Archbishop Wood

- Head Coach: Charlie Stillwell (13th year)
- Last Year's Record: 8-1 overall, 7-0 PCL (PCL and District 12 AAA champions)
- Key Losses: Alyse Davis, breaststroke/IM; Megan Basgil, distance freestyle; MariKate Cook, distance freestyle/backstroke
- Key Returnees: Taylor Kane, junior, distance freestyle/breaststroke; Grace Cochrane, junior, butterfly/IM; Emily Smith, senior, freestyle/breaststroke; Bridget Kerins, senior, sprint freestyle/butterfly; Alexandra Fitzgerald, sophomore, sprint freestyle/backstroke; Orla Cole, sophomore, backstroke/freestyle; Colleen Gannon, senior, backstroke/sprint freestyle; Bridget McGrath, sophomore, breaststroke/sprint freestyle; Kristina Halner, sophomore, distance freestyle
- Others to Watch: Jennifer McFrath, freshman, butterfly/backstroke; Rebecca Martino, freshman, breaststroke/backstroke; Alexandra Martino, freshman, butterfly/backstroke
- Strengths: Large, experienced team with depth and great character. Coming off two consecutive years of winning the PCL championship, Wood knows how to win.

- Question Marks: The loss of three key seniors will hurt Wood's experience in the freestyle events.
- Outlook: "Our team will be competitive in all our meets with another great chance to compete for the PCL and District 12 titles," Stillwell said. "There will be a lot of new faces that need to step up to fill in some holes left from graduation. The team has been working hard and has gotten the taste of winning over the last few years. They always seem to be ready for challenges when the time comes."

ARCHBISHOP WOOD

- Coach: Charlie Stillwell (13th year)
- Last year: 8-1 (7-0 PCL)
- Super Seven: Jr. Grace Cochrane (butterfly, individual medley); So. Orla Cole (backstroke, freestyle); So. Alexandra Fitzgerald (backstroke, sprint freestyle); Jr. Taylor Kane (distance freestyle, breaststroke); Sr. Bridget Kerins (butterfly, sprint freestyle); So. Bridget McGrath (breaststroke, sprint freestyle); Sr. Emily Smith (freestyle).
- The season: Graduation took away a big part of the team's depth but with the top swimmers still in place and a nice group of incoming swimmers, Wood will once again be in the hunt for the PCL and District 12 Class AAA championships. Coming off two very good seasons, the team knows how to win and Stillwell is looking for the younger swimmers from last year to step in to roles once filled by the swimmers who graduated.

5 Swimmers to watch

(in alphabetical order)

Melanie Busch, William Tennent: Busch, a junior, finished fourth in both the 200 individual medley and 100 backstroke at the PIAA championships last year. The Courier Times Swimmer of the Year last season also took second in the backstroke and third in the IM at the District One Class AAA meet and was the SOL National Conference champion in both.

Emily Howard, Pennsbury: A senior, she won the SOL National Conference and District One Class AAA titles before taking eighth at the PIAA championships last year, her first state medal. She is a three-time state qualifier.

Taylor Kane, Archbishop Wood: Kane, a junior, was the consolation heat winner in the 500 freestyle at the PIAA Class AAA championships last season, where she also qualified in the 200 freestyle. She was the PCL and District 12 Class AAA champion in both events last year.

Madison Meyer, Council Rock North: Meyer made the consolation heat of 500 freestyle at last year's PIAA championships as a freshman. She finished second in both the 200 and 500 freestyle at the SOL National Conference championships.

Catherine Reeves, Pennsbury: Reeves, a senior, was the SOL National Conference titlist in the 100 freestyle last year and placed third in the 200 freestyle. She was all-District One honorable mention in both events.

5 Teams to watch

(in order of predicted strength)

Council Rock North: The Indians were undefeated last year and won the SOL National title. Most of the top swimmers are returning so the Indians should be the team to beat in the league again this year.

Pennsbury: The Falcons suffered some losses to graduation but still have a solid group of returning swimmers to build on. They had a great season last year and have the potential to repeat that success.

William Tennent: Tennent should be in the thick of the SOL National Conference race this year. The Panthers have a good foundation to build upon as they strive to better last year's record.

Archbishop Wood: The Vikings won back-to-back PCL titles over the last two seasons and won the District 12 Class AAA title last year. They have lost some depth to graduation but have a good core returning and should have enough to make another run at both titles.

Council Rock South: The Golden Hawks have a sizeable team this year and that depth will come into play. CR South definitely has the opportunity to move up in the SOL National Conference standings this year.

5 Swimmers to watch

(in order of predicted strength)

Matt Chrzanowski, Pennsbury: A senior, Chrzanowski, won the 50 and 100 freestyles at last year's SOL National Conference championships, the only boy to win two individual events. He is close to breaking some longtime Pennsbury freestyle records.

Joe Esposito, Holy Ghost Prep: A junior, he won the District One Class AA title two years in a row. He is a two-time state qualifier, finishing 11th at last year's PIAA championships.

Connor Forlini, William Tennent: Forlini, a sophomore, is poised to have a breakout season. He was Tennent's highest finisher in a swimming event at last year's District One Class AAA meet and is looking to improve on last year's finish.

Greg Oprendeck, Archbishop Wood: The 2009 Courier Times Swimmer of the Year, Oprendeck made it to the consolation heat in both the 200 individual medley and 100 breaststroke at last year's PIAA championships. He had a breakout year last year and realized his full potential at the state meet. This year as a senior he should see continued improvement.

T.J. Schenkel, CR South: Schenkel came on in the stretch to tie Abington's Alex Cohen for the SOL National Conference title last year. A junior this year, he finished 13th at the 2008-2009 PIAA Class AAA championships. The versatile Schenkel also swims freestyle for the Golden Hawks.

5 Meets to watch

Council Rock South at Pennsbury, Jan. 27, 3:30 p.m.
There should be some interesting individual races in this SOL National Conference contest.

Archbishop Wood at Archbishop Ryan, Jan. 27, 3:15 p.m.
Wood has won this meet for the past two seasons en route to back-to-back Philadelphia Catholic League titles, ending a five-year PCL title streak for the Ragdolls.

Neshaminy at William Tennent, Jan. 27, 3:30 p.m.
This annual meeting between the SOL National rivals typically produces some of the better swims of the year for both teams.

Pennsbury at Council Rock North, Jan. 29, 3:30 p.m.
CR North has won the last two meetings of this SOL National Conference rivalry.

CR North at CRSouth, Feb. 9, 3:30 p.m.
The Golden Hawks have yet to defeat their district rivals, with CR North leading the series, 7-0. This is the SOL National Conference season finale for both schools.

5 Swimmers to watch

(in alphabetical order)

Pat Augustine, Lansdale Catholic: After watching older brother Albert finish in the top three at the PIAA Class AA state meet three years in a row, this 6-foot-5 senior is determined to do the same. He came close last season when he finished fourth in the 100-yard butterfly, his specialty, and will be a major threat to win the gold in his final shot.

