GIRLS SWIMMING

PREVIEW

Archbishop Wood

Coach: Charlie Stillwell (12th year)

Last year: 6-1 (6-0 PCL)

Top 10: Sr. Megan Basgil (distance freestyle); Soph. Grace Cochrane (butterfly, individual medley); Sr. MariKate Cook (distance freestyle, backstroke, individual medley); Sr. Alyse Davis (breaststroke, individual medley); Fr. Alexandra Fitzgerald (backstroke, sprint freestyle); Jr. Colleen Gannon (sprint freestyle); Soph. Taylor Kane (distance freestyle); Jr. Bridget Kerins (butterfly, sprint freestyle); Soph. Olivia Martino (breaststroke); Jr. Emily Smith (sprint freestyle, breaststroke).

The season: Wood loses seven seniors from last year, which was the program's best-ever as the Vikings won the PCL title. There is still a lot of talent and good depth with the addition of 20 new swimmers, all of which means a repeat in the league is a safe bet.

DelValle working hard

When coach Charlie Stillwell talked about the Archbishop Wood boys before the start of the season, he used words like, "inexperienced" and "green." With no seniors on the roster, junior Andre DelValle was selected as one of the captains.

"I'll tell you this, Andre has really worked hard this year," Stillwell said. "He was always pretty good, but he has improved so much this year because of how hard he's working. He's the only one on the team who hasn't missed a practice."

After quickly adjusting to his role as a team leader, he started working with younger, more inexperienced swimmers to help them improve.

"If I need him to swim something, he'll do it," Stillwell said. "He's been a glue for the team and has helped hold it together, so even though we're extremely young, we're a close team; the guys have fun, and Andre is a big reason why."

DelValle has already qualified for the PIAA District 12 meet in the 200 free, just missed the qualifying standard in the 500, and is fractions of a second above the time he needs in the 100 free.

TEAMS TO WATCH

COUNCIL ROCK NORTH

The Indians are returning a core group of swimmers from a team that finished second in the SOL National Conference last year. With North Penn moving into the Continental Conference this year, the top spot opens up for a new champion, and CR North could very well step up and claim the prize.

PENNSBURY

The Falcons have a competitive group this year and are poised for a good season. As with the other teams in the SOL National Conference, the departure of North Penn leaves room at the top and Pennsbury could move into the gap.

WILLIAM TENNENT

Tennent moves into the SOL National Conference and should make an instant impact. The Panthers have a lot of nice swimmers back from last year, and they will be the nucleus of a competitive team.

COUNCIL ROCK SOUTH

The team has a nice mix of returners and newcomers and should produce some good swims. A move to the SOL National from the Continental will give the team some fresh competition this year.

ARCHBISHOP WOOD

The Vikings won their first PCL title last year since 1991. This is the first year for Wood in the PIAA and the team is Class AAA, so the bar is set higher this year.

Wood's Oprendeck places 10th

Archbishop Wood junior Greg Oprendeck scored his school's first points ever at the PIAA Class AA state boys swimming championships Wednesday at Bucknell University.

Oprendeck, District 12's top seed, placed 10th in the 200-yard individual medley with a time of 1 minute, 58.55 seconds. He had registered the 12th-best preliminary time (2:00.48) earlier in the day to reach the consolation finals.

The Class AA meet concludes today, and the Class AAA will be held Friday and Saturday at the same venue.

SWIMMERS TO WATCH

MELANIE BUSCH, WILLIAM TENNENT

Busch was the District One Class AAA titlist in the 200-yard individual medley as a freshman last year. She finished fourth in the 100 backstroke and fifth in the IM at states.

KATE DILLIONE, COUNCIL ROCK NORTH

Dillione stood out in the distance events last year, taking the SOL National Conference titles in both the 200-yard freestyle and 500 free as a freshman. She made it to the consolation final in both events at states last season.

EMILY HOWARD, PENNSBURY

A junior, she finished second at both the SOL National Conference and District One Class AAA meets last year. She is a two-time state qualifier.

TAYLOR KANE, ARCHBISHOP WOOD

Kane, a sophomore, won the Philadelphia Catholic League championship in the 200-yard freestyle and 500 free. This will be her first year as a PIAA-eligible swimmer.

CHELSEA PERUGINI, NESHAMINY

Perugini has the potential to have a big season. The senior was a District One Class AAA qualifier in both the 200 individual medley and 100 backstroke last year and has been working hard to improve her times.

Wood boys finish strong

The Archbishop Wood boys team had some top finishes at the District 12 championships at Widener last weekend.

Swimming in Class AA, Greg Oprendeck was first in the 200-yard individual medley with a time of 2:03.52, qualifying him for the PIAA championships. He was also second in the 100 breaststroke (1:00.67).

Kevin McGuckin was second in the 50 freestyle (24.79).

Wood's 200 medley relay of Christopher Conway, Oprendeck, McGuckin and Gary Bone was second (1:53.57), the 200 freestyle relay of Barry Morris, Ian Mee, Andrew Gnais and McGuckin was second (1:44.44) and the 400 freestyle relay of Andre Delvalle, Conway, Gnais and Oprendeck was third (3:44.44).

"Our boys swam well," Wood coach Charlie Stillwell said. "I'm very happy with their times."

"Greg is very excited to be going to states in the IM and we're optimistic about his chances of getting out in the breaststroke."

CR North moves into renovated poolKaren SangilloE-mail

It's a new era for Council Rock swimming.

Council Rock North christened the renovated pool with the first meet in the new venue, a non-league encounter with Hatboro-Horsham. The Indians won both meets; the boys' score was 109-71, while the girls won by a 109-77 margin.

The pool, which is also used by Council Rock South, got a major spruce-up, the first since it was built in 1969.

Improvements include windows, new lights and adaptive needs access to the water. The diving boards were moved from the end of the pool to the side and a seventh lane was added.

"It's great," said senior captain Kevin Dolan. "I'm sorry I'm a senior and I only get to swim in it this year."

Olivia Twomey agreed.

"I've been swimming for Council Rock for so long, and I was just used to the old pool," said Twomey, a senior captain. "We kept hearing that we were going to get a new pool, but it just didn't seem real, even when we were swimming at Neshaminy Middle School."

"We were fortunate to have a pool available that was so close that we could use in the meantime, and we had some good times at Neshaminy, but it wasn't home."

"But to actually have it and be swimming in it is just awesome. It's great to be home, finally."

CB East Relays

William Tennent left the annual season kickoff with a good number of trophies.

Amanda Thomas, Leanna Puls, Meghan Forlini and Melanie Busch combined to win the 200-yard freestyle relay in 1:42.80. Megan Preedy, Puls, Forlini and Busch won the 400 breaststroke relay (2:13.01) and Thomas, Puls, Forlini, Busch and Laura Ferry won the 500 crescendo relay (4:48.31).

For the boys, Tennent's Connor Forlini, Zack Busch, Steve Thomas and Ryan Dooling finished third in the 200 medley relay (1:49.02) and Steven Poirier, Dooling, Forlini and Busch were third in the 400 breaststroke relay (2:06.84).

Archbishop Wood's Taylor Kane, Emily Smith, Bridget Kerins and Grace Cochrane were third in the 400 butterfly relay (1:55.47), and Alyse Davis, Smith, Kane, Cochrane and Smith took third in the 500 crescendo relay (4:54.87).

For the boys, Wood's Greg Oprendeck, Kevin McGuckin, Andre DelValle and Ian Mee took third in the 400 butterfly relay (1:58.92).

CR North boys win

The Indians defeated defending District One Class AAA champion Upper Dublin, in a tri-meet with CR South that was the season opener. The Cardinals ended North Penn's 19-year district title streak last season.

The final score was CR North 732, Upper Dublin 704 and CR South 388.

