joseph's Prep (625.5) and third-place Archbishop Ryan (294.5).

"It's such an accomplishment," said Ted Walker, who helped the Explorers win four events. "I can't even believe it's been 20 years in a row. That's before I was even alive. It feels great to be a part of that, because we're just carrying something on for so long."

The Explorers won nine of the 11 events and were led by Walker, who won the 100- and 200-yard freestyle. He was also a part of the winning 200 and 400 freestyle relay teams.

La Salle's James Mahoney won the 50 freestyle, Phil Letcavage took the 100 butterfly, and Blase Szyszko captured the 100 breaststroke. Each contributed to winning relay teams.

Michael McGee won the 500 freestyle and took second in the 200 freestyle for the Explorers.

"Our coaches told us before the season that we're not just representing ourselves," McGee said. "[They said], 'You're representing every team that's won before you.' That's the kind of feeling we have."

Wood's girls claimed their first title since 1991. With 694 points, the Vikings snapped a five-year championship run by Archbishop Ryan. Cardinal O'Hara (571) finished second and Ryan (563) was third.

Taylor Kane paced the Vikings, winning the 200 and 500 freestyle and swimming the third leg for the victorious 400 freestyle relay team.

"I knew I was swimming against seniors who really wanted to win, so I was a little nervous about that," the freshman said.

Christina Rios was the only other Viking to capture an individual event, topping the field in the 100 freestyle, but coach Charlie Stillwell pointed to the Vikings' depth: They claimed the top five spots in the 200 freestyle and five of the top six in the 500 freestyle.

"To be honest with you, I've never had a team like this," Stillwell said.

"From the first meet that we had, they've just stepped up and shown that they really wanted to win."

Swimmer of the Week

Christina Rios of Archbishop Wood helped the Vikings to a 107-63 win over Archbishop Ryan. The senior won the 100-yard freestyle and 100 backstroke and was on the winning 200 medley and 400 freestyle relays.

Charlie Stilwell

Archbishop Wood

En route to its first Philadelphia Catholic League title since 1991, Stilwell's Vikings were 6-1 overall, 6-0 PCL, including a 107-53 win over five-time defending champion Archbishop Ryan. It was the first time in eight years that Wood has defeated Ryan in a dual meet. The league title is only the second in program history.

Archbishop Wood grad looks for gold in two events

Kyle Atras will take part in swimming and volleyball during the upcoming event in Bangkok, Thailand.

COURIER TIMES

Archbishop Wood graduate Kyle Atras will be competing in swimming and volleyball at the 2007 World Transplant Games Aug. 25-Sept. 2 in Bangkok, Thailand.

Atras, a resident of Willow Grove who graduated from Archbishop Wood on June 4, had a heart transplant when he was 8½ months old after a diagnosis of dilated cardiomyopathy at the age of 3 months at Children's Hospital of Philadelphia.

At the time, CHOP did not have a license to do transplants and St. Christopher's Hospital for Children, also in Philadelphia, had a license but no surgeon, so Atras had the transplant done at Johns Hopkins in Baltimore on October 29, 1989.

Although he has been to quite a few United States Transplant Games, this will be his first World Games. "I can't wait," he said. "It looks like a lot of fun. The chance to go to Bangkok doesn't come around every day so my family, and I decided to jump on the opportunity."

"This is my first time at an international competition, so I'm really excited about that," he said. "I expect really good competition there, and I'm looking forward to meeting athletes from other countries."

Kyle Atras

He heard about the event from other swimmers at the national games.

"Everyone told me how much fun it is and how fast the times are, so I thought it would be fun to do it myself," he said.

He will be joined on the trip by parents Matt and Betsy, brother Chris, age 12, and a family friend, Nancy Harmon.

"I'll have a big cheering section," he said.

Balancing two sports won't be difficult.

"They don't ever run on the same days, so I think it's going to work out for me," he said. "I might have to miss a practice for one to compete in the other, but it's no big deal."

He has been to U.S. Games in Orlando, Fla., St. Paul, Minn., and Louisville, Ky. The next one is in Pittsburgh in 2008.

"That one's a lot closer, so I'm pretty sure I'll be going to that," he said. "The rumor is that the next World Games is going to be in Australia. That would be great to go to, but these things are expensive so I'll have to wait and see if I can swing it."

Atras lives his life without thinking too much about his transplant.

"I just do my thing," he said. "The only time I really think about it is when I'm in the doctor's office because that's why I'm there."

"I want to live my life with no limitations and do whatever I feel I can do. I've been really fortunate not to have any major problems and I hope it stays that way."

He was a four-year letter winner on the Wood swim team.

Wood swim coach Charlie Stillwell enjoyed having Atras on the squad.

"Kyle is a good team person," Stillwell said. "He worked hard and covered all of the events I needed him to cover without complaining. He understood that we had a small team and that he couldn't always swim where he wanted to."

"He almost always made practice and had fun. He was great to work with."

That team attitude will be an asset to Atras as he heads to Hood College, a Division III school in Frederick, Md., where he will major in broadcast journalism and plans to go out for the swim team.

"It's a small team that hasn't been around that long so I think I'll fit it," he said. "It's actually pretty similar to Wood. I'm used to swimming a lot of different events so hopefully that will help me."

Atras will miss the first week of classes due to the World Games.

"The school was completely fine with it," he said. "They actually encouraged me to go, because they saw it the way I do. This is going to be the experience of a lifetime."