Michael Kramer, Christopher Dock: His high school doesn't have a swimming pool or a swim team? No problem for this one man team. After succeeding in his one-shot at qualifying for the District One AA meet, he won the title in the 100 fly and finished 15th in the state. He also was fifth in the district in the 100 free and should be this year's favorite as the top four graduated.

Jimmy McEldrew, Germantown Academy: He was good as a freshman, better as a sophomore. Now as a junior, he's ready to take his place in a long list of truly great Patriot swimmers. At last season's Eastern meet, he finished ninth in the individual medley and 10th in the backstroke, but most of the finishers ahead of him were seniors. The path to finals appears to clear in both events.

Ozzie Moyer, Souderton: When last season started, very few people outside of his home territory knew anything about the freshman diver. Then he started winning and soon it was obvious he was more than a flash-in-the-pan — he was just starting what should be a brilliant career. He's only a sophomore, and only the unexpected should prevent him from improving his seventh place finish at states in class AAA.

Greg Oprendeck, Archbishop Wood: He's the answer to a trivia question: "Who was the first Archbishop Wood athlete ever to compete in the PIAA state championships?" He qualified for the consolation finals in both the individual medley and the breaststroke and finished 10th and 13th, respectively. He's been working hard and is determined to make the finals this season in both.

5 Meets to watch

Germantown Academy at Episcopal Academy
Thurs. Dec. 10, 3:45 p.m.
One day before the start of the PIAA winter season, the Patriots face their toughest challenge in years as their top five swimmers will be at junior nationals. The rest of the squad will have to come up big, because GA has never lost a girls' dual meet in the Inter-Ac League.

North Penn at Souderton
Wed. Jan. 13, 3:30 p.m.
Last season the Indians won this meet with little trouble, but this season the teams appear to be very evenly matched. The SOL Continental title and momentum at the District meet will be on the line, so don't miss this one.

Lansdale Catholic at Archbishop Wood
Fri. Jan. 15, 6 p.m.
The fact that this one is a night meet is a good indication of how big it should be. Both teams have excellent, quality depth and appear to match up extremely well. Don't be surprised if this one is decided by a couple of points.

Harbor-Horsham at Upper Dublin
Fri. Jan. 22, 3:30 p.m.
Many of the girls on these two teams are neighbors where Hosham and Upper Dublin Townships lines meet, and some are teammates on the same community swim club teams. That plus the SOL Continental/American rivalry makes this a natural.

CBEast at CB West (at Central Bucks South)
Wed. Jan. 27, 6 p.m.
It's the original rivalry in the Central Bucks school district. The fact this, too, is at night, should mean a very big crowd will be on hand, so anybody planning to go to this battle of arch-rivals would be advised to get there early.

ARCHBISHOP WOOD

Coach: Charlie Stillwell (13th year)

Last year: 1-8 (1-8 PCL)

Super Seven: Sr. Greg Oprende (individual medley); Jr. Andrew Gnias (sprint freestyle); Soph. Chris Conway (backstroke/freestyle); Jr. Kevin McGuckin (butterfly/sprint freestyle); Sr. Andre DelValle (distance freestyle); Jr. Gary Bone (sprint freestyle); Jr. Ian Mee (freestyle/individual medley)

The season: Numbers will not be a problem for the Vikings as there were no losses to graduation and there are incoming freshmen to help fill lineups spots. Greg Oprende, the first swimmer from Wood to compete in the PIAA state championships, returns to provide incentive for his younger teammates, who will be out to push for at least a .500 record heading into the PIAA District 12 meet.

Archbishop Wood

Coach: Charlie Stillwell (13th year)

Last year: 1-8 (1-8 PCL)

Super Seven: Jr. Gary Bone (sprint freestyle); So. Christopher Conway (backstroke, freestyle); Sr. Andrew DelValle (distance freestyle); Jr. Andrew Gnias (breaststroke, sprint freestyle); Jr. Kevin McGuckin (butterfly, sprint freestyle); Jr. Ian Mee (freestyle, individual medley); Sr. Greg Oprende (breaststroke, individual medley)

The season: With no loss to graduation and a group of incoming swimmers, the team is the largest it's been in years. This group is inexperienced but very motivated and things can only look better than they have in previous years. Look for the Vikings to compete in a lot more meets this year with a chance to greatly improve their record.

Archbishop Wood

Head Coach: Charlie Stillwell (13th year)

Last Year's Record: 1-8 overall, 1-8 PCL

Key Losses: None.

Others to Watch: Chris Atras, freshman, distance freestyle

Strengths: This will be Wood's largest team in years, without any losses to graduation.

Question Marks: Youth and experience.

Outlook: "Our season would be a success with a few more wins this year," Stillwell said. "Even though our team is larger, we are still very inexperienced, and in some cases, still learning the basics. Hopefully, the emphasis on strength training will pay off during the year."

ARCHBISHOP WOOD

Coach: Charlie Stillwell (13th year)

Last year: 8-1 (8-0 Philadelphia Catholic League champions)

Super Seven: Jr. Taylor Kane (distance freestyle/breaststroke); Sr. Emily Smith (sprint freestyle/middle freestyle); So. Orla Cole (backstroke/freestyle); Sr. Bridget Kerins (butterfly/sprint freestyle); Jr. Grace Cochrane (butterfly/individual medley); So. Alexandra Fitzgerald (backstroke/sprint freestyle); So. Bridget McGrath (breaststroke/sprint freestyle)

The season: If there's one thing that can be said about the Vikings it's that they will again contend for the PCL championship despite losing a lot through graduation. The returning letter winners are extremely talented as are the incoming freshmen, which should make for a strong squad in the postseason. Wood will be a good one.

Wood's Oprendek, Kane set marks at Stroudsburg meet

Swimming notebook

By Karen Sangillo

Greg Oprendek of Archbishop Wood won both the 200-yard individual medley and 100 breaststroke at the annual Stroudsburg Winter Classic, hosted by Stroudsburg High School.

Oprendek won the IM in 2:03.88 and the breaststroke in a meet-record time of 1:00.49.

He was the only winner of two individual events for the Vikings.

"The pool was so crowded, so I didn't have much of a chance to warm up," he said. "I didn't feel as though I was going to swim well, but I figured I'd just go out and race and see what happened.

"I was really tired after the IM, but I tried to stay loose on the deck because there's such a long time between the IM and the breaststroke.

"This meet is a pretty good gauge of where I'm at for me, and I'm happy with my times. I just want to keep lowering them as best I can."

For the Wood girls, Taylor Kane won the 200 freestyle in 1:58.12, breaking her own meet mark of 2:00.12 set in 2008. She was also second in the 500 freestyle (5:10.93).

Emily Smith won the 100 freestyle (59.67).

Smith, Alex Fitzgerald, Bridget McGrath and Kristina Halner teamed up to win the 200 freestyle relay (1:50.43) and Smith, Orla Cole, Bridget Kerins and Kane won the 400 freestyle relay (3:59.35).