■ On Monday, William Tennent travels to Hatboro-Horsham for a meet at 5:30 p.m. It is a nonleague meeting between two former SOL Continental Conference rivals. Tennent moved to the SOL National this year, while the Hatters remain in the Continental.

There were several basic reasons why school officials at Lansdale Catholic elected to leave the Pioneer Athletic Conference in favor of the Philadelphia Catholic League.

Swimming notebook

By Bill Keen

Having a chance to be a dominating force in the PIAA's District 12 was not one of the official ones, but it certainly has occurred to members of the Crusaders and their fans.

Let's face it: Swimming is not one of the most popular sports among teams in the Philadelphia Public League, who were, until September, the only members of District 12. Just how bad the times were was painfully obvious when the District 12 representative was listed along with all the other qualifiers for the state championship meet at Bucknell University.

Then the Catholic schools decided to join the PIAA.

Now, when the best of the best again gather in Lewisburg next month to see who is the best of them all, there's a very good chance lowly District 12 could have some of the fastest qualifiers in several events instead of the slowest. Now that the PPL has been joined by the PCL, some extremely good swimmers have moved from District One to 12, and LC will be right in the thick of things.

This year's Lansdale Catholic team is a classic tournament team, where four or five individuals can score a ton of points, especially when one of them — Al Augustine — is a strong candidate to win one, if not two, state titles.

It will also be interesting to see how the girls from both LC and Archbishop Wood do when they go up against the rest of the Keystone State. The teams' rosters are very similar, with several very talented individuals who should make their relay teams dangerous as well. Look for both to finish in the top five in the district team standings and to be well represented at states.

East swimmers hold Reindeer Relays

During the holiday break, swim teams take a break from competition, but that doesn't mean they spend the better part of two weeks away from the pool. Workouts for some make whatever they do the rest of the season look tame in comparison.

However, at Central Bucks East, girls head coach Tom Kane and boys coach Ed Walsh hold the annual Reindeer Relays on Christmas Eve.

It's one event and the length is only 50 yards — but it has to be the craziest race in the history of the sport.

The boys and girls team captains create certificates to commemorate the day's activities and then choose teams of six competitors, each of whom are in the water at the same time.

A good imagination will be helpful at this point to picture what it looks like.

One swimmer representing Rudolph is in the lead, followed by two, two-person team of reindeer, with Santa riding in the "sleigh."

Rudolph can only use his or her arms, because the first team of reindeer are holding onto each leg with their inside hand. Their inside leg is, in turn, grabbed by the inside hand of the reindeer behind them, meaning each of the reindeer can swim with the outside arm while kicking with the outside leg.

As for Santa, Mr. — or Ms. Claus as the case may be — is not allowed to swim or

Swimming notebook

By Bill Keen

kick, and spends the first 25 yards holding onto the inside legs of the final team of reindeer while being dragged along until Rudolph reaches the wall.

At that point, everything reverses; Santa becomes Rudolph, the trailing reindeer are the lead with the other team behind them, Rudolph assumes the role of Santa and the sleigh labors its way to the finish.

It is, to be sure, organized insanity.

Race day practice starts at 9:45 with the race at 10:15. Alumni always return to watch the fun, some wishing they could get back in the pool to join the fun. The day after Christmas, the Patriots get serious again with extended time given so each swimmer can work on his or her specialty.

Kane added he and Walsh realize some team members travel with family for the holidays, in which case the coaches urge them to find a pool so they can practice while away.

Then there are individuals like Denise Weikel, a former member of the team and CB East's class of 1984, who now lives in Michigan and returns to the area to visit with her family. Her daughter, Morgan, swims competitively at her high school and joined the Patriots on Tuesday for workouts.

Holiday Happenings

At North Penn, they have an aquatic version of The 12 Days of Christmas, with 15 practices in 15 days during the break. There is something different each day, and the athletes even have a song they sing.

Head coach Lisa Forlini at William Tennent would like to have the holidays to be like the old days when they had two-a-days each day. But with the pool in demand for other activities, some days will have two practices while others will have one.

Even without a pool, Archbishop Wood actually has it pretty good compared to some Philadelphia Catholic League teams. Practice is held at La Salle College High School's pool today and next Friday. On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, the Vikings practice in the morning at Klinger Middle School in the Centennial District and at La Salle in the evening.

And To All A Good Night

To swimmers, divers, coaches — and all our loyal readers — here's a wish for happy and safe holidays. Rankings and meets to watch resume next year (think about it).

DISTRICT 12 SWIMMING CHAMPIONSHIPS

Kerins, Wood ready for new experience

The junior will compete in four events as the Vikings take part in their first District 12 championship meet.

By KAREN SANGILLO
STAFF WRITER

WARMINSTER — This has been a season of change for the Archbishop Wood swim team.

The Vikings joined the PIAA along with the rest of the Philadelphia Catholic League, so this is their first appearance at the District 12 championships.

The meet is slated for Feb. 20-21 at Widener University's Schwartz Center. Preliminaries begin at noon and finals at 7:15 p.m. both days.

"It's going to be different this year, that's for sure," Wood junior Bridget Kerins said.

"We're used to PCLs being the last meet of the year, and now we're going to be competing against the Public League. We've never done that before. We're really excited for the meet, and I think we're going to do very well there."

Event winners advance automatically to the PIAA championships, March 11-14 at Bucknell University. Others may receive at-large bids based on comparative times throughout the state.

Kerins is seeded second in the 50-yard freestyle and third in the 100 butterfly.

"You never know how it's going to go, but if I swim well, I still may have an opportunity to go to states even if I don't win my events," she said.

She is also on the 200 and 400 freestyle relays.

"I think our 400 free relay has a real chance, so I'm excited about that," she said.

In addition to the District 12 Class AAA and Class AA team championships, the PCL team championships will also be determined by finishes at the district meet.

In the past, the PCL had its own championship meet. Wood is the defending PCL girls team champion.

"This is going to be a tough meet," Wood coach Charlie Stillwell said. "It's definitely going down to the wire for the PCL and the district."

"As far as the league goes, I've had it happen before where we were undefeated in the dual meets and lost the league title at champs. Winning is not a given and we know it. It's going to be very interesting."

Archbishop Ryan has been the Vikings' main rival. Wood's title last year broke a five-year Ryan streak.

"We lost to Ryan when I was a freshman and we beat them last year, so I've been on both sides of it," Kerins said. "Believe me, it's better to win. But it's a really good rivalry; we both put up our best times against each other and I think we'll do that again at districts."

SWIMMING NOTEBOOK

Neshaminy helps younger swimmers

By KAREN SANGILLO
STAFF WRITER

The Neshaminy swim team is full of the holiday spirit of giving.

The Redskins had their annual food drive on Monday for Aid for Friends, an organization that distributes food to the needy.

This is the second year the team has spent an evening putting the food bags together with the younger swimmers from CORE, Neshaminy's age group program.

"We did breakfast bags and each age was responsible for bringing in different foods like granola bars, oatmeal and tea bags," senior captain Chelsea Perugini said. "I thought breakfast was a good idea because I bet people don't get those things as much but they still need them."

"Then we spent the time after our practice but before the CORE practice putting the bags together. We decorated them and we put little notes in them."

Fellow senior captain Mike Keefe felt the night was worthwhile on several levels.

"We helped people and had a good time doing it, and we got to spend time together as a team doing something other than swim," he said.

"We also spent time with the younger swimmers. We see them at CORE meets and we know them, but this gave us a chance to talk with them and spend some time with them, too. I think we are role models for the younger swimmers and it's good for us to do positive things with them."

Coach Brian Suter hopes it will be a lesson in giving for the swimmers.

"This is the time of year when everyone is thinking about what they are going to get, but I want them to see how good it feels to give, too," he said.

The Redskins also held their annual alumni day after a double dual meet with Pennsbury. About 16 former swimmers showed up to watch the meet, catch up with former teammates and meet the new team.

"We've been getting a bigger and bigger turnout for that every year," Suter said. "It's great for the current team members to see some of the older swimmers that maybe they've heard about or seen on our record board but never met."

Kane leads Wood girls

Win over Ryan big for Wood

Karen Sangillo

The Archbishop Wood girls team took a big step toward defending its Philadelphia Catholic League title with last week's 89-81 win over host Archbishop Ryan.

"I knew it was going to be really close," Wood coach Charlie Stillwell said. "I was hoping to be tied going into the final relay, and we were up, 79-77. Then we took first and third in the 400 free relay to win it."

"I was really surprised; our second relay took 14 seconds off their best time and our first relay took five seconds off of theirs. I really wasn't sure we could get third place, but they did it. It was a pretty sweet meet; everyone swam so well."

It is the second year in a row that the Vikings have bested the Ragdolls in a dual meet. Ryan had been the five-time defending PCL champion when Wood snapped the streak last year.

"It was awesome," senior captain Megan Basgill said.

"We beat them last year and this year, and we won the league last year, and to me it feels like we won the league three times because they're such a good team and winning against them is such a big deal."

Basgill is the vice president of the student council, a member of the National Honor Society and also played soccer for the Vikings.

"Ryan beat us in the soccer final this year, so I was really happy to win the meet because of that, too," she said. "Both teams are really competitive and we both want to win, but I think it's a healthy rivalry. We really do bring out the best in each other."

Basgill was third in the 200 freestyle (2:13.81) and 500 freestyle (5:54.48), anchored the third-place 200 freestyle relay (1:54.50) with Emily Ruzicka, Colleen Gannon and Bridget McGrath, and was on the third place 400 freestyle relay (4:12.63) with Ruzicka, Gannon and MariKate Cook.

This year is the first year the Vikings, along with the rest of the PCL, will compete at the District 12 championships.

"It's going to be very exciting for us," Basgill said. "It's such a great opportunity for our swimmers to have a chance to move on to states."

Freshmen making impact at Wood

Swimming notebook

By Bill Keen

Every week between now and Saint Patty's Day, we'll follow the exploits of both the boys' and girls' swimming programs from area schools.

So, without any further ado, we'll start with the tale of two freshman girls who have caught the eye of veteran coach Charlie Stillwell at Archbishop Wood.

One of them is Bridget McGrath, an athlete who is loaded with potential but has yet to grasp that fact.

"Bridget is still trying to get used to the program, but you can see she has a lot of talent," Stillwell said. "The other day, I put her in the 100-yard breast-stroke even though she never swam it before, and she did 1 minute, 23 seconds. She tired at the end, but I think as she works on it, by the end of the year, she should be down around 1:17 or better."

The other ninth-grader, Alex Fitzgerald, has a blue-chip pedigree in the sport. Her mother, Cindy, swam at Wood and later at the University of Maryland, while Alex's older sister, Jillian, not only still holds several records at Wood, but took her talent to the University of Delaware.

One more thing: Alex Fitzgerald is the coach's niece.

"Alex swims the backstroke and sprint freestyle," Uncle Charlie said. "She already has a 1:10 in the 100 back, so when she gets a full year of high school swimming under her belt, she's going to be a lot better."

Learning from the best

For the past 40 years, Dick Shoulberg has been turning out some of the finest high school swimmers in the United States at his Germantown Academy aquatics factory.

Last season was the rare exception, as the boys won only one meet, but individually, there were several competitors who just needed a little nurturing to blossom into typical Shoulberg standouts.

Jimmy McEldrew was one of them, which was why the coach turned to two of his "assistants" who were to mentor the freshmen and teach him the ways of the GA world.

"Last year, I had him practice in the same lane as Teresa Crippen and Katie Riefenstahl, both of whom swam at the United States Olympic trials," Shoulberg said. "I told them I wanted them to take Jimmy and make him better, and I can still hear them telling him how to do things differently."

"I saw the potential in him, and that's how I operate; I identify talent and make sure they are challenged."

Knights are mortal

Unless something completely unexpected happens, North Penn should be the most dominant boys' team in District One, but only because La Salle is in District 12.

On Thursday past, the Explorers handed the Knights a 109-77 loss, the same way they did last season, and the season before that, and the one before that.

La Salle sweeps Catholic, Dist. 12

The Explorers got two wins for the effort of one.

INQUIRER STAFF WRITER

The La Salle swim team not only grabbed its 21st consecutive Catholic League boys' swim championship yesterday at Widener but picked up some new hardware for the school by winning the PIAA District 12 Class AAA title at the same time.

The Catholic League decided to determine its championship by using results from the district meet, which included Public League schools. This year marks the first year of PIAA competition for the league.

La Salle racked up 895 points to finish well ahead of league rival St. Joseph's Prep (540) in both the league and the district.

The Archbishop Wood girls took top honors in the Catholic League and beat out Archbishop Ryan for Class AAA district honors. The Vikings collected 512.5 points. Class AAA girls' honors went to Archbishop Ryan, with 439 points.

Archbishop Carroll (362) won Class AA girls' honors. The Class AA team honors for boys went to Lansdale Catholic, at 360.

The first-place winners in both AA and AAA competition earn automatic berths in the PIAA championships next month at Bucknell University in Lewisburg, Pa. Runners-up also can qualify for states based on times from across the state.

"The district competition was an added incentive for us," said La Salle's Ted Walker, who won the 100 freestyle yesterday with a time of 45.45 seconds. Walker, who also finished second in the 200 free on Friday's opening day, led an Explorers sweep of the six top times in the 100 free.

"We've been training hard all year," Walker said. "We've had a great year, but this [district and states] are whole new thing for us."

SWIMMING: DISTRICT 12 CHAMPIONSHIPS

Cochrane, Kane lead Wood to girls title

The Vikings captured the team crown in their first season in District 12.

CHESTER — Archbishop Wood's Grace Cochrane did not get upset about suffering an upset in her first race in the District 12 championships. Instead, she decided to pull off some upsets of her own.

Cochrane ended the weekend with three gold medals and a silver as she, along with the expected dominating performance by Taylor Kane, helped Wood roll to the girls' Class AAA district team title, as well as its second straight Philadelphia Catholic League championship as the scores also counted in the final PCL standings.

Lansdale Catholic won what coach Bob Birnbrauer said was its first-ever district championship, as the Crusaders finished first among Class AA boys teams.

La Salle (AAA boys) and Archbishop Carroll (AA girls) were other teams to come away from Widener University on Saturday night as team winners.

District 12 is composed of teams from the Philadelphia Catholic and Public Leagues. Although there were separate team standings, the classes were combined in the races. The top finisher from each class in a race automatically qualified for the PIAA state championships, to be held at Bucknell University from March 11-14.

Cochrane was the favorite to win the 200 individual medley, but lost to LC's Jessica Gidzinski on Friday. She then anchored the Vikings to an upset win over Archbishop Carroll in the 200 freestyle relay later that night.

On Saturday, she then pulled off her second straight upset as she beat favored Tara Robinson of St. Hubert's in the 100 freestyle. In the final race of the night, Cochrane anchored the Vikings' 400 freestyle relay team to victory to clinch the title.

"I was supposed to be fourth (in the 100 freestyle)," said Cochrane. "I just felt really good (Saturday night). I just get really pumped up for this."

Kane made sure the upset bug did not touch her, as she topped second-place Gidzinski by 16 seconds to win the 500 freestyle. She had won the 200 freestyle by almost 10 seconds the night before.

"Taylor never has competition," said Cochrane of her fellow sophomore.

Kerins, Archbishop Wood ready for new experience

By KAREN SANGILLO

WARMINSTER — This has been a season of change for the Archbishop Wood swim team.