Cole took second in the 100 backstroke (1:06.96). Cole, McGrath, Kerins and Fitzgerald placed third in the 200 medley relay (2:01.58).

The girls finished second in overall team scoring to PCL rival Archbishop Ryan. Ryan had 286 points to the 246 amassed by the Vikings.

The boys finished sixth with 98 points. Father Judge won the boys team title (386 points).

Wood boys went on to defeat Cardinal O'Hara, 97-58, in a PCL meet on Wednesday to improve to 1-1 PCL and overall.

Wood boys improving

Last year the Archbishop Wood boys team went 1-8, with its only win a 93-74 triumph over Cardinal O'Hara.

This year, the team already notched two wins — 97-58 over O'Hara and 91-75 over Lansdale Catholic.

"They're swimming well," Wood coach Charlie Stillwell said. "Our numbers are up this year and that's been a big help. We're a lot better this year.

"The guys are excited; we think we can win more."

The Vikings are 2-3 overall in the PCL and have meets remaining with Archbishop Ryan, Archbishop Carroll, Roman Catholic and La Salle before heading into the league and District 12 championships.

Wood girls surprise coach, top Ryan

The Vikings' relay strength propelled them to a key PCL win.

PHILADELPHIA — Things didn't turn out the way Archbishop Wood swim coach Charlie Stillwell thought they would.

And he couldn't be happier.

On Wednesday, Stillwell watched his girls team defeat host Archbishop Ryan, 96-74, in a Philadelphia Catholic League meet at Alberta Morris Pool.

"I scored out how I thought the meet was going to go, and I had it as a tie," Stillwell said. "The girls really rose to the occasion."

The Vikings started off strong with a 1-3 finish in the first event, the 200-yard medley relay.

"I think that really set the tone for the meet," Wood's Colleen Gannon said. "We jumped right out in front and I don't think they expected that. I'm not sure that we expected that either, but it just goes to show that our hard work paid off."

Wood held onto the lead throughout the meet. Ryan moved to within four points after the 50 freestyle, but that was as close as the Ragdolls came.

"We knew it was going to be a close meet, but we were really pumped for it," said Wood's Bridget Kerins, who won the 50 freestyle and was on the winning 200 medley and 200 freestyle relays. I knew we had it in us."

Earlier in the month, Ryan won the Stroudsburg Winter Classic Invitational and Wood finished second.

"We saw them there and we knew they were very good," said Emily Smith, who won the 100 freestyle and was on the winning 200 and 400 freestyle relays. "But I have so much faith in our team; I thought we had it in us to pull it out. Everyone swam so well; I'm so proud of our team."

The two teams have won the last seven PCL titles between them, with Wood winning the last two and Ryan the five prior to that.

"This is definitely the big rivalry," Kerins said.

Last season was the first time the PCL participated in PIAA competition. The Vikings won the District 12 Class AAA team championship.

"I think this meet gave us a lot more confidence going into districts," said Caitlin Harney, who turned 18 the day before the meet. "Now we know we can do what we need to do in order to win."

"Going into the meet, we weren't sure if we could beat them, so this is a big confidence boost."

Wood won all three relays and every individual event except the 200 individual medley, 100 backstroke and 100 breaststroke.

Cochrane makes amazing comeback

The Archbishop Wood senior overcame a shoulder injury to be able to swim in this weekend's PCL and District 12 championship.

By KAREN SANGILLO
STAFF WRITER

WARMINSTER — It has been a frustrating season for Grace Cochrane.

But the Archbishop Wood swimmer didn't let her setbacks get her down.

Cochrane, a junior, missed the early part of the season when she began experiencing shoulder pain in early November.

"My shoulder muscles had gotten weak from overuse and poor posture and it caught up to me," Cochrane said. "I had to wear a brace to push my shoulders back and I did physical therapy, but I had to stay out of the water for awhile."

Her first meet of the year came Jan. 6 against Cardinal O'Hara.

The injury forced her to miss all of the preseason.

She also did not compete in the first two dual meets of the year, against Archbishop Prendergast and Gwynedd-Mercy Academy, and missed the Central Bucks East Relays and the Stroudsburg Winter Classic.

"It was tough to sit out," she said.

"And coming back was slow. There were days when it was so hard I wanted to quit, but my teammates and coach (Charlie Stillwell) kept me going."

The PCL and District 12 championships will be held Friday and Saturday at La Salle University.

The PCL meet will be first, beginning at 8:30 a.m. The District 12 championships will begin at 6 p.m. The schedule is the same for both days. The winners of each event automatically qualify for the PIAA championships, March 17-20 at Bucknell University.

Wood is the defending District 12 Class AAA girls team champion.

Grace Cochrane

"That was an amazing experience," Cochrane said. "We feel good about our chances of doing it again but we know it's going to be really difficult so we'll see how it goes."

Last year Cochrane was the PCL and District 12 Class AAA champion in the 100 freestyle and the runner-up in the 200 individual medley. In addition, she was on the 200 and 400 freestyle relays, both of which won the PCL and district titles.

The 200 freestyle relay time of 1 minute and 44.19 seconds and the 400 freestyle relay time of 3:48.08 are both records for District 12.

Cochrane went on to the PIAA championships in all four events.

"You have to adjust your goals," she said. "Before this my goal would have been to try to finish as high as possible at states. Now my goal is to just get there again. If I don't do that I'll still be happy with the season because I was able to swim for most of the season and do my best."

Stillwell is pleased to have Cochrane in his lineup.

"There's no doubt that she's going to be valuable for us, especially in the relays," he said. "It's amazing that she's gotten this far. This could have been a lost year for her but he didn't give up."

Wood girls want to keep right on going

The Vikings won the PCL and District 12 last season.

By KAREN SANGILLO
STAFF WRITER

The girls on the Archbishop Wood swim team are hoping to pick up where they left off last year.

Last season the Vikings won the Philadelphia Catholic League for the second consecutive year, going 7-0 in league competition and 8-1 overall.

They went on to win the PIAA District 12 Class AAA championship. Last year was the first season the PCL was included in the district meet so Wood was the first-ever PCL team to win the girls title.

"No one expected us to win," senior captain Emily Smith said. "I think that really got everyone psyched up."

"It was a big year for us; we won the league and the district and we sent a pretty big group to states. We had never been to districts or states before so we didn't know what to expect but we were happy with how it all turned out."

The Vikings begin the PCL season with a meet Monday against Archbishop Prendergast.

"We'll see where we are on Monday," senior captain Bridget Kerins said. "We don't feel any pressure to do what we did last year but I think we're pretty good; I'm confident that we can have the same kind of season this year that we did last year."

"Even if we don't win as many meets or win the district or league again if everyone has their best times and swims well then I think we'll be successful."

One meet that the team has circled on its calendar is the meet at PCL rival Archbishop Ryan on January 27. The Ragdolls had won the PCL title five years in a row before Wood broke the string in 2009.

"It's no secret, that's a big meet," Kerins said. "But we're taking it one day at a time."

Junior Grace Cochrane made it to states in two individual events and swam on two relays last year but is currently nursing sore shoulders.

"Right now my focus is on getting healthy so I can get back in the water because I definitely want to get back to states," she said.

"That was such a great experience for us last year. It was so exciting to be there that we called it our 'white moment' and we all just didn't know what to do. If we get back there again we'll know what to expect."

Coach Charlie Stillwell is excited to start the dual meet season.

"We have a lot of experience coming back," he said. "We lost some depth to graduation but we have some good freshmen coming in and it looks like they're going to pick up the slack."

"It looks like we're in about the same place that we were last year and that's a good place."

"The reason they won last year was carryover from the year before; they know how to win now. Some of the girls have been there for a couple of years and with that experience they're all cranked up again so we can't wait to get started."

Gnias brings energy

Swimming notebook

By Bill Keen

There comes a point every season when swimming coaches suddenly remember what it was like when they were kids and were handed a present for their birthday. The memories are usually triggered when they see an athlete who has improved from the previous season, continually dropping times or excelling in a new event.

Archbishop Wood coach Charlie Stillwell is like a kid with a new toy, thanks in part to junior Andrew Gnias. The veteran coach can cite different individuals who have him feeling good about his boys and girls programs, but Gnias is special for a number of reasons.

For one, this is only the third year he has been swimming competitively.

"He never swam a race before his freshman year, but he decided to try out because his sisters, Elizabeth and Rachel, were in the program," Stillwell said. "Already this season, he has done his personal best in breaststroke (1 minute, 15.06 seconds) and the butterfly (1:06.29), and it shouldn't be long before he gets the qualifying time in both for the District 12 championships."

There is another reason Gnias has helped make the boys' team better, and for that one, he could pose on a poster like Uncle Sam saying, "I want you."

"He's probably the reason our boys' team is as large as it is numbers wise," the coach said. "Last year, he started recruiting others to join the team and kept it up this year. We went from 12 to 21 on this year's roster."

SWIMMING: DISTRICT 12 CHAMPIONSHIPS

Kane leads Wood in strong showing

By JOE JONES
STAFF WRITER

PHILADELPHIA —

Taylor Kane seemed to be swimming with a strong current pushing her.

But there was nothing pushing Kane through the Kirk Natatorium pool at La Salle University on Saturday night but her arms and legs. It just looked like Kane had an unfair advantage over the rest of her competition in the District 12 girls Class AAA 500-yard freestyle.

The Archbishop Wood junior won by two laps and nearly 35 seconds.

Kane, still recovering from a bad cold, won in 5 minutes, 3.80 seconds. Archbishop Carroll's Jennifer Barkofski won the Class AA title in 5:45.87.

When one is that dominant and that far ahead of the competition, how does she stay focused?

"I try to go after my best time," a hoarse Kane said. "I play a little game with myself and see how many times I can lap the rest of the field."

Kane swam the opening leg on Wood's victorious Class AAA girls 400-yard freestyle relay on Saturday night as well. Orla Cole, Emily Smith and Grace Cochrane were also on the relay.

Saturday's events finished up the District 12 competition. About half of the events were held Friday night at the Kirk Natatorium.

Kane also won the girls Class AAA 200-yard freestyle on Friday night, as well as swimming the opening leg of the victorious 200-yard freestyle relay with Alexandra Fitzgerald, Smith and Cochrane.

Wood senior Greg Oprende won the boys Class AA 100-yard breaststroke. His time, 58.77, was just a shade slower than La Salle's David Speese, who won the Class AAA championship.

"I'm happy, especially since I didn't taper," Oprende said. "I just kind of rested. I'm really happy with my times and am excited to see what I can do at states, especially in the breaststroke."

The state championship meet is nearly a month away. Oprende will taper for that meet.

"I'll be ready to go," he said.

Oprende also won the Class AA 200-yard individual medley Friday night.

The Wood girls suffered a narrow loss, 425-422, to Archbishop Ryan for the Class AAA championship.

Ryan also beat our Wood for the Philadelphia Catholic League girls title earlier in the day at the Kirk pool.

Lansdale Catholic won the three-team Class AA boys championship over Wood and Archbishop Carroll.

Chasing a medal

Archbishop Wood senior Greg Oprende is the second seed in the Class AA breaststroke a year after finishing ninth at his first PIAA championship meet.

By KAREN SANGILLO
STAFF WRITER

Greg Oprende believes that this year is his year.

The senior at Archbishop Wood is seeded second in the 100-yard breaststroke in the PIAA Class AA swim championships, which begin Friday at Bucknell University.

He will also compete in the 200 individual medley.

Last year, he finished 10th in the 200 individual medley (1:58.55) and ninth in the 100 breaststroke (1:00.31).

"Last year was such a great experience for me," he said. "I learned so much about myself as a swimmer and how to swim at big meets."

"I think this time around, I'm so much more prepared; I've been to the pool before, I've been through it all. Last year, I was still kind of in awe of the whole thing but now I've gotten that out of my system."

"I know everything I did wrong last year and I'm not going to make the same mistakes again."

The top seed in the breaststroke is last year's state second-place finisher, Zach Stephens of Bloomsburg. Stephens held the state record for a few hours last year with his preliminary time of 57.38.

That was lowered to a 57.03 in the championship final by Jon Szalelyhidi of Riverside, who graduated.

Stephens is seeded with a time of 57.04; Oprende's time is 58.77.

"I'm not worried," Oprende said. "My goal was to get in position to get a medal, and I can definitely do that."

"I'd love to win, but, if it doesn't turn out that way and I have my best time and a medal, I'll be very happy with that."

Wood coach Charlie Stillwell is confident in Oprende's ability.

"I think he'll be right in there," Stillwell said. "I don't put anything past Greg; if he swims the way he can swim, I think he definitely has a shot at winning."

"Last year, he had to swim the IM twice on Wednesday and then come back and swim the breaststroke twice on Thursday so, by Thursday night, he was tired."

"This year, he knows how to swim at big meets. Last year was good for him because I think he realized how good he can be. Now is the time for him to realize his potential, and I have no doubt that he will."

This year, Oprende will not be the lone Wood boys swimmer on the deck. The 200 medley relay has also qualified, so he will have teammates Chris Conway, Kevin McGurkin and Andre DelValle in his corner.