The Vikings joined the PIAA along with the rest of the Philadelphia Catholic League, so this is their first appearance at the District 12 championships.

The meet is slated for Feb. 20-21 at Widener University's Schwartz Center. Preliminaries begin at noon and finals at 7:15 p.m. both days.

"It's going to be different this year, that's for sure," Wood junior Bridget Kerins said. "We're used to PCLs being the last meet of the year, and now we're going to be competing against the Public League."

"We're really excited for the meet and I think we're going to do very well there."

Event winners advance automatically to the PIAA championships, March 11-14 at Bucknell University. Others may receive at-large bids based on comparative times throughout the state.

Kerins is seeded second in the 50-yard freestyle and third in the 100 butterfly.

"You never know how it's going to go, but if I swim well, I still may have an opportunity to go to states even if I don't win my events," she said.

She is also on the 200 and 400 freestyle relays.

In addition to the District 12 Class AAA and Class AA team championships, the PCL team championships will also be determined by finishes at districts.

In the past, the PCL had its own championship meet. Wood is the defending PCL girls champ.

"This is going to be a tough meet," Wood coach Charlie Stillwell said. "It's definitely going down to the wire for the PCL and the district."

District 12 swimmers go for crowns

This year, Catholic League teams are diving into the pool with the public schools.

Six team titles will be on the line at the District 12 swimming championships today and tomorrow at Widener University in Chester.

In addition to determining district crowns for girls and boys in PIAA Class AAA and AA, the two-day meet will also determine the girls' and boys' champions in the Catholic League.

This marks the first year the Catholic League schools will join Public League schools at the district level for the chance to advance to the state championships. The state meet is next month at Bucknell University.

"The kids are pretty excited about the chance to make the season longer," said Archbishop Wood coach Charles Stillwell. His girls' team is expected to be among those in the hunt for the AA title.

"This is the first year for us, and we're anxious to see what it's like," Stillwell said.

Among his top swimmers are Taylor Kane and Grace Cochrane. Kane is the top seed in the 200- and 500-yard freestyle events, and Cochrane is the top seed in the 200 individual medley and the third seed in the 100 free. Together with Bridget Kerins and Emily Smith, they form a formidable 400 freestyle relay team.

Archbishop Ryan's Sara Kuhn and Sarah Hammer are top seeded in two events each. Kuhn has the best time in the 100 free and 100 backstroke. Hammer's times in the 50 free and 100 butterfly are tops. Ryan is a Class AAA team.

La Salle, looking for its 21st straight Catholic League boys' title, is a strong favorite to win its first District 12 AAA crown. The Explorers are the top seed in eight swimming events.

Like Stillwell, La Salle coach Frank Lichtner said his swimmers were looking forward to the opportunity to compete in districts.

"I think all the Catholic League schools are grateful for the opportunity to potentially extend the season for another three weeks," said Lichtner, whose Explorers are looking to get stiff competition from St. Joseph's Prep in Class AAA.

"St. Joe's has some terrific swimmers in [freestyler] Matt Belecanech and [butterflyer] Greg Mahon."

The Explorers will be counting heavily on long-distance freestyler Ted Walker, sprint freestyler Andrew Sideras, and breastroker Blas Szyszko.

Preliminaries will start at noon each day, with finals at 7:15 each night.

Klinger pool closed

The pool at Eugene Klinger Middle School is temporarily closed because the heater broke. Klinger is the home pool of Archbishop Wood, and the Vikings have had to reschedule all of their home meets in January.

The double dual meet with Lansdale Catholic and the boys meet with Roman Catholic have not been rescheduled yet, but the girls meet with Ryan has been moved from Friday, Jan. 16, to Thursday, Jan. 15, at Ryan at 3:15 p.m.

They are practicing at Log College Middle School but can't host meets there because the pool does not have starting blocks or lane lines.

They hope to be back at Klinger by February.

Swimming notebook

By Karen Sangillo

The PIAA Class AA swimming and diving championships concluded last Thursday at Bucknell University's Kinney Natatorium with no locals winning medals.

However, area athletes did have some good performances.

Sophomore Joe Esposito of Holy Ghost Prep finished 11th in diving with a score of 395.70 points.

"I wish I could have done a little better," he said. "I usually do my back one and a half a lot better so, if I had one I could do over, I would pick that one."

He was 14th at this meet last season.

"I was here last year, and I think that experience was helpful," he said. "This is a hard meet. The competition is really good and everyone dove their best. It was really close at the end. Overall, this was a positive season for me. My scores went up from last year and that's important, to keep improving."

Esposito was 12th after the preliminaries and semifinals before moving up a slot in the finals.

In his first-ever state meet, Archbishop Wood's Greg Oprende made the consolation finals in two events. After getting to the consolation finals on the first day of competition in the 200-yard individual medley, (10th place, 1:58.55) Oprende made it back again on Thursday in the 100 breaststroke, where he finished 13th (1:01.13).

He just missed getting into the final, posting a 1:00.31 in the prelims and getting nosed by Andrew Bean of Fairview, who touched in 1:00.30.

Both of his times are school records.

Holland resident Kate Mays, swimming for Nazareth Academy, was on the 12th place 400 freestyle relay (3:43.28). She was also on the 200 medley relay which took 15th (1:54.59).

Record breakers

Some area team records were set at the PIAA championships.

Melanie Busch of William Tennent bettered her own records in the 200-yard individual medley with her time of 2:04.87 and in the 100 backstroke with a time of 55.68.

She set the previous IM mark of 2:07.10 at states last year and the old backstroke mark of 57.30 at the District One meet this year.

Busch finished fourth in both the IM and the backstroke at the state meet.

Taylor Kane of Archbishop Wood set a record in the 200 freestyle of 1:55.31, besting Mary Skonicki's time of 1:56.10 set in 2000. She also has the mark in the 500 with her time of 5:01.79, breaking the old mark of 5:02.18 by Carol Crouthamel in 1999.

Kane was 17th in the 200 freestyle and ninth in the 500 at states.

For Council Rock North, Madison Meyer's preliminary time of 5:03.58 in the 500 freestyle, passing Kate Dillione's 5:06.39.

The Indians' 400 freestyle relay of Maggie Dillione, Bizzy Millen, Kate Dillione and Meyer also set a school mark of 3:36.07 in the preliminaries, lowering their own mark of 3:36.97 set at the District One meet.

The All-America consideration time for the 400 free relay is 3:36.76.

Augustine brothers bring home lone Day 2 medals

By KAREN SANGILLO

LEWISBURG — Pat and Al Augustine of Lansdale Catholic were the recipients of the only area medals at Thursday's conclusion of the PIAA Class AA swim championships, held at Bucknell University.

Swimming

Pat, a junior, took fourth in the 100-yard breaststroke in 58.22.

"I was hoping to get top three and do a 57 but I was seeded seventh coming into the meet so any time you move up, it's good," he said. "I thought I could have done better. I went out in a 26 which was good; I needed to come back faster. My legs were getting tired so I need to strengthen them but my arms felt good."

"Each time I come to this meet I keep dropping places so that does give me confidence for next year. There's been a real progression for me of dropping time and places."

Al Augustine was seeded eighth in the 100 freestyle after the preliminaries but a strong swim in the final resulted in a fifth-place finish in the (47.71, a school record).

"That's my best time," said the Florida State-bound senior. "I was going really strong and in the last lap I was getting ready to put my head down and drive and I got a big gulp of water and that made me take a few breaths so that slowed me down."

The Augustines teamed up with Andrew Urban and Stas Gawel to take 13th in the 400 freestyle relay (3:19.44).

For the Lansdale Catholic girls, Bridgette Augustine finished 11th in the 100 breaststroke (1:08.14) and Jessica Gidzinski finished 25th in the 500 freestyle (5:23.79). The LC girls 400 freestyle relay of Gidzinski, Allie Husk, Katie Murphy and Augustine was 21st (3:53.70).