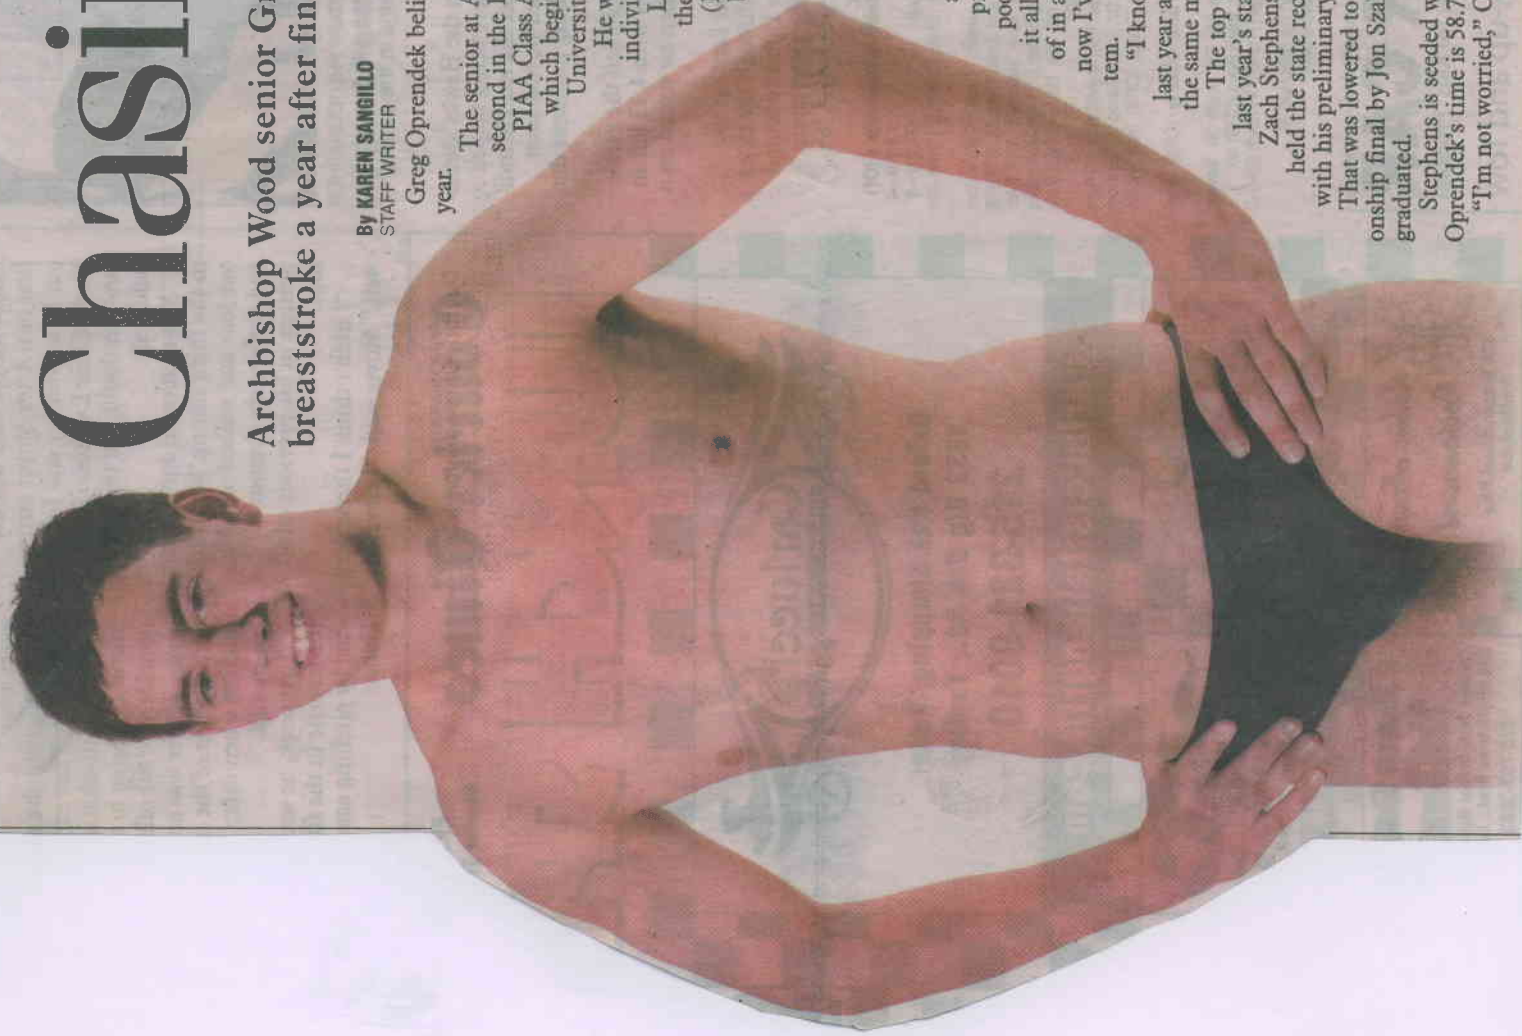

"That's huge for me, because last year I was by myself," Oprende said. "I think I had too much time to think because I was alone so much."

"This year, those guys will hang out with me." He is especially pleased to have fellow co-captain DelValle making the trip.

"He's my best friend on the team and he's a great motivator," Oprende said. "Last year was really disappointing for our relay. We swam twice (preliminaries and finals) and we were in first place after the morning swim, but we didn't win it at night so we didn't get to go."

"We wanted to make up for that; we really wanted to get a relay out this year. It's the first boys relay we ever got out to states, so I'm excited and proud to be a part of that."

Area competitors ready for state test

Swimming notebook

By Bill Keen

A small army of swimmers from area high schools are getting ready for a trip to the picturesque Central Pennsylvania community of Lewisburg.

Bucknell University is the "200 acres set aside," as locals used to refer to the institute of higher education. Today through Saturday, the best-of-the-best in the state will compete for a relatively small chunk of some kind of metal alloy at the PIAA State Swimming Championships.

Some of the local competitors expected to be there, like Missy Doll and Chloe Thomas of Souderton both already own two gold medals from last season, when they joined the now departed Paige Whitmire and Angela Severn to win the Class AAA girls 200 and 400 freestyle relays.

Now, they're looking for individual honors in the 50-yard freestyle where Doll is tied for the second seed and Thomas eighth. Doll is also the seventh seed in the 100 free and both will swim again on the Indians' 200 and 400 free relays, seeded third and eighth, respectively.

Others stunned everybody and earned a spot in the field despite having to overcome amazingly long odds.

Nobody's odds were longer than Hatboro-Horsham junior Mike Shaeffer; seeded 30th in the AAA 100 freestyle and swimming in the sixth of 10 heats, he swam the race of his life to finish third, earning one of District One's four automatic spots in the state meet for that event.

Thursday, he won't have nearly as many bodies to hurdle — he's seeded 13th and his time from districts, 47.14, is only 0.2 seconds away from eighth, which would earn him a spot in the championship finals.

The Indians and a Viking

Based strictly on seeding times, Souderton's Doll, the Indians' 200

free relay and Archbishop Wood senior Greg Oprende stand the best chance of coming home with a gold medal.

In the AAA 50, Doll and North Allegheny's Allie Pennetti had identical times of 24.06 while her 23.86 made Katelyn Miller of Hershey the top seed. However, it says here there that Doll is golden.

Last year when Whitmire finished first in 22.85, Doll was seventh in 23.66. Miller was 10th in 23.98 while Pennetti's 24.55 left her in 17th place.

If head coach Todd Bauer goes with the same lineup that won the District One title, Doll, Alyssa Santangelo, Ann Fadden and Thomas would be the 200 free relay. Their time is 1:37.77 seconds; second seed North Allegheny (1:36.46) and top seeded is Wilson (1:35.38).

In districts, Doll swam leadoff and Thomas the anchor — if it was my decision to make I'd flip them for states, especially if Doll wins the 50. I would want her in a position to chase down the field, or, hopefully, to hold it off.

The best chance for gold among the boys belongs to Oprende, who last season was the first Archbishop Wood swimmer ever to compete in the PIAA state championships.

This season in the AA 100 breaststroke, he could be the first Archbishop Wood swimmer ever to win a state championship.

Bloomersburg's Zach Stephens is top seed; his time of 57.04 looks to be significantly faster than second seeded Oprende's 58.77, but it's only slightly better than the 57.18 Stephens swam when he won silver last season.

Oprende is light years better than a year ago when he finished 13th and his personal best was the 1:00.31 he swam in the preliminaries. If he can stay with Stephens for the first 50, the final two laps could be worth the price of admission.

Keep in mind these championships are not set in stone. The local crew includes numerous individuals capable of a "Mike Shaeffer-esque" effort that could earn them a top three finish if not a state title.

I have a feeling that's exactly what's going to happen.

False alarm

Tennent's Busch recovered from a false start in her preliminary heat to take home third-place medal in 100 backstroke.

LEWISBURG - It was Melanie Busch's lucky day. And she is the first to admit it. Busch false started in the preliminaries of the 100-yard backstroke on Thursday at the PIAA Class AAA championships at Bucknell University's Kinney Natatorium.

Dual confirmation on a false start is required and the officials could not agree on which swimmer false started, so the entire heat was allowed to compete.

She made the most of her second chance, getting the top seed after the preliminaries with a time of 55.77 seconds.

She finished third in the finals, clocking in at 55.88.

"I feel fortunate to have been able to swim," said Busch, a junior. "I thought they were going to disqualify me but no one told me to leave so I figured I was all right to swim."

"I was definitely happy with my morning time, especially after that. I was a little disappointed to not win the backstroke after being seeded first going into the finals but I was just happy I didn't false start.

"I have no idea what I was thinking; I wasn't nervous or anything. After it happened I was just relieved that I wasn't disqualified."

"At night I was really careful not to move early. This was a lesson learned."

Taylor Kane won the first state swimming medal for Archbishop Wood, taking fifth in the 500 freestyle (4:57.49).

"I went under five minutes which is an accomplishment," said Kane, a junior. "It was a really hard race; all those girls are really good swimmers. I'm so happy I was able to place that high."

"I'm really excited and so happy. My goal was to win a medal and I did it."

Kane was last year's consolation heat winner in this event.

"Last year I didn't taper or rest at all but this year I did feel a little pressure because I tapered so you want to do something when you're on a taper," she said.

Wood girls drop down to Class AA next year. "We'll have to see how that goes," Kane said. "I'm sure there's good competition there, too."

Missy Doll of Souderton was fifth in the 100 freestyle (51.55).

"We had a lot of fun," said Doll, a senior. "It was a nice way for me to finish my high school career."

Chloe Thomas, Doll, Alyssa Santangelo and Mariel Kush finished eighth in the 400 freestyle relay (3:34.23).

Kush was 14th in the 500 freestyle (5:04.56). North Penn's Casey O'Neill, Brooke Else, Jan Ikeda and Sam Deana teamed up to take 14th in the 400 freestyle relay (3:36.50).

Ali Roth of Central Bucks West finished 16th in the 100 freestyle (53.43).

Archbishop Wood's 400 freestyle relay of Kane, Orla Cole, Emily Smith and Grace Cochrane finished 22nd (3:49.14).

Kathryn Viola of Central Bucks East took 29th in the 100 breaststroke (1:09.42).

Wilson won the team title with 231.50 points and Hershey was second. Souderton was sixth (107).

LC's Augustine settles for silver

The senior led until the finish of the 100-yard breaststroke, when Bloomsburg's Zach Stephens edged him for the gold.

By BILL KEEN
STAFF WRITER

LEWISBURG — For the first 99 yards, 24 inches of Saturday's 100 yard breaststroke championship heat at the PIAA Class AA boys state swimming and diving championships, Patrick Augustine was a state champion.

It's what happened in the final foot that made the difference between gold and silver for the Lansdale Catholic senior, who suffered a bitter defeat when Bloomsburg's Zach Stephens glided into the finish while Augustine elected to take one final short stroke.

He was only halfway through it when Stephens touched the wall in 57.01 seconds compared to a 57.16 for Augustine, whose silver was the best finish for area boys or girls in the two-day championships at Bucknell University's Kinney Natatorium.

"I thought my turns were actually my downfall," said the bitterly disappointed Augustine, whose second-place finish equaled the best his older brother, Albert, managed while swimming for the Crusaders two years ago. "But too many extra strokes, half strokes here, half strokes there, cost me about a whole second in my opinion."

He managed a halfhearted smile when asked about the decisive final 12 inches.

"Well, it was either glide too far or reload," he said. "It didn't work out for me."

It will be small consolation, but Augustine — who set a personal best Friday when he finished seventh in the 100 butterfly in 52.98 — actually set a state record in the breaststroke earlier Saturday, when he swam his preliminary heat in 56.86, erasing a 57.03 established just last year. The mark lasted only about three minutes until Stephens lowered it to 56.43 in his heat.

Also on Friday, Archbishop Wood's Greg Oprendeck had the fifth fastest time in the 200 individual medley, but it came when he won the consolation final in 1:55.64; that's why he finished ninth overall with a time that was faster than three others in the championship final.

Saturday, Oprendeck was on the other side of Stephens in the breaststroke final after turning in the third-best time of the prelims. He was part of a five-man charge to the wall after the first 50, but faded in the final 50 and finished sixth in 58.70, just off his 58.36 morning swim.

Still, he fulfilled his primary goal of becoming a medal winner at states.

"It feels good," said Oprendeck, who was one of the first Wood athletes ever to swim at states last season. "I wanted to finish a little higher, but it is what it is and I swam my best. I'm happy with my finish. I left it all in the pool, so I'm not disappointed because I'm happy to have a medal."

One other swimmer brought home a medal in the boys competition Friday, when Christopher Dock's one-man team, Archbishop Wood's Greg Oprendeck swims toward a sixth-place finish in the 100-yard breaststroke at the PIAA Class AA boys swimming championships Saturday night at Bucknell University.

Michael Kramer, finished fifth in the 50 free. He also swam Saturday in the opening 100 free, but managed only a 48.80 and a 24th-place finish.