Upper Moreland's Stephen Rowland made it to the consolation final of the 500 freestyle, finishing 11th (4:50.19).

Teammate Pat McPeak was 17th in diving (258.05 points), just one spot shy of making it to the finals.

For the Upper Moreland girls, Sam Conard finished 21st in the 500 freestyle (5:20.16).

In his first-ever state meet, Archbishop Wood's Greg Opredek made the consolation finals in two events. After getting to the consols on Wednesday in the 200 individual medley, Opredek made it back again in the 100 breaststroke, where he finished 13th (1:01.13).

He just missed getting into the final, posting a 1:00.31 in the prelims and getting nosed by Andrew Bean of Fairview, who touched in 1:00.30.

Michael Kramer of Christopher Dock finished 28th in the 100 freestyle (49.55).

UM's Szopo rebounds for fourth

By BILL KEEN

STAFF WRITER

LEWISBURG — For Lansdale Catholic's Al Augustine, Upper Moreland's Stephen Rowland, and LC's boys 200-yard freestyle relay team, it was business as usual.

None were surprised they were in the championship heats at Wednesday's opening session of the PIAA Class AA swimming and diving state championships at Bucknell University.

However, Upper Moreland freshman diver Natalie Szopo easily provided the most inspirational performance by an area athlete. After missing badly on her ninth dive, the first one of the final round, she scored a total of 87.60 on her final two dives to finish with 368.90 points and a fourth-place finish.

"I just over-rotated too much," Szopo said of the reverse somersault pike that netted her only 18.70 points. "I was really nervous before that one. ... (UM diving coach Bob Isreal) told me to let that one go and make sure I stuck the next one, but he also said he couldn't be prouder no matter how it turned out."

Displaying nerves of steel, Szopo did stick her 10th dive for 41.40 points, and absolutely nailed her 11th and final, a forward double somersault tuck, for which five of the seven judges gave her scores of 7.0, with the other two at 6.5.

"That's one of my best dives," she said. "I'm proud of how it turned out."

So was Israel, the veteran swimming coach who came out of retirement last year to coach the divers.

"On her last two dives she was phenomenal," Israel said. "She's a freshman; she's truly a competitor who does not allow the (pressure) to affect her performance."

One other area girl swam

Wednesday night, as Lansdale Catholic's Jessica Gidzinski finished 12th in the 200 individual medley.

Meanwhile, Augustine, LC's sprint freestyler extraordinaire, fell short of his goal of winning the gold in the 50 free; he won bronze in the event as a sophomore at Faith Christian Academy and silver last year for the Crusaders.

However, he never was able to hit his stride Wednesday and finished a disappointing fourth in 21.23 seconds.

"I had a good start and a good first lap," Augustine said. "I think I lost it at the end. I definitely stuttered on my finish, and that's what cost me the race."

Rowland swam in the first lane in the finals of the 200 freestyle and finished eighth with a time of 1:45.03. He said he was still feeling the effects of the flu, which sidelined him for four days prior to the District One championships.

"Actually, I still have a cough and I still have a lot of (other side effects)," the Golden Bears' senior said. "I can't be too disappointed. I didn't do as well as I would have liked, but I medaled, so that's not a bad thing."

The Crusaders' 200 free relay entered finals with the fourth fastest time in the preliminaries, but finished sixth in the final in a season-best 1:28.52.

Other area swimmers in the consolation finals included Archbishop Wood's Greg Oprendeck, who swam a fantastic breaststroke leg in the 200 individual medley and finished second in 1:58.55, his all-time best by two seconds and the seventh fastest overall time of the final 16 swimmers. Oprendeck was 10th. Finishing 16th in that event was Upper Moreland's Stew Conard.

In the 100 butterfly, Christopher Dock's Michael Kramer swam a personal-best 53.17 and finished in 15th place.

PIAA field set as locals earn berths

Swimming notebook

By Karen Sangillo

The wait is over for area swimmers who were standing by to see if they received at-large bids to the PIAA championships based on a statewide time comparison.

For the boys, Alex Naglich of Pennsbury will swim the 500-yard freestyle. Council Rock North's Dave Brown is in the 100 breaststroke and James Sturner is in the 200 individual medley.

"I'm pretty excited," said Naglich, a freshman going to his first state meet. "My goal this year was just to make it to states, so I'm not too nervous, but I was definitely nervous waiting to find out if I got in."

"The list came out on Sunday, and it was a big relief when I saw my name on it. Our district was really fast this year, so I'm assuming the state will be just as fast or even faster. I don't have any big expectations this year; if I swim well, I'll be happy."

CR North also has five girls going to the meet.

Kate Dillione will swim the 200 and 500 freestyle, Madison Meyer is in the 500 freestyle and Tori Hall is in the 100 backstroke.

In addition, Dillione and Meyer are joined by Maggie Dillione and Bizzy Millen in the 400 freestyle relay.

"I'm so excited," said Hall, a junior. "I was really nervous I wasn't going to make it. Our district got so fast."

"Last year, I went a 1:00 and took fifth, and this year, I broke a minute and got eighth. I knew the girl who finished eighth in our district last year didn't go to states, so I knew it wasn't a sure thing at all."

Hall swam the backstroke at states last year.

"It's an advantage to have been to states before," she said. "I have more confidence and I know what to expect and how the meet runs."

"I was talking with some of the girls on the team, and we all think that since our district is one of the fastest, it does give us a little relief knowing that we already competed against a lot of the girls we'll see at states."

In Class AA, Greg Oprendeck of Archbishop Wood got the nod in the 100 breaststroke. He had already qualified automatically in the 200 individual medley.

Swimming for Nazareth Academy, Holland resident Kate Mays will participate as a member of the 200 medley relay and 400 freestyle relay.

DiLeonardo is back

Former Neshaminy standout Chrissy DiLeonardo is in her second year as the head coach of the Springfield (Montco) girls team.

DiLeonardo, a 1992 graduate of Neshaminy, guided the Spartans to a fifth-place finish in the District One Class AA team championship.

"We had a very good season, and I'm proud of the girls," she said. "We swim in a conference (Suburban One League American) with a lot of teams that are Class AAA, and we did very well."

All-Friends League

Three juniors, Andrew Seabrook, Sydney Burns and Jessie Mooberry, were all named to the Friends League first team for George School.

Keenan Halpin, a freshman, received honorable mention for the Cougars.

Souderton makes splash at states

Severn sets 500 freestyle mark, Whitmire smashes 100 backstroke time

LEWISBURG — It was a triple gold night for the Souderton girls swim team at Saturday's PIAA Class AAA swimming and diving championships.

Both Paige Whitmire and Angela Severn scored wins at the meet, held at Bucknell University's Kinney Natatorium. Severn won the 500-yard freestyle in 4 minutes, 48.13 seconds, lowering the PIAA record set last year by Parkland's Jaime Malandra, this year's runner-up (4:50.97). "I came in seeded first which was unexpected because I thought Malandra would be seeded higher," said Severn, who is headed for Ohio State University. "I was in the last heat in the morning so that was an advantage because I could see what everyone else did. "I ended up seeded first in the final so I was next to Malandra, which helped. I have the utmost respect for her and I never thought I would beat her. I'm really excited." Whitmire won the 100 backstroke in 54.45, besting the previous record of 55.08 set in 2006 by Tricia Weaner of Gettysburg. "I wanted to win it so bad," said Whitmire, who won the 200 individual medley Friday. "I just put my heart and soul into it. Adrenaline kept me going."

Missy Doll, Whitmire, Chloe Thomas and Severn teamed up to win the 400 freestyle relay in a PIAA record time of 3:25.30, lowering the mark of 3:26.65 set in the preliminaries by Emmaus. Ashley Kichline swam in the prelims for Whitmire. "I definitely needed that rest and Ashley did so much for us to get us into the final and give us the chance to win," Whitmire said.