The lone area girl to swim Saturday was Lansdale Catholic's Jess Gidzinski. She qualified for the consolation final in the 100 free and finished 15th in 54.25, just slightly faster than the 54.27 she swam in qualifying Saturday morning.

SWIMMING: PIAA CLASS AA CHAMPIONSHIP NOTES

Turns hold Gosek back a bit

By BILL KEEN
STAFF WRITER

For Holy Ghost Prep swimming coach Ed Roussel, Daniel Gosek's swim in the 100-yard backstroke final could have been considerably better were it not for a couple of glaring errors.

Glaring only to the coach and the athlete.

"He had two bad turns on this end of the pool, which affected his push back off the wall," said the coach, referring to the far end of the Kinney Natatorium pool, where the swimmers complete 25 and 75 yards. "That slowed him down, unfortunately. They (the far wall turns) were much crisper this morning."

Roussel was talking about to the morning preliminary heats, when Gosek finished the race in 52.82 seconds, good for the fifth seed going into the final.

As it turned out, his slower time in the final made no difference in his placing; he still finished fifth.

Going up

Another member of the Holy Ghost Prep program to compete at Bucknell was diver Joe Esposito. The 11th-place finisher last season as a sophomore, he was 11th after Saturday's first round, moved to ninth after the semis and settled for 10th.

While he felt he could have done much better than his final 365.15 points — his total for seeding purposes was 409.75 — he has come a long way since he first took up the sport.

"I actually started swimming and took swimming lessons, but the swim coach was also the dive coach," Esposito said. "She got me to go to the Council Rock Aquatic Club to swim, but after swimming, I saw the divers and I tried out for the (diving) team and I made it."

How old was he?

"I was in second grade," Esposito said. "I always loved it and I still do, although some days I'm not at my best."

Saturday was one of those days, but after three trips to states in three years, Esposito is planning on making it four in a row next winter.

Wow

The talk of the AA meet was Hershey's David Nolan. Friday, he won the 200 individual medley in 1:43.43 for a new state record. Saturday, he blistered the field and won the 100 free in 43.27 for another state record.

Did we forget to mention that both were also new national high school records?

Gosek wins two state medals

The junior placed fifth in the 100 backstroke, a day after winning a bronze in the 50 freestyle.

LEWISBURG — With a third-place medal in his pocket from a day earlier and determination in his eyes, Holy Ghost Prep's Daniel Gosek stepped onto the starting blocks Saturday for the 100-yard backstroke final at Bucknell University's Kinney Natatorium.

This time, however, he settled for a fifth-place finish, the same place where he stood after the morning's preliminary heat. His time in the finals, 53.46, was a bit off the 52.82 he had in the prelims, but he was happy nonetheless.

Bringing home a bronze in the 50 freestyle from the PIAA Class AA swimming and diving championships at Bucknell University will do that for you.

"This morning (Saturday), I felt great, so I thought I would do what I did in the morning (for the finals)," Gosek said. "I wanted to have a faster turnover so I could drop time, but it didn't seem to work out."

When the starter's signal sent the field on its way, Gosek remained under water for nearly 20 yards, and it was no accident.

"That was by design, but I didn't think it came out as well as the morning," he said. "But I kept my (fifth-place) spot. I didn't really have much left, but I wish I did have more, and maybe I could have finished up a little (higher)."

He also talked about Friday's effort, which made him the school's first state medalist in the 50 free since earlier in the decade.

"I wanted to drop time and I did," the junior said. "Since (the District One meet), I dropped over a quarter of a second, so that felt good. I wanted to win, I felt I could win, but this (third place) and (fifth) is not bad at all."

Also on Friday, Archbishop Wood's Greg Oprende had the fifth-fastest time in the 200 individual medley, but it came when he won the consolation final in 1:55.64, that's why he finished ninth overall with a time that was faster than three others in the championship final.

Saturday, Oprende was on the other side of Bloomsburg's Zach Stephens in the 100 breaststroke final after turning in the third best time of the prelims. He was part of a five-man charge to the wall after the first 50, but faded in the final 50 and finished sixth in 58.70, just off his 58.36 morning swim. Stephens won in 57.01, just nipping Lansdale Catholic's Patrick Augustine at the wall.

Still, the Vikings' senior fulfilled his primary goal of becoming a medal winner at states.

"It feels good," said Oprende, who was among the first Wood athletes ever to swim at states last season. "I wanted to finish a little higher, but it is what it is and I swam my best. I'm happy with my finish; I left it all in the pool, so I'm not disappointed because I'm happy to have a medal."

One other area athlete competed Saturday. Holy Ghost Prep's Joe Esposito finished just off the awards podium when he took 10th place in boys diving. He was 11th after the first round and ninth after the semifinals. Bill Keen can be reached at 215-345-3185 or bkeen@phillyburbs.com

Girls Swimmer of the Year

Melanie Busch

William Tennent

A change proved to be good for the junior, who won two state medals

By KAREN SANGILLO
STAFF WRITER

There are a lot of words one could use to describe the season Melanie Busch had.

We'll call it "eventful."

The junior on the William Tennent swim team was the PIAA Class AAA runner-up in the 50-yard freestyle and finished third in the 100 backstroke.

In addition, she was second in the 100 backstroke and fifth in the 50 freestyle at the District One meet.

She was the SOL National Conference champion in both events.

She was named the SOL National Conference Player of the Year for girls swimming and was all-state and all-district first team in both of her individual events.

For these achievements, she is the Courier Times Girls Swimmer of the Year for the second consecutive season. She joins Coleen Sapp (1977-78) as the only Tennent swimmer to earn the honor twice.

Busch made the difficult decision to switch events this year, dropping the 200 individual medley for the 50 freestyle.

"I knew it was risky, but I thought I could do well in the 50 and I made it to states and got second, so it worked out for me," she said. "I was a little nervous after districts because I didn't get in the top four, so I didn't get an automatic spot, but, by then, it was too late to do anything about it and I still had the backstroke, so I didn't think too much about it.

"I have no regrets about switching."

At states, disaster nearly struck. Busch false started in the preliminaries of the 100 backstroke.

But independent dual confirmation on a false start is required, and the officials could not agree on which swimmer committed the false start, so the entire field stood.

"That was embarrassing," she said. "I don't know what I was thinking.

"I feel very fortunate that I had the opportunity to compete, and that was certainly a lesson learned for me."

She does not think she will keep experimenting with different events.

"Overall, I'm pretty happy with the events I'm doing now and how my season went, so I don't think I'll be changing much," she said. "I'll stick with what I have."

She is still in the early stages of college selection, but several schools have shown interest.

"North Carolina contacted me, so right now I'm interested in that," she said. "I've heard really nice things about the program and it's a great campus.

"Also, I'd like to major in elementary education, and they have a pretty good education program so, academically, it's a good fit for me, but we'll see. I still have time to figure that out, so I'm not in a big rush."

Her goals for next year are pretty simple.