Doll also brought home an individual medal for the Indians, taking seventh in the 100 freestyle (51.60, the team record).

"Having Paige and Angela on the team pushes me to work that much harder," Doll said. "I'm definitely proud to get a medal in an individual event and I beat Angela's team record so that's a nice accomplishment."

Marisel Kush took 10th in the 500 freestyle (5:02.44), Kichline was 15th in the 100 backstroke (58.94) and Lauren Peachey finished 29th in the 100 breaststroke (1:09.25) for the Indians. Souderton also finished second in team scoring with 212.50 points to three-time champion Emmaus (237).

"We wanted to come in and make top three because we finished fifth last year," Thomas said. "Getting second is just amazing."

Melanie Busch of William Tennent finished fourth in the 100 backstroke (55.68).

"I'm so happy with that time," she said. "It's nice to drop by that much."

Archbishop Wood's Taylor Kane won the consolation heat of the 500 freestyle, taking ninth (5:01.79). She was also on the 400 freestyle relay with Grace Cochran, Bridget Kerins and Emily Smith which took 21st (3:48.44).

Also for the Vikings, Cochran finished 32nd in the 100 freestyle (56.82). Nicole Dignonventura of North Penn took 21st in the 500 freestyle (5:09.85). Harboro-Horsham's Jessica Healy made it to the consolation final of the 100 backstroke, taking 14th (58.44). Teammate Alyssa Guminski took 27th in the 100 breaststroke (1:08.55).

Klinger pool open

The pool at Eugene Klinger Middle School, temporarily closed last month because the heater broke, is up and running again.

Klinger is the home pool of Archbishop Wood, and the Vikings did have to do some rescheduling. Wood's PCL double dual meet with Lansdale Catholic has been rescheduled for Friday at 6 p.m. at Klinger.

The Vikings used Log College Middle School in the interim. Karen Sangillo can be reached at karensangillo@verizon.net.

SPLASHES FROM STATES

HISTORIC SWIM

At 11:15 Wednesday morning Greg Oprendek became the answer to the trivia question, "Who was the first Archbishop Wood swimmer ever to represent the school in the PIAA state swimming championships?"

The junior claimed that honor when he touched the wall in 2 minutes, 0.48 seconds, knocking over three full seconds off his personal best in the Class AA 200-yard individual medley.

While he was seventh in the fourth and final heat, his time was 12th-fastest overall and earned him a spot in the consolation finals along with Stew Conrad of Upper Moreland, whose 2:00.49 was the 13th-best and slightly off his own personal best.

Oprendek was able to be the first Viking to swim at states because Wood's girls are Class AAA and won't compete until Friday. The fact that he was the first from his school to have a shot at state honors was not lost on him.

"It's really amazing," he said with a huge smile. "I feel great that I'm the first person from Wood to compete at states. It's so special to be here with the fastest kids in the state, to be able to prove yourself (against them) and showing what I can do."

There was a bit of, "who's that?" at this past weekend's PIAA Class AAA Boys' Swimming Championship at Bucknell University. The question was mostly being directed at the La Salle and St. Joseph's Prep swimmers because it was both schools' first PIAA championship meet since the Philadelphia Catholic School joined the PIAA this school year.

The Explorers wasted little time in introducing themselves to the rest of the state that had perhaps not heard of them or of La Salle's storied swimming program.

La Salle finished third overall with 205 points. North Allegheny went home with the top prize with 243 total points while Emmaus took second with 208 points.

"We swam completely up to our potential," said Explorers' coach Frank Lichtner. "We really couldn't have done any better than we did."

For the past 18 years La Salle competed at Eastern Interscholastic Swimming and Diving Championship against top private school programs instead of competing at the state meet.

"Going to all those Easterns all those years really made the transition pretty good for us," said Lichtner.

"Part of the meet is getting to know the group you're going to see every year," added Lichtner. "That's what was a lot of fun at Easterns, we got to know the athletes, the coaches, the teams. You look forward to it every year. Great competition. It's the same way up at Bucknell, it just a matter of getting to know the athletes, the coaches, respecting them and getting their respect in return. There is nothing nicer than maybe some coach coming up to you saying not only is your team a bunch of good swimmers, but they act very nice. There was a lot of that up at Bucknell."

The top 16 finishers at the state meet in the individual and relay events score points for their team. The top eight earn medals.

La Salle's Ted Walker (100 freestyle) and Blase Szyszko (100 breaststroke), both seniors, led the Explorers by each earning a silver medal. Walker also earned a sixth place medal in the 200 freestyle race.

Andrew Sideras finished a little over a second behind Walker in the 100 freestyle race to take the bronze medal home. He also finished 10th in the 500 freestyle.

Andrew Speese went home with a fifth place medal in the 100 breaststroke. He also took 11th in the 100 butterfly.

Rhoads Worster earned big points for La Salle with a seventh place medal in the 200 individual medley and a 15th place finish in the 100 backstroke.

La Salle's 200 medley relay of Worster, Szyszko, Phil Letcavage and James Mahoney started the first day of the meet by taking fourth. The Explorers' 200 freestyle relay of Sideras, Mahoney, Brendan McGoldrick and Walker earned a bronze medal as did La Salle's 400 freestyle relay of Sideras, Kyle Finlay, Worster and Walker.

Letcavage also finished 15th in the 100 butterfly. Michael McGee took 12th in the 200 individual medley.

Busch continues to turn head at states

William Tennent's Melanie Busch came home from Bucknell University with plenty of hardware, which included two fourth place medals in the 100 backstroke and 200 individual medley. Tennent's neighbor, Archbishop Wood, was well represented by Taylor Kane who took ninth in the 500 freestyle race. Kane's school mate Greg Oprendeck took 10th in the 200 individual medley and 13th in the 100 breaststroke.

Szopo shines for Upper Moreland

Upper Moreland diver Natalie Szopo collected 368.90 total points at last week's PIAA Class AA Girls' Diving Championship, good enough for the freshman to finish fourth overall. Szopo won't have to worry about seniors Brittany Disanti or Mariel Adams next year who finished second and third respectively, but she will have to worry about junior Catherine Rose who won it all with a whopping 436.55 total points.

Fellow Upper Morelander Pat McPeak finished 17th overall at the boys' diving championship. McPeak's teammate Stephen Rowland took eighth in the 200 freestyle and 11th in the 500 freestyle.

Kouch takes silver

Mount St. Joseph Academy junior Danielle Kouch cruised to a time of 1:05.53 to win silver at last week's PIAA Class AA Girls' Swimming Championship. Breanna Folk, a senior at Schuylkill Valley, finished first with a time of 1:03.04. Kouch also took 14th in the 200 individual medley.

The Magic finished 26th overall with 21 points, Oakland Catholic won it all with 181 points.

Lafferty wins silver, bronze

Upper Dublin's Megan Lafferty won a silver medal in the 100 backstroke. Souderton's Paige Whitmire edged Lafferty's state-record time of 54.74 with a time of 54.45.

Lafferty also won a bronze medal in the 100 butterfly.

"I think I can do better. Third place is still top eight, I can't complain about it," said Lafferty of her 100 butterfly performance. "It's the state championship and everyone is so fast."

"Nothing but pride," said Upper Dublin coach Brian Palme. "She deserves everything she gets. I know she's a little disappointed in her time. She has to realize she got third place in one of the fastest states in the country. It's very impressive that she was able to do it. She's very competitive. She wanted to see some more drops, but again it is what it is. It was a great swim, a great accomplishment."

Lafferty also anchored Upper Dublin's fifth place 200 freestyle relay which included Carolyn Meier, Erin Regan and Lindsey Schmidt.

"We were really happy," said Lafferty. "We were seeded sixth, we were happy with that, fifth is even better. We were just talking in the locker room about what girls beat us—Emmaus, Souderton, Wilson and Hershey, the top teams in the state."

The Cardinals' 400 freestyle relay of Meier, Regan, Kelly Ashmead and Lafferty took ninth place.

Upper Dublin finished ninth overall with 79 points. Emmaus won the meet with 237 points.

UD boys struggle at states

The Upper Dublin boys' team had a rough outing at the PIAA Class AAA meet and finished 25th overall with 21 points. North Allegheny won the championship trophy with 243 points.

Calvin Starosta's 10th place finish in the 100 backstroke was the Cardinals' best performance of the two day championship.

Upper Dublin's 200 medley relay of Dan Fitzgerald, Chris Willcox, Dave Derr and Starosta was disqualified. The Cardinals' 200 freestyle relay of Fitzgerald, Brit Gergen, Sam Fearnside and Starosta took 12th. The 400 freestyle relay of Derr, Gergen, Fitzgerald and Starosta finished 15th.

Bossert makes it back to night swim

Wissahickon senior Adam Bossert earned a spot in the 100 breaststroke consolation final with a solid preliminary heat swim, he finished 11th overall with a time of 59.05. Five of the top 16 breaststrokers came from District One.

Spartan pride

Springfield's Hugh Pedley went home with a pair of 14th place finishes in the 50 freestyle and 100 freestyle events. Jake Oeschger touched the wall right after Pedley in the 50 freestyle to take 15th place. Springfield's 200 freestyle relay of Oeschger, Ryan McWilliam, John Hacking and Pedley took ninth place. The foursome of Hacking, Sal Giordano, Oeschger and Pedley finished 14th in the 400 freestyle relay.

Cohen makes top 10

Abington senior diver Alex Cohen finished 10th overall with 414.35 points at last Saturday's PIAA Class AAA Boys' Diving Championship.

Hatboro-Horsham divers Chelsea Adalam and Kelsey Tenet, both seniors, finished 11th and 12th respectively at the Class AAA girls' diving championship.

"I think they looked to do a little bit overall, but at the same time it's the state championship," said Hatters' coach Ellen Zschunke.

At one point in the meet, Adalam did the wrong dive which brought her overall score down.

"Obviously, it was really disappointing," said Zschunke. "She really came back from that and held her ground for the rest of the meet, which was huge considering what had happened. She did all the rest of her dives really, really clean, really, really well. She was positive throughout the rest of the meet."

Opredek a lone pioneer

By: KAREN SANGILLO Bucks County Courier Times

The Archbishop Wood junior is the first Viking boy, and the only one this season, to make the state meet.

WARMINSTER - It's good to be Greg Opredek.

The junior at Archbishop Wood is the lone male qualifier for his team at the PIAA championships. Five girls have qualified for the state meet for the Vikings.

"It's going to be fun," he said. "I think it'll be a little weird the first day because it will just be me and my coach (Charlie Stillwell), but on the second day the girls will be there. I do know some people, like Pat Augustine (of Lansdale Catholic), so I'll have someone to hang out with."

Wood boys are in Class AA, so he will be swimming the 200 individual medley on Wednesday and the 100 breaststroke Thursday, while the girls team is Class AAA and will compete Friday and Saturday.

Opredek qualified automatically in the 200 individual medley as the District 12 champion, but had to wait to see if he got into the 100 breaststroke as a time qualifier.

"I'm really excited," he said. "Going into the season I didn't really think I was going to make it to states, but I saw that I was ranked first in our district in the IM so then I thought I had a shot."

"It's kind of funny that I got the automatic in the IM because I really think I'm more of a breaststroker. I'm really glad I got out in the breaststroke because I want to get my time down to a 59, and I'll have another chance."

He is hoping to blaze a trail for future Wood boys swimmers.

"I really want to do well because if guys see that I can do it, maybe that will inspire them, and we can expand the program," he said. "Our team was really small last year (six boys), and it was really tough. This year we have a lot more guys on the team, and we're trying to build on that."

Charlie Stillwell has high hopes for Opredek.

"I think Greg still has a good swim left in him this year," he said. "I think he can definitely make the top 16. He's such a hard worker, and that really paid off for him. The best part is that he's only a junior, so he'll be back next year."

Opredek doesn't want to wait for next year.

"I really want to make some noise this year," he said. "I don't want to just go to the meet, swim once and that's it. I want to come back for the night swims."

LC's Gidzinski pulls upset in District 12 200 IM

By: STUART LONDON The Intelligencer

Sophomore leads large area contingent into states

CHESTER - Jessica Gidzinski of Lansdale Catholic knew she was suppose to look straight ahead at the finish line as she completed the 200-yard individual medley - but you could not blame her for sneaking a peak at the lane to her left.

"I did look out of the corner of my eye," said Gidzinski, a sophomore. "I was pretty shocked."

According to past performances, she was supposed to be seeing Archbishop Wood's Grace Cochrane's feet - but, instead, Gidzinski saw Cochrane behind her trying to catch up.

She did not, as Gidzinski pulled off an upset and won the 200 IM at the PIAA District 12 swimming championships held on Friday night at Widener University.

District 12 is composed of the Philadelphia Catholic and Philadelphia Public League (although in this particular sport, the Public League is not a major factor). Half the events were conducted on Friday with the rest being held tonight.

The top finisher in each race from the respective Class AAA and Class AA school qualifies for the PIAA state championship meet two weeks from now at Bucknell University. The races were conducted with the classes combined due to the small number of Class AA schools.

Because she was the highest finisher from a Class AAA school, Cochrane punched her ticket to states in the event.

Gidzinski has been to Bucknell plenty of times before - but as a spectator. Her sister, Ashley Gidzinski (now competing for Towson University) was a standout in the 500 freestyle.

"I've been injured most of the year, so I was just hoping to be able to make it to states," Gidzinski said. "I went to a physical therapist and he helped me out a lot. Now, I have to build up strength for states."

Gidzinski suffered from tendinitis in her rotator cuff and biceps. During the regular season, Cochrane had beaten her handily when Wood faced LC. In Friday morning's preliminary, Cochrane had been a full three seconds faster than her.

It looked like things would go as expected at the start as, halfway through the race, Cochrane held a two-second lead. But Gidzinski took the lead on the breaststroke leg and held Cochrane off in the freestyle.

"I knew she had a really good freestyle," said Gidzinski. "(LC coach Bob Birnbrauer) said to go all out at the end."

Cochrane did not allow the disappointment of the 200 IM effect her the rest of the night.

The Vikings won the final race of the night, the 200 freestyle relay, with Cochrane as anchor holding off a strong effort from Archbishop Carroll to win the race and qualify for states.

Cochrane and sophomore Taylor Kane (who won the 200 freestyle) are guaranteed two races at states. Alex Fitzgerald and Emily Smith (who finished second to Kane) were the other two legs of the winning relay.

"I'm happy because it really helps the team," said Kane after winning the 200 freestyle. "I wasn't worrying about where I finished. I just wanted to do my best time, and I did."

Wood hopes to leave Widener on Saturday having won the district as well as the PCL team title. They were in first place at the end of Friday's events with 276 points to 254 for second-place Cardinal O'Hara.

On the boys side, Lansdale Catholic led the team standings among Class AA schools with 169 points. Archbishop Carroll was second with 116.

It was a good day for the LC's Augustine family overall.

Brothers Pat and Al Augustine both qualified for states in two events, while their sister, Bridgette Augustine, was the highest finisher in Class AA in the 50 freestyle, so she will be swimming at Bucknell as well.

Oprendek enjoys breakout year with the Vikings

COACH OF THE YEAR

Wilson led Pennsbury to the top

By KAREN SANGILLO
STAFF WRITER

The 2008-09 season was a big one for the Pennsbury boys swim team.