"All I want to do is swim as well as I can and drop my times," she said. "If I do that, then I'll be happy no matter where I finish, because I'll know that I've done my best and that's all I can ask of myself."

A return to high school swimming netted the junior two state medals

By KAREN SANGILLO
STAFF WRITER

BENSALEM — A break was just what Dan Gosek needed. After swimming for Holy Ghost Prep his freshman year, Gosek took his sophomore year off. He came back this past season, his junior year, and had a standout campaign. He was the District One Class AA champion in the 50-yard freestyle and the runner-up in the 100 backstroke. At the PIAA championships, he took third in the 50 freestyle and fifth in the 100 backstroke, becoming the first swimmer from Holy Ghost to medal twice in a single state meet. For these accomplishments, he is the Courier Times Boys Swimmer of the Year. He joins Mike Williams (2000) and Chris Millen (2004) as the only Holy Ghost Prep swimmers so honored. “My freshman year, I considered myself a casual swimmer,” Gosek said. “I really only started swimming as a way to stay in shape. “But my mom wanted me to take it more seriously, and so I joined a club (Eastern Express). Last year, I couldn’t work out my schedule to allow myself to swim high school and club, so I just swam club. “This year, I was able to make it work so that I could do both.” Now he hopes to swim in college. His current top picks are Georgetown, Princeton and Penn. He is unsure of a major, but would like to attend law school after graduation. “I accomplished everything I wanted to do this year,” he said. “I felt like there was pressure on me because I needed to look good for college, plus I had set a lot of personal goals. “I’ve been taking training a lot more seriously, and I’m more into a phase where I’m thinking about swimming a lot. I’ve been really happy with how I’ve been doing the last few months.” He enjoyed his first trip to the PIAA championships. “That was really a great experience,” Gosek said. “I’m very happy with how I did. Going to it for the first time as a junior is kind of late, so, at first, I wasn’t thinking about getting medals at all. “After prelims, when I knew I was in the finals for sure, that’s when I started to think about it and I honestly thought I had a shot at winning. “I’m really looking forward to next year and hopefully having another try at it.” Holy Ghost Prep co-coach Sheree Marsh was pleased to have Gosek back on the team. “I’m very happy for Dan and glad that the decision to return to high school swimming turned out to be so successful for him,” she said.

Girls Swimming

Senior sprinter helped Indians remain strong postseason team

By BILL KEEN
STAFF WRITER

They turn out some mighty fast swimmers at Souderton — individuals who dive in for two laps of a 25-yard pool and make it back to the wall long before the rest of us can watch a 30-second television commercial.

This season, Missy Doll was the fastest one of all. She specialized in the 50- and 100-yard freestyle, added her name to the list of Indians' girls who won an individual PIAA District One gold medal, tossed in two PIAA state medals for good measure and established the sterling credentials that made her The Intelligencer's 2009-2010 Girls Swimmer of the Year. "I had a ball," said Doll, who follows in the footsteps of the 2008-2008 Athlete of the Year, former teammate Paige Whitmire. "(Winning this like Paige) is nice; it's a good feeling and a really big accomplishment. There was maybe a little more pressure than I expected, but I look back now and it was a fun experience."

Like Whitmire last year, Doll won the District One class AAA 50 free championship in 24.06 seconds, and went on to finish fourth in the state with a 23.79 personal best.

Next year, when she is at Cal State-Northridge on a water polo scholarship, she expects the district 50 freestyle title to stay in Souderton's hands — from Whitmire to Doll to this season's bronze medalist, Chloe Thomas.

"Hopefully, Chloe will come up and win it," Doll said. "It's going to be 'The Trilogy,' part three." Doll and Thomas won a pair of PIAA relay gold medals last season on the 200 and 400 free relays. In this season's district meet, Doll anchored the 400 free relay to a bronze. More medals followed. She was fourth in the district 100 free and fifth in the state with a 51.55 career best, and swam the first leg of the Indians' district championship 200 free relay.

Every athlete at districts and states works hard, but Doll had luxuries many of them did not. "At practice, Chloe pushed me," Doll said. "In the (Suburban One League), a lot of teams have great sprinters, so you get up there and take it one race at a time. At districts, it was about making it to states, and before districts, it was about beating the girls and winning the meet." One thing this season was different. "It was a big change from being on Souderton last year and being a leader this year," she said. "I learned a lot from all the coaches, and (head coach) Todd (Bauer) is probably one of the best I'll ever have."

Boys Swimmer of the Year

Patrick Augustine

Lansdale Catholic

The senior joined his older brother this year as a state silver medalist

BY BILL KEEN
STAFF WRITER

Some swimmers are born to be breaststrokers.

Patrick Augustine is one of them.

It just took him about 14 years to figure it out.

"I was a freestyler before I was 14," said the Lansdale Catholic senior and The Intelligencer's 2009-2010 Boys Swimmer of the Year. "I did all of the strokes when I started in dual meets (for LC), but my breaststroke started being my best."

It could be said it was inevitable, for the breaststroke was in his genes.

"My dad and my uncle were both breaststrokers when they were kids," Augustine said. "So, in a way, it's a family thing and it came naturally to me."

His father, Albert, and his uncle, Bruce, were on the swimming team at Perkiomen Valley High School. Patrick became the greatest breastroker in Crusaders' history and, for about five minutes in March, he was also the best in the history of Pennsylvania Class AA swimming.

At this past season's PIAA state championship meet at Bucknell University in Lewisburg, he set a state record of 56.86 seconds in his preliminary heat, just shy of an amazing four full seconds off his 1:00.76 seeding time.

It lasted until the next heat, when Bloomsburg's Zach Stephens finished in 56.43 for the new standard, and set up a fantastic final that wasn't decided until the last 12 inches.

Stephens' time was 57.01, compared to 57.16 for Augustine, who led wire-to-almost wire.

Last season, he finished fourth at states in the event, but while he could be losing a lot of sleep over his decision to take one final short stroke instead of gliding in the way Stephens did, he is not.

"The result of the state final hasn't gotten to me too much, because I look back and I know I could have won," said Augustine, who added a seventh-place medal in the state 100 butterfly. "I should have glided in, but I'm not dwelling on it and I've put that behind me."

In his four years at LC, he excelled in the Pioneer Athletic Conference and District One as a freshman and sophomore, and the Philadelphia Catholic League and District 12 the last two seasons.

"I probably relaxed more in the regular season and at districts the last two years, but not because of the league change," Augustine said. "It was more a matter of having more experience."

Today, he is looking forward to four years specializing in the 100 and 200 breaststroke and the 200 individual medley at West Chester University. He is the owner of a career-best state silver medal, just like his older brother, Albert Jr.

"My brother and I supported each other and didn't really have a rivalry," the youngest Augustine brother said. "It was better when it came to establishing my own identity, because I didn't feel like I had to live up to what he had done."

He may not have felt pressure to do the same as his older brother, but in the end, he did.