Led by coach John Wilson, the Falcons won the SOL National Conference title, their first league crown since winning the now-defunct SOL Patriot Division title in 1988.

Pennsbury was 6-0 in dual meet league competition and 10-3 overall.

For this standout season, Wilson is the Courier Times Coach of the Year for boys swimming. It is the fourth consecutive year he has been so honored; he was also the Coach of the Year for girls swimming in 2003.

This season was a breakout year for Greg Oprendek.

The Archbishop Wood junior swimmer went to his first PIAA Class AA championships last season. He was the only area male to qualify for the competition in two individual events.

He made the consolation heat twice, finishing 10th in the 200-yard individual medley in 1:58.55 and 13th in the 100

breaststroke (1:01.13).

His 200 IM time as well as his state preliminary time in the 100 breaststroke of 1:00.31 are team records.

En route to the state meet, he was the District 12 Class AA champion in the 200 IM and took second in the 100 breaststroke. In the PCL championships he placed fourth in the 100 breaststroke and fifth in the 200 IM.

This was the first year for Class AA in District 12 so he is the first district champion in the IM.

For his standout season, Oprendek is the Courier Times Boys Swimmer of the Year.

He joins former Vikings standout Brian Daly as the only recipients of the honor from Wood. Daly, now the head coach of the boys team at North Penn, was a co-winner in 1988 with Pennsbury's Karl Slatoff.

"Looking back on it, it was a good season," Oprendek said. "I thought I could have done a little better in the breaststroke but that was a little bit of nerves.

"I know what I did wrong and I won't make the same mistake twice. The great thing about being a junior is that I have another year to swim, so that's another opportunity to hopefully make it back to states and do better.

"If I can have the kind of improvement next year that I did this year that would be great."

Oprendek has high hopes for the team as well.

"It's a lot different from when we only had six guys on the team," he said. "We're trying to create a team identity for the boys. Everyone knows about our girls team — but even at school some people didn't know we had a boys team, too.

"We won a meet this year, which doesn't sound like much but it really is a stepping stone for us. Our goal is to have a serious team that has a chance to win meets and I think we're on our way. I can't wait for next year to see how our team does and to see what I can do."

Wood coach Charlie Stillwell is proud of Oprendek's performance.

"He worked really hard all year and swam really well when it counted," Stillwell said. "He's very competitive and when he got to the big meets he raised his level to the level of the competition; he just geared up and got it done."

MELANIE BUSCH

WILLIAM TENNENT

Busch swims
way into record books at WT

By KAREN SANGILLO
STAFF WRITER

Melanie Busch enjoyed a stellar swim season. Busch, a junior at William Tennent, capped off the 2008-09 campaign with a pair of fourth-place finishes at the PIAA Class AAA swim championships.

She took fourth in the 200-yard individual medley in 2:04.87 and in the 100 backstroke (55.68).

Both times are school records, breaking her previous marks. She also holds the Tennent records in the 100 and 200 freestyles, 100 breaststroke and 100 butterfly.

On the way to states, she was the SOL National Conference champion in both the 200 individual medley and 100 backstroke.

She also tied for second with Paige Whitmire of Souderton in the 100 backstroke at the District One Class AAA championships and also place third in the 200 individual medley.

For these accomplishments, she is the Courier Times Girls Swimmer of the Year.

She is the first recipient of the award from Tennent in more than 30 years. Tennent's last honoree was Coleen Sapp, who won it back-to-back years in 1977 and 1978. Renie Mullen got the nod for the Panthers in 1974.

Sapp and Mullen were both state champions in the 50 freestyle so Busch is in elite company.

"I'm really happy I was able to drop a decent amount of time and with how everything turned out this year," Busch said. "It's all about times for me. I've always felt that if you swim good times, then the placements will follow and that it's important to just focus on yourself and your own goals and not worry about what everyone else is doing."

The Panthers moved from the SOL Continental Conference into the National this year.

"We saw some different teams this year so I swam different competition but we weren't worried about what teams we swam," Busch said. "We just wanted the season to be fun and competitive and it was."

"It seems as though high school is flying by; this season went by so fast."

"I'm already looking forward to next season and seeing what I can do. I don't ever have specific goals for myself other than to do my best and drop times and of course I'd like to place well at states, but most of all I just want to keep having fun. As long as I enjoy swimming I think everything else will fall into place for me."

Tennent coach Lisa Forlini is proud of her swimmer's accomplishments.

"Melanie is an incredible competitor who thrives on competition," she said. "Whether it is in practice or in a meet, she strives to achieve her best every time. This contributed to her success this season."

"Her attitude toward training has been a plus for the team, to; others have followed her example and picked up the pace."

COACH OF THE YEAR

Stillwell makes splash with Vikings

By KAREN SANGILLO
STAFF WRITER

This was a season of change for the Archbishop Wood girls swim team. Led by coach Charlie Stillwell, the Vikings took it in stride.

In their first season of PIAA competition, Wood won the District 12 Class AAA title and sent a large contingent of girls to the PIAA championships.

In addition, they won the PCL title for the second year in a row and third time ever and finished the dual meet season 8-1.

For these achievements, Stillwell is the Courier Times Coach of the Year for girls swimming. It is the fourth year in a row he has been honored. He was previously the Coach of the Year in 1998.

ZAC NEES NORTH PENN

Nees made all the right moves

By Bill Keen
Staff Writer

When North Penn senior Zac Nees was in middle school — long before he became one of the finest divers the area has ever produced — he dreamed a young man’s dreams of competing in a high school varsity sport, perhaps getting to be good enough to have a PIAA state medal draped around his neck.

The sport was wrestling. “I was a summer diver and wrestled in seventh and eighth grade,” said Nees, whose choice of the board over the mats hinged on one simple fact. “Going into ninth grade I realized I had more fun diving in the summer than I did while I was wrestling.”

Nees bid farewell to cradles and half nelsons, electing instead to devote his time perfecting the dives that, four years later, earned him 533.05 points and a silver medal at the PIAA Class AAA state championships.

For his outstanding final season and stellar four-year career, Zac Nees is The Intelligencer’s boys’ swimming and diving Athlete of the Year.

North Penn diving coach Sue McDonald remembered Nees’s freshman season, when he qualified for the PIAA District One Class AAA championship and surprised himself by reaching the final round.

“He was this little kid with a chip on his shoulder because he was a wrestler, but I had seen him diving in the summer,” McDonald said. “After the way he performed that first year, I told him he had a real future and I hoped he would keep at it. He did and the next year he made states.”

The chip was gone as a sophomore when he finished 13th at Bucknell. He realized his youthful dream of winning a state medal when he took the bronze as a junior, and dominated every dual meet as a senior.

“Watching Zac is fun,” North Penn head coach Brian Daly said. “He gets great height off the board and he makes it look effortless, and when he got to the post-season, that’s when he was at his best.”

At his final District One championship meet won the gold and prepared for his last shot at states, and he almost won there as well. He was in first place with only North Allegheny’s Connor Kuremsky to do his final dive; Kuremsky ripped it, and the Knights’ standout settled for second-place silver.

“I never had any gymnastics training,” said Nees as he reflected on his career. “I was a swimmer since I was 6 until my best friend’s older sister became the diving coach for the summer team at Hatfield and she talked me into trying to be a diver.”

In early April, Nees entered the USA Diving Spring Junior East Championships in Nashville, Tenn., and won the 1-meter gold medal in the 16-18 year old bracket with 456.30 points.

That brought a call from Dr. Jeff Huber, for 20 years the head diving coach at Indiana University, a seven-time National diving Coach of the Year. Huber offered Nees a scholarship, and, on April 29, he accepted.

In so doing, the one-time little wrestler with a chip on his shoulder, proved that in diving you don’t have to be tall to be very, very good.
